FOR AUDITOR SAMUEL WHIP, of Cumb. Valley.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER ISAAC KENSINGER, of Liberty.

HENRY W. WILLIAMS,

The Radical candidate for Supreme Judge, stands upon a platform, in which occurs the following "Resolved, That warned by past misfortunes, we ask that the Supreme Court of the State be placed in harmony with the political opinions of a majority of the people."

Thus, the Supreme Court, which is the final arbiter between the weak and the strong, between minorities and majorities, is to be swayed by political bias against the rights of that portion of the people who may happen to be in the minority. Have minorities no rights which majorities are bound to respect? Nay, are not the fewest number of people lawyers, or jurists, and is not often the smallest minority right, on questions of law, rather than the mass who have had no legal or judicial education? Who, therefore, could trust a man as Supreme Judge, who will agree to substitute for his own deliberate judgment, the crude opinions of the mob? Again, is the candidate of a party which holds that a man and silver, by paying the same in paper money, thus actually making Government bands worth no more than ordinary paper money. This is repudiation. Who, therefore, will vote for H. W

THE REMOVAL OF SICKLES. The Radical newspapers have set up

a universal howl over the removal of

Gen. Sickles, the congressional satrap commanding in the military district composed of the late States of North and South Carolina. From the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of the United States, we present a brief summary of the facts in the case, which justify the removal not merely, but the prompt punishment of the offender. It will be remembered that a regular term of the Circuit Court of the United States was held at Raleigh, N. C., without the military lines of Gen. Sickles, on the first Monday in June last, Chief Justice Chase presiding. At this term of the Court, judgment was entered against two parties, David and Daniel Kahnweiler, defendants of record. Upon these two judgments, writs of execution were regularly issued and placed in the hands of Daniel R. Goodloe, U.S. Marprocess by Capt. R. T. Judge Chase rightfully holds that the Supreme Court cannot be interfered with by the President or by Congress, or by any power on earth. General Sickles holds a different opinion, and has employed the military forces of the country to defy its authority. In the name of the insulted majesty of American law, in the name of a trampled and dishonored constitution, for the sake of what yet remains of American liberty, we thank President Johnson for removing Sick-

SICKLES ON THE DEFENSIVE. The dethroned sovereign who lately held despotic sway over that portion of our common country, once known States of North and South Carolina, Dan Sickles, publishes six mortal columns of defense, which will be acceptant vindication, Chief Justice Chase to the contrary notwithstanding. If his arguments lack the sharpness of the bayonets which he employed in Wilmington to resist the authority of the Supreme Court, they will be good enough for radicals generally. But candid men will confess that Sickles, pen in hand, smart as he is, cannot assail the courts as effectually as when in the plenitude of power, supported by the muskets of United States soldiery, he assaulted them in the Carolinas. He wastes much time in describing the being nearly twice the cost of the entire session of the Legislature under Democondition of the District when he assumed command, and makes loud boasts of the clemency, forbearance and magnanimity which marked his reign, reminding us in his self-laudations of some of those good kings of whom we while that of 1847, under the adminisread no where but in the veritable history of Peter Parley. He denies that he intended any contempt of the courts of the United States, he was only enforcing the laws of Congress! In the course of his defense he says: "I do not "believe that the process of the courts "of the United States should override "and set aside the order Congress has "empowered me to make for the exe-"cution of its measures"! If Gen. Sickles live long enough he will discover that the people of this country hold a widely different opinion. Rather than permit any interference with 13 pages, the freedom of the judiciary, they will may repudiate his contract to pay a debt in gold sweep away all the rubbish of military reconstruction laws, and all the agents employed in their execution. With patriotic fervor they will cling to the courts ordained by the constitution for the maintenance of their rights and liberties, when the whole brood of reconstruction acts and the minions who enforce them in the tyrannical spirit membered only to be execrated. In Gen. Sickles was engaged in levying war against the United States, and was

WAIT A LITTLE.—The celebrated false prophet, Dr. Cumming, has several times predicted the end of the world and fixed the day for it to come off, but his predictions have always been falsified-the world would in spite of him, roll on in its accustomed course. The doctor now, however, is determined to attune for the past, and acknowledges that in his predictions he was mistaken. He says that in revising the calculations on which he based the announcement of the world's ending in 1857, he discovered that he overlooked figures which add something like a quintilion of years to the race which this mun lane sphere has run. To see the real day of the end of the world, therefore, we must wait a short time longer.
