THE BATTLE-CRY.

AN INDEPENDENT JUDICIA-RY will be the battle-cry of all good men at the coming election. No wooden judge who will dance as New England pulls the strings; no partizan judge who will decide great questions of the opinion that no further legislaof law, as the demagogues in his party tion is necessary. A PARTMZAN JUDICIARY.

We find in the Radical platform upon which Mr. Williams is placed as a candidate for the office of Supreme Judge, the following resolution:

"That warned by past misfortunes, we ask that the Supreme Court of the State be placed in harmony with the political opinions of the majority of the people, to the end that the court may never again, by unjust decisions, seek to set aside laws vital to the nation, nor imperil the safety of the public securi-ties, nor impair the operation of the bounty, pension and tax laws, which were required for the public defence; nor in any way thwart measures which were essential to the public protection; but that, on the other hand, it may become and remain a fit and faithful interpreter of the liberal spirit of the age, a bulwark of public faith, and an impartial and fearless exponent of the equal rights of man."

If there is a single lawyer in the whole State, who has so little respect We have appointed S. J. McCauslin, of this place, and J. W. Bowen, of Napier tp., agents to receive subscriptions and collect accounts for this judiciary, or who values the dignity and integrity of his profession so light-with a proper reserving. ly, as to endorse the spirit of the above resolution, he ought to be kicked out of the bar. The idea that the Supreme Court, or any other court, should be controlled in its decision of grave legal questions, by the fact that the majority party is on one side, or the other, of such questions, must strike the mind of every man who is not a knave, or a fool, as not only supremely ridi-This issue begins the sixty-second year culous, but utterly inconsistent with of the BEDFORD GAZETTE. CONSUMPTION. CURABLE BY DR CHENCK'S MEDICINES .- To cure consumption, the ystem must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. Schenck's Mandrake Pills cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucous accumulations; and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is nutritious as well as medicinal, and, by using the three remedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all dis ease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action .-Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and tomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for someimes in diarrhoea they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold.
