ADVERTISING .- Robt. Bonner, writing to the editor of the Troy Whig, says: "All the capital I had when I began to advertise I earned as a journeyman printer; but I was careful to make a paper which, when advertised and introduced, I knew the people would like and continue to buy. I put my money into advertising, I paid cash as I went, and my present fortune is the result."

SCHELLSBURG CELEBRATION.—The surroundings of Schellsburg are very beautiful and the country thickly settled, and the people residing there are whole-souled and generous to a fault. On the 4th of July they had an oldfashioned celebration. The town was crowded with people. The Bedford Democratic Brass Band was on hand, and as a mater of course discoursed patriotic music. After the meeting was about the petitioners' request organized the Declaration of Independence was read by J. H. Whetstone, Esq., tion. RANCID BUTTER.—We cut from an exchange the following recipe: "To v pint of water add thirty drops (about half a' teaspoonful) of liquor of chloride of lime. Wash in this two and a half pounds of rancid butter. When every particle of the butter has come in contact with the water, let it stand an hour or two; then wash the butter well again in pure water. Bedford, Pa. TO THE FRIENDS OF TEM-PERANCE IN BEFORD COUNTY .—From Il sections of the State, as well as our common ountry, come the manifestations of awakened incountry, come the manifestations of awakened interest among the people in the cause of Temper ance, and the determination expressed by renewed labors to lessen the personal degradation poverty, pauperism and crime produced by intemperance, and to suppress the traffic in intoxicating liquors, the prolific parents of these evils. The men engaged in the liquor traffic, supported by appetite, love of gain, and large pecupiary resources, perceiving that the success of the Temperance cause will be the death of their business, have convened, and will strenuously resist the movement. It has, therefore, become more necessary than ever for the and will strenuously resist the movement. It has, therefore, become more necessary than ever for the friends of Temperance to combine for concerted action. At the State Temperance Convention held at Harrisburg, on the 15th of February last, it was resolved that, Whereas, The Temperance work is now carried on by a variety of organizations and instrumentalities, acting separately and independently of each other, but animated by a common faith and laboring for a common end; AND Whereas, It is deemed advisable, for the utmost efficiency, that a union should be formed, which, whilst cy, that a union should be formed, which, whilst leaving each organization free to labor in its favorite method, shall be the recognized representative of all, and form a common bond and a common channel through which the influence of all may be filt in the work of temperance reform. Therefore, an organization named the Pennsylvania State Temperance Union was by the convention authorized and perfected. By means of Temperance Unions in each county, it is intended to carry with increased vigor the principles of Temperance to every portion of the S ate, and submit them to the enlightened judgment of the people.
