RETURNED .- Mr. Jacob Fetterly, formerly of this place, but for some years a citizen of Texas, is now on a visit to his friends in this place. Mr. Fetterly informs us that when he left Texas, a jury in one of the counties of that State, was composed of eleven negroes and one white man!

IMPROVEMENTS .- Who says Bedford does not improve? Since last year the "Arandale House" (a fine building) has been erected by Messrs. Smiths & Robartz; the "Chalybeate House," (another commodious structure) by Mr. Chenoweth; a large and well arranged boarding-house has been built by Mr. Cramer; and at present Hon. S. L. Russell is building a fine addition to his residence; Dr. Watson has also renovated his office, and thus the tide of improvement rolls on. The croakers mustn't fence us up yet.

Col. J. H. FILLER.—We had the pleasure on Monday last, of shaking hands with our friend Col. J. H. Filler, who is now on a visit to his family and friends in this place. Col. Filler was, last winter, appointed an Examiner in also lately been appointed to a Lieutenancy in the Regular Army. We congratulate the Colonel upon his luck.

BEAR AND BRAVE IT .- The "crisis" is come—so it is said. The "times" are only take care or some of us will be "swamped." Let us do the best, just assault hard and dull times wherever this Institution will soon be in working and whenever we can. The crops promise abundance, and the fall may bring better times. Let us hope for the best, House.-On and after Sunday next, and not sit down moaning by the the Evening Service will be at 4 o'clock wayside. There are plenty of people in in the afternoon, instead of at night.

THE NEWSPAPER.-A child beginning to read becomes delighted with ulator. Irvine and Statler regulate prinewspapers, because he reads of names | ces of boots, shoes, queensware, notions, which are very familiar and he will &c. progress accordingly. A newspaper in one year is worth a quarter's schooling to a child, and every father must consider that substantial information is M. Kimmell, B. Y. Hamshire, senior connected with this advancement. The editor of of that substantial and wellmother of a family being one of the heads, and having a more immediate Spirt," C. M. Duncan, Esq., and W. PRICES AND PROSPECTS.-Every consumer may well rejoice in the gratifying fact of falling prices for the necessuries of life. In Chicago, corn, that sold for $1 10 a bushel in the third week of May, fell to 90 cents on June 5th. Oats, which sold for 90 cents on May 28th, fell to 60 cents on June 5th. Rye, which was quoted at $1 37 in May, had fallen to $1 02 in June Wheat, which was $2 85 a bushel in May, sold as low last week as $190. Chicago is the headquarters of the grain trade of the country. The prospects of abundant crops have been the cause of this market decline. The New York Journal of Commerce estimates the yield of hay able our "typos" to celebrate the Fourth | this year at 30,000,000 tons, as compared with 21,000,000 tons last year; of corn at 1,200,000,000 bushels last year, and other crops in proportion. The effect of so bountiful a supply should be the reduction of the prices of the necessaries of life to a reasonable figure.

HINTS TO TATTLERS .- An old friend of ours, hands us the following, clipped from a late number of the Presbyterian: The heights and recesses of Mount Taurus are said to be much infested by eagles, who are never better pleased than when they can pick the bones of a crane. Cranes are prone to cackle and make a noise. (Isa. xxxviii. brought to Bedford since the beginning | 14) and particularly so while they are flying. The sound of their voices arouses the eagles, who spring at the signal, and often make the talkative travellers pay dearly for their imprudent chattering. The older and more experienced cranes, sensible of their besetting foible, and the peril to which it exposes them, take care before venturing on the wing to arm themselvs each with a store large enough to fill the cavity of their mouths, and consequently to impose unavoidable silence on their tongues, and thus they escape the danger .-Reader, hast thou an ugly tongue? Learn a lesson from the elder cranes, and to bridle thy tongue by watchfulness and prayer, that thou mayest say with the Psalmist, who had doubtless witnessed, and perhaps felt, the infirmity of which we have been speaking, "I said, I will take heed to my way, that I sin not with my tongue." ORPHANS OF SOLDIERS AND SAILors.-In our paper of to-day will be found the announcement of the Riverside Institute of Burlington county, N. J., for Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans. This liberal and splendid enterprise commends itself to an intelligent and humane public. From the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph we glean the following facts in relation to the institution. It is founded for the purpose of gratuitously educating the sons of deceased Soldiers and Seamen of the United States, and was incorporated on the 8th of April last. In order to raise funds for the maintenance of the Institution, the Washington Library Company, chartered by the State of Pennsylvania, organized itself and perfectted a plan which has received the enthe Pension Office at Washington, dorsement of the highest legal authorwhich position he still holds; and has ity of this State and New Jersey. Their plan of action is to sell certificates of membership at $1 each. Five series of fine steel-plate engravings have been issued, one of which will be stolen a horse somewhere in Bedford given to every subscriber, in addition to a present which is also ensured. (there being no exceptions,) and which will be awarded on the 25th day of September next, at the Academy of Music or at the Institute. The presents to be awarded consist of Forty Thousand, Ten Thousand, Five Thousand, and two of Twenty-Five Hundred Dollars, all in greenbacks, together with real estate, horses, pianos, melo-THE BANKRUPT LAW .- Now that deons, sewing machines, gold watches this act is going into operation, it is camel's hair, lace and Cashmere shawls, best that every one interested in Bank- dress patterns, silver ware, and an endrunter should have a good copy of the less variety of other goods of great law, and we can think of no better way value.
