Resolved, by the Democracy of Bedford County, in Convention assembled, That we affirm the platform of principles adopted by the Democratic State Convention, which assembled at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, 11th inst., and commend the same to the careful consideration of every voter in the county.

Resolved, That the nomination of Hon. George Sharswood, of Philadelphia, for Justice of the Supreme Court, meets our most hearty approbation, and is a well deserved tribute to one of the ablest jurists and noblest men in the whole Commonwealth.

Resolved, That the Legislature of our State, needs reform, that, in the language of the newspaper organ of the Radicals of this county, "another such Legislature as the last will sink us," and, therefore, we recommend the nomination of a Democratic Reform Ticket for members of the Legislature for this district.

Resolved, That we are earnestly in favor of the enactment of such laws as will give our section the much needed railroad development, and we reprobate the negligence and inefficiency of the members of the late Legislature from this district, in regard to this matter so vital and all important to the interests of our county.

Resolved, That we approve of the vigilance and fidelity to duty of the present Board of Poor Directors, in rectifying the financial errors in the Poor House accounts, as well those committed by our political opponents as those which occurred during the administration of Democrats, and that we hail with satisfaction the extraction of the county from its indebtedness to the State, by the present board of County Commissioners.

Resolved, That this Convention approve of the ticket this day nominated and we will give it our undivided support. Prothonotary Shannon, being called upon to address the Convention, responded in his usual happy style. His address elicited much applause. On motion the Convention adjourned sine die. The Bedford Democratic Brass Band enlivened the proceedings, with most excellent music, and after listening to one of its splendid pieces, the members of the Convention dispersed, resolved to do more determined battle than ever for Democratic principles and Democratic candidates. JOB MANN, President. M. A. HUNTER, P. G. MORGART, Secretaries.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

This body assembled at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, 11th inst., at 12 o'clock, M., was called to order by Hon. W. A. Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee. Hon. D. M. Fox, of Philadelphia, was chosen Temporary Chairman. A permanent organization was then effected by the election of Hon. Charles E. Boyle, of Fayette, as President, with one Vice President from each Senatorial district, and the usual number of Secretaries. The Convention was large, harmonious and full of enthusiasm.

A number of the ablest jurists and lawyers of the State were delegates, among whom we remarked Judge Black, Hon. F. W. Hughes, Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, Hon. Richard Vaux, H. P. Laird, Esq., R. A. Lambertson, Esq., Hon. J. D. Stiles, Hon. B. M. Boyer, Gen. A. P. Wilson and others. The delegates from this Representative and Senatorial district, were: A. S. Smith, of Fulton, (Senatorial) John G. Hartley, of Bedford, and Hiram Findlay of Somerset, (Representative). A committee on Resolutions, consisting of one from each Senatorial district, was appointed. Mr. Smith, of Fulton, representing this district on the committee.

Nominations were then made for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, and George Sharswood, of Philadelphia, James Ryon, of Schuylkill, James H. Graham, of Cumberland, John W. Maynard, of Northampton, W. H. Lowrie, of Allegheny, Wm. Elwell, of Bradford, Robert J. Fisher, of York, Gaylord Church, of Bradford, Benjamin Grant, of Erie, Henry D. Foster, of Westmoreland, and Cyrus L. Pershing were named. The name of Gen. Foster was withdrawn. The first ballot resulted as follows:

Geo. Sharswood, 50 votes. John W. Maynard, 14 " W. H. Lowrie, 16 " James Ryon, 14 " R. J. Fisher, 9 " Gaylord Church, 3 " Benjamin Grant, 2 " William Elwell, 7 " C. L. Pershing, 2 "

All the names, except those of Sharswood, Ryon, Maynard and Fisher were then withdrawn. The second ballot stood as follows:

George Sharswood had 85 votes. J. W. Maynard " 15 " James Ryon " 11 " R. J. Fisher " 9 "

Hon. George Sharswood of Philadelphia, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was then declared the nominee of the Convention. On motion of Judge Black, who had voted for Judge Fisher, of York, the nomination of Judge Sharswood was made unanimous, amidst the most tumultuous applause.

The Convention then proceeded to select a State Committee, and elect a chairman of the same. Hon. W. A. Wallace, of Clearfield, was re-elected Chairman of the State Committee, and the Convention decided that his term of office should continue until January 1, 1869. J. O. Kimmel, Esq., of Somerset, is the member of the State Committee for this district. The Committee on Resolutions, then reported the following platform, which was unanimously adopted, after which the Convention adjourned sine die:

PLATFOM. We, the delegates of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, in general State Convention assembled, for the nomination of a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, profoundly grateful to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for the return of peace to our beloved country, but deeply anxious on account of the trials and delays which impede the complete restoration and reunion of all the States, and appreciating the dangers which still threaten the safety of our political institutions, and the future peace, liberty and prosperity of the people, resolve,

1. That we steadfastly adhere to the principles of civil government established by the founders of the Union, and in the present conflict of legislative usurpation with constitutional law, we esteem a wise, upright and fearless judiciary the great bulwark of public liberty and individual rights.

2. That the Union of the States is perpetual, and the Federal Government supreme within its constitutional limits.

3. That Representation in the Congress of the United States, and in the electoral college, is a right fundamental and inalienable in its nature and abiding in every State, being a duty as well as a right pertaining to the people of every State and essential to our Republican system of Government. Its denial is the destruction of the Government itself.

4. Each State having under the Constitution the exclusive right to prescribe the qualifications of its own electors, we proclaim as a usurpation and an outrage the establishment of negro suffrage in any of the States by the coercive exercise of Federal power; and we shall resist to the last resort the threatened measures of the leaders of the Republican party to interfere by acts of Congress with the regulation of the elective franchise in the State of Pennsylvania.

5. That we are opposed to any amendment of the Constitution of the State giving to negroes the right of suffrage.

6. That the failure of the Tariff Bill in the last session of the late Congress, more than three-fourths of whose members belonged to the Republican party, is an illustration of their infidelity to their pledges and their neglect of their professions in relation to the great industrial and financial interests of the country.

7. That the Radical majority in Congress, and those who sustain them, have overthrown the Constitution, dismembered the Federal Union and subverted republican government by a long series of usurpations, among which are the following:

Their denial of the right of States of the Union to representation in Congress. Their treatment of ten States as subjugated provinces and governing them by military force in time of peace. Their enactment of laws denying indemnity for arrests and false imprisonments made without authority of law. Their resistance of the authority of the civil tribunals, and their overthrow by the substitution of military commissions for the trial of undefined offenses. Their efforts to destroy the executive and judicial departments of the Government by threatened impeachment to control executive action, and a projected "remodelling" of the Supreme Court of the United States to force obedience to congressional mandates. Their election from their seats in the Federal Senate and House, of members duly and legally chosen. That the purpose of confiscation avowed by the Republican leaders, in violation of the Declaration of Rights and other guarantees of the Federal and State Constitutions, tending as it does, to destroy all protection to private property, advances them far on the high road to repudiation.

8. That a strict conformity, both by the Federal and State Government, to all the powers, restrictions and guarantees, as contained in the Constitution of the United States, a right and wise economy in the expenditure of public affairs, and the election of capable, honest and patriotic men to office, are measures absolutely necessary to restore public confidence, avert national bankruptcy, and to ensure the perpetuity of our free institutions.

9. That the late Republican Legislature of this State has distinguished itself for the number of its unwise and unconstitutional enactments.

Some of these laws have already been judicially determined to be unconstitutional, others are unwise, inexpedient, oppressive and fatal, and the members who sustained them should be condemned by the people at the polls.

10. That the power and success of the Democratic party greatly depends on the character and efficiency of its newspaper press, and that to give due prominence to its political and social earnestly requests that in every county all the members of the Democratic party should make a vigorous effort to increase its circulation by giving it individual patronage and support.

11. That the Democracy of Pennsylvania, by their representatives now assembled, hereby tender their acknowledgments and thanks to the Hon. Geo. W. Woodward in his retirement from the position of Chief Justice of this Commonwealth, for the pure faithful and able manner in which he discharged the duties of that exalted position.

12. That the candidate we this day present to the people of Pennsylvania for a place on the Supreme Bench of the State, is in all respects worthy of the confidence and support of all who are in favor of an enlightened, faithful and impartial administration of the laws.

PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECTS. The Bangor Democrat publishes an article upon the above subject, which does not give so hopeless a view of our situation as many people insist upon taking. Throwing out the ten southern States, which it is not probable will be allowed to participate in the election, the number of electoral votes will be 27. These, the Democrat thinks, will be presert indications, will be divided as follows:

Democrat. Republican. New Hampshire 5 Maine 7 Connecticut 6 Vermont 7 New York 33 Massachusetts 12 New Jersey 7 Rhode Island 4 Pennsylvania 26 Ohio 12 Maryland 7 Illinois 16 Delaware 3 Michigan 8 Kentucky 1 Wisconsin 8 Tennessee 13 Minnesota 4 Indiana 3 Kansas 3 Nebraska 3 Nevada 3 Oregon 3 West Virginia 5 California 11 Total 135 Total 112

If the ten excluded States are permitted to participate in the election, the Democrat thinks that "it is altogether probable that their 70 electoral votes will be cast solid for the Democratic nominee, although it is possible, through the interference of the military, that the negroes may carry South Carolina and Louisiana." In that event, the southern vote would stand: Democrat, 57; Republican, 13; and the total electoral vote would be divided as follows:

For the Democratic candidate 192 For the Republican candidate 125 Democratic majority 67

Commenting upon these figures, the New York Day-Book says, this is certainly not so hopeless a case. Men have no right, in view of these figures, and they are not unreasonable ones, to sit down, fold their hands, and cry "all is lost." If every Democrat would put his shoulder to the wheel, and work half as hard to get the Congress out of power as they work to retain it, the victory would be won. If we should spend one-half the money in enlightening the people that the Abolitionists spend in deluding them, their power would fade away like the mist before the morning sun. It is inaction, the deadly stupor in the Democracy, that precedes death, that alarms us more than any inherent difficulties in the way of success. Our enemies are strong, not in their cause, but only because of our weakness. They are courageous, only because we are cowardly. They are lions, only because we are sheep!

Let the Democracy recover from their lethargy, and success is certain. But how shall they? We answer, by a true understanding of the real issues before the country. Knowledge will beget courage, courage will instill hope, hope will induce work, and by work the worlds were made. When every Democrat feels that it is a part of his personal duty to aid in extricating our country from its present deplorable position, it will be so extricated, in spite of all the Abolitionists from Maine to Mexico.

NEWS ITEMS.

The reception of the President everywhere at the South, was most gratifyingly enthusiastic. A gentleman in St. Louis has recovered $20,000 from the city for damages caused by falling into a cellar. During May 15, 468 acres of public lands were disposed of at the offices in Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin. The Chicago Common Council have appropriated $320,000 for sewerage purposes. Some of the temperance men in Connecticut are attacking the clergy for using wine in the communion. A number of puddlers have arrived at Pittsburg, Pa., from Europe, and gone to work in the rolling mills. The people of some portions of North Carolina and Virginia are making preparations, this season, to pick and dry blackberries and huckleberries for exportation. Two lady compositors in the Portland Advertiser office were the first in Maine to set a thousand ems toward the fund to erect a monument to Artemus Ward. The President and Cabinet are unanimous in the belief that a Satrap cannot either remove or appoint a civil officer. Farmers complain that nothing comes up—it has been so wet and cold. They forget that prices have come up. They are likely to stay up, too. Flanders who was appointed governor of Louisiana by Satrap Sheridan, is a native of Bristol, New Hampshire. Along the line of the Illinois Central Railroad there are one thousand acres of strawberries. The surplus of the wheat harvest in Georgia, it is estimated, will reach 10,000,000 bushels. Pittsburg has been agreed upon as the place for holding the fair of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society. The fair will commence on Tuesday, September 24. The Indians have taken almost entire possession of Brown county, Texas, driving out the settlers. It is stated that 180,000 voters have been registered in Alabama, and that of this number one-half are negroes. It is said that the colored confidential clerk recently put in the Treasury Department is under arrest for embezzlement and forgery. A man named Robert Price was murdered near Augusta, Georgia, on the night of the 12th, by negroes. J. B. Foster, collector of customs at Wilmington, N. C., has been arraigned for malfeasance in office. The Nashville dorkies demand their turn with the whites in the barber shops. In Baltimore a man was fined $10 for cracking and eating peanuts in a church, during divine service. The prospect of peace in Europe has raised the price of white oak staves in West Virginia, where the Spanish and French wine merchants get their supply of wine casks. A natural cave has been discovered in Duval county, Texas, which has gushing streams, a deep well, and walls composed of sulphate of lime. The Radicals are already complaining that whenever a negro gets a little education he leaves their party and becomes Conservative. They might have known that without waiting to be taught it by experience. The Baltimore Episcopal Methodist advises its Southern friends to buy the English edition of Lange's Commentary upon the Bible. The American edition contains—that no one could guess in a dozen trials—"a partisan account of Gen. Lee's invasion of Pennsylvania." Frightful and Mysterious Accident at the New York Academy of Music. The performance of the Japanese Acrobats at the Academy of Music, New York, on Wednesday evening was abruptly terminated by a most distressing accident. The wonderful little boy, who performed "All Right," who has afforded so much pleasure, and won such a lively interest in every city wherein he has performed, was the victim of this sad mishap. One of this fellow's feats was a flight across the Academy, from the top of the proscenium to the middle of the first tier of boxes. This was performed upon a stout rope. When in the midst of the flight, last evening, the poor boy lost his hold, and fell to the floor, a distance of 30 or 40 feet, landing in the middle aisle of the parquet. Of course the performance was immediately terminated in the midst of the greatest excitement. "All Right," was promptly taken up and conveyed home and Dr. Carnochan and other surgeons were immediately summoned to his aid. He bled profusely from the nose and mouth, and was insensible. To the above from the Tribune, the World adds the following: At one o'clock Thursday morning All Right had slightly recovered from the terrible shock to his system, and after answering at intervals the questions of the anxious friends who surrounded him, had fallen asleep on his couch. For some time before sleeping he questioned rationally and answered all questions put to him in an intelligent manner, although he evidently did not half realize his dangerous condition. The physicians stated that his injuries were principally internal, and that he also suffered a terrible concussion on the right side of the head, but wonderful though it may seem, not a bone was fractured. The unfortunate young performer is a small lad only 10 years of age, a clever genius in his profession, and a thousand of public admirers from whom he received that old nickname, will long to hear that the favorite young performer is still "All Right."

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicine have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Scharf's Tonic, and MARIKRAK PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp. Sold by all druggists and dealers; price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa. (General Wholesale Agents—Dumas Barnes & Co. New York; S. S.
