NEGRO RULE.

The first fruits of the Upas tree, Radicalism, ripened in Washington city on Monday, third inst. On that day the Negroes of that city, assisted by vagabond blacks from Virginia and Maryland, wrested the government of the capital of the Republic, from the control of the white men. There were just 8,500 negroes registered and this vote was almost entirely polled. The number of white voters registered, was 10,000. Of this vote but about 6,000 were polled. The whole Negro vote was cast for the ticket nominated by the Negro convention. But about 200 whites voted that ticket. Yet the majority for the Negro ticket is about 2,000. The few dirty whites who thought themselves low and mean enough to unite with the Negroes, assisted by the non-resident hangers-on and Radical clerks in the departments, managed to prevent the polling of the full white Greely's denunciation of such fellows disgrace of their own race. # WHITE SLAVERY.

There are twenty thousand white men in Pennsylvania, some of them scarred and maimed soldiers of the late war, who have been reduced to political slavery by the tricks of the party in power. These men have no voice in the government of the State and are, the number present, assoon as the coas politically, just as much slaves as were the negroes of the South five years ago. # IMPEACHMENT PLAYED OUT.

Some time in March last, we wrote a letter from Washington city, which was published in the GAZETTE, in which we assured our readers that the Impeachment scheme would fail. Our prediction has been fully verified. The Judiciary Committee of the lower house of Congress, which had the matter in charge, has just made a report in which it is set forth that there is no cause for impeachment, but a majority of the committee pass a vote of censure upon the President. They are authorized to receipt for us: election of delegates is to be confined solely to the "Republican voters." The reason for this change is easily accounted for. Ten States and Ten Millions of the course of the late Congress, and the political supporters of that body dare no longer call themselves the "Union Party." During the war, many Democrats were induced to vote against their party, because the opposition professed to be the "Union Party." Of course such Democrats will be consistent and leave the opposition since that party has dropped the name of "Union," and re-assumed that of "Republican" which is now synonymous with Disunion. Even the two Cessnas can hardly "stomach" the name and principles of the party whose enemies they were for so many years. We shall now see who among the Democrats that voted the so-called "Union Ticket," during the war, did so from pure motives, and who | bout the First Precinct of the Seventh among them did so because they were "turn-coats" and wanted to go over to and around the corner down Four-andthe enemy. For, the issue is now no a-half street to E. In all this dusky longer between the Democrats and the "Union Party," but between the Democrats and the Radical, Disunion "Republicans."

The Negro Triumph in Washington, The scenes and incidents connected with the triumph of the negroes over the white population of Washington City furnishes food for serious reflec-

The ceremonies of the day appear to have been commenced by the colored freemen as early as two o'clock this morning, when delegations of them sallied forth with tin horns and other barbarous instruments to arouse the more slothful to the important work of the day. Long before the polls were opened a long line of sable voters, three and four deep, were in waiting at most of the precincts. As a large proportion People are excluded from the Union, by of the negroes were too ignorant to answer the questions propounded in such a way as to coincide with their record on the registration lists, much valuable time was consumed in taking their rotes, and the consequence was that large numbers of the whites who were not in the habit of voting "early and often" were prevented from casting their votes. As a case in point, at ten o' clock this morning, at the First pre-cinct, First ward, the list stood two hundred and twenty-five colored and one white, and Second precinct hundred and twenty-seven colored and one white. From all accounts the colored vote was almost entirely polled, while a large portion of the white vote failed to get in.

The National Intelligencer, the old Whig organ, has a column full of incidents. We select the following items:

Throughout the entire day the negroes monopolized the polls, and excluded white men from the approaches. This excited a good deal of feeling; but the excitement was most intense ward. There was a long line of colored men there, extending along F street, crowd our oldest inhabitants could scarcely recognize a familiar face. Indeed, this was the case at all the pre cincts. It was manifest that the whole contest was one between pauper negroes, dependent for subsistance upon the bones thrown them from the Freedmen's Bureau, and the old citizens and property-holders of Washington. In the Seventh Ward during the day a double line of white voters, corresponding to the line of colored voters on Four-and-a-half street, was formed on F street, meeting the other line at the window, with the idea of voting the whites and colored alternately, and quiet a number of whites were voted in this way; but complaint having been made to Major Richards, Superintendent of Police, he decided that the separate white line could not be permit to the voters in the original line, who had stood waiting all day. This decision created considerable feeling amonest the whites, and it was pro posed to open polls at five P. M., to take in a separate white vote.

Considerable additional excitement was created by a controversy between Major Richards and Mr. Thomas E. Loyd in relation to the above decision Mr. Loyd stated that the double line had been formed with the consent of the recievers of votes, and he denied Mr. Richards' right to thus break up a line of voters, especially as it was com-posed of some of the oldest citizens of the ward. By this decision the whites were excluded from voting; and men who for ten, twenty, thirty, and forty years have exercised the elective franchise here—men who have property interests at stake—were virtually excluded from a voice in muncipal affairs by a horde of strange negroes who have no more interest in Washington affairs than the King of Dahomey, and know as little as that monarch of its true

In all the precincts of the Fourth Ward the colored people opened the ball with a good showing, but they polled most of their strength in the morning. was the strong Conservative ward of the city. The number of colored men that appeared to vote at an early was surprising. The receivers at some of the precincts were very slow. Es pecially was this the case at the Fourth Precinct. Here four of our oldest citizens were turned away and told that they were not registered. Mr. Asbury Lloyd subsequently appeared and offered to vote, and was told he was not He demanded to see the registered. ooks, and found his own name and that of the three others who had been rejected duly recorded. At the Third Precinct double lines of white and colored voters were formed and the ballots were received alternately.

In the Seventh ward the colored people were out early. This was the great negro stronghold, and it seemed to be a preconcerted movement that the polls should be taken possession of by them and held during the day. They therefore paraded the streets at 2 o'clock in the norning, and waked sleepers and made the air resound with notes from tin horns, calling out the faithful. At 4 clock some seven or eight hundred colored voters were in line at the First Precinct, and up to half past 10 A. M. the number had increased to about one thousand. At that time not one white man was in line at that precinct, and only about twenty-five white votes had been received. By an arrangement encommittee of ten, vote distributers, &c., of each party were permitted to vote without waiting to fall into line. The polling proceeded very slowly at this precinct f: om various causes, not averiging more than one to every five min-

One of the receivers, J. B. Pierce, insisted upon examining the books for the names, and it took him just five minutes to spell out the name after he had found it. Although there were so many persons in line, not more than 100 votes were polled at 12 o'clock. It was observed that but few colored were at work yesterday. All were in attendance upon the polls. In some of the wards the colored people strained every nerve to prevent the white people voting. One of their schemes was to swell the line with men who had already voted, in order to keep out the whites. Thus, a negro would vote, and would then pass around to the rear of the line. He would remain there until some one came along who had not voted, when he would drop out of line and give the newcomer his place. This was practised to such an extent in one of the First Ward precincts that direct appeals to prevent it had to be made to the police officers. The judges of election were in session in the Post Office building yesterday, for the purpose, as was stated, of correcting errors in the registration. and a large number of persons voted upon those certificates. During last evening squads of colored men paraded the streets, shouting and hurrahing on occount of their success.
