THE FOURTH AT SCHELLSBURG .-- The Ninety-First anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, was celebrated in appropriate style, at Schellsburg. A large crowd from the surrounding country was in attendance. In the forenoon the Bedford Democratic Brass Band paraded the strets, playing patriotic airs. Mr. Burton Edsall, of the Exchange Hotel, served up a magnificent entertainment which was partaken of by upwards of one hundred guests. The dinner was gotten up under the superintendence of Mrs. Edsall, assisted by Mrs. Snively, late of the "Exchange," and reflected great credit upon the culinary education of those ladies. It was truly one of the best dinners we ever sat down to. Dinner having been discussed, the crowd assembled in front of the "Exchange," a large stand having been erected there for the accommodation of of the speakers. After several beautiful airs by the Band, the meeting was called to order by the appointment of CHARLES DANNAKER Esq., as President, Emanuel Statler, Esq., Vice President, Walter Garlinger -, Secretaries. On moand ---tion of John S. Schell, Esq., the Declaration of Independence was then read by Mr. J. H. Whetstone. After the reading of the Declaration was concluded, B. F. Meyers, Esq., of Bedford, was introduced as the orator of the occasion, and proceeded to deliver a patriotic address, which was well received by the audience. On motion it was unanimously resolved that a copy of Mr Meyers' address be solicited for publication in the county papers, and a committee was appointed for that purpose. M. A. Points, Esq., was then called upon, and in some happily expressed remarks, referred to the appropriate and pleasing manner in which the celebration had been conducted, after which the meeting adjourned, all apparently satisfied that they had once more beheld an old fashioned Fourth of July.

Directors receive but few thanks for the performance of their duties, at best; yet, when citizens are disposed to circulate remonstrances in opposition to their decision, and publish charges in the county papers that have not a shadow of truth in them, how futile seem the anxieties and labors gratuitously bestowed by them, for the benefit of the young, when a few demagogues will do their utmost to defeat every good measure. Could those persons be induced to exhibit as much interest in the intellectual welfare of their children, as they at all times show for their horses or poultry, their own and their children's appearance and enjoyments, we should have a different state of affairs. The comfort of children in the school rooms, is of no consequence to them. The encouragement that the teacher should have to enable him to discharge his duties so as to benefit all.
