

THE RECONSTRUCTION FRAUD IN VIRGINIA.

Last week an "election" was held in that part of Military Reconstruction District No. 1, comprised in what remains of the grand old Commonwealth of Virginia. If anything were wanting to prove the diabolical character of the despotism erected by the Reconstruction Acts, this "election" would amply supply the deficiency. The scenes enacted at Richmond, Lynchburg, Petersburg and elsewhere, whilst the voting was going on, beggar description. Violence, riot and bloodshed, were the order of the day. Arrests by the police, and rescues by mobs of blacks, were alternate incidents around the polls and throughout the streets and squares of the principal cities. If a disorderly negro was put under arrest by the police, a riot immediately ensued, and then came the cavalry squadron, charging with sabre drawn, to disperse the infuriated crowd. If a negro attempted to vote the conservative ticket, he was assailed by the blacks of the "League," pelted with stones, and beaten with clubs, until death, or a cavalry charge, closed the scene. And thus the farce, tinged with streaks of the bloodiest tragedy, was played to its end. The curtain fell upon the prostrate form of Liberty, the assassin Hunnicutt standing defiantly upon the stage, brandishing his bloody dagger in triumph, amid the discordant yells of a pandemonium of negro furies. Virginia was Africanized and the only possible end of Congressional Reconstruction was accomplished.

But we recoil from further contemplation of the subject. If the recital of facts which are patent to the eyes of all, could add any force to the self-evident arguments against the revolutionary and pernicious measures of Congress, we would not shrink from giving them in full detail. It is, however, unnecessary to dwell upon the disgusting theme. The sensible, sober-thoughted people of the North, have already seen enough of the "Congressional plan," to convince them of its monstrous character, as well as of its utter futility. The glaring fact, that the government of each and every one of the excluded States, is turned over to a herd of ignorant and brutal blacks, to the exclusion of nine-tenths of the whites, has settled the question against Congress, and no matter how "elections" held at the point of the bayonet, may result, "Reconstruction" is as dead as Julius Cesar. Requiescat in pace.

"A poor excuse is better than none." Upon this principle our Radical brethren are trying to console themselves over their recent defeats. They tell us that their vote was not out, that there was great apathy in their ranks, whilst the Democrats polled their full vote, &c., &c. They don't seem to realize the fact that there is hardly an election district in the State, in which some of those who formerly voted their ticket, did not this year cast their ballots for the Democratic candidates. Considering that no pecuniary advantage, or official patronage, attaches to the office of Supreme Judge, (the only State office voted for) there was a very heavy vote polled. It was never exceeded, except last year, and is larger than the home vote cast for President in 1864. It exceeds by 80,000, the vote of 1865, when the "Republicans" carried the State by 22,660! Let those who talk about the apathy in the Radical ranks, remember this fact, that in 1865, the Republicans polled but 238,400, and carried the State, as above stated, by 22,660 majority, whilst this year they polled 266,824, or 28,242 more votes than in 1865, and yet are beaten 1,000. A little study of these figures will enable the dullist intellect to discover, that it was not "apathy," but re-acton, that defeated the Radicals at the late election.

The "best abused" individual, just now, is General Apathy. Andrew Johnson is no where, compared with him. Doubtless, the lazy, dozing fellow is grievously in fault, but, after all, he is not so much to blame for the collapse of the Radical party, as the people themselves. Take Ohio, for instance. The largest vote ever polled in the State, was cast at the late election. Last year the vote of the State was 469,908, this year it is 484,227, showing an increase of 14,319. The Democratic vote increased 27,016, whilst the Radical vote decreased 12,697, proving that there was an actual change from the latter to the former of, at least, the last named number of voters. This is the result of re-acton, not of apathy.

CAN the Inquirer inform us what has become of the Borie vs. Trott case?

FRAUD.

As usual the Radical tricksters have undertaken to play their game of "counting-out" the Democratic candidates, and their machinery was well prepared for the execution of their nefarious purpose. Taking advantage of the Act of Assembly which provides for the reception of the vote of soldiers in actual service, under a requisition of the President of the United States, or by authority of the Commonwealth, they had Governor Geary issue a commission to one of their tools, authorizing him to proceed to the regular army, and take the votes of persons outside of the Commonwealth, in the service of the United States. Accordingly this person proceeded to Fort Delaware, and notwithstanding remonstrances of the officer commanding the Fort, opened an election, and made a return of 118 votes, 113 for Williams and 5 for Sharswood. (Of course the 5 votes for Sharswood were returned "to keep up appearances.") This return was counted by the Philadelphia Republican Judges, and lessens Judge Sharswood's official majority just 108 votes, his true majority being 1030, whilst the Fort Delaware fraud reduces it to 922. Major Morgan, the commander of the Fort, writes to W. L. Hirst, Esq., of Philadelphia, that but 33 votes were polled in all, and that the greater portion of those who voted had no right to vote for Pennsylvania officers. This fraud, having been so thoroughly exposed, the Radical plotters, covered with shame, in order to draw the attention of the public from their own infamy, commenced a cent for some of the local officers in Philadelphia, based upon the allegation of frauds in some of the wards of that city. This is only the old dodge of crying "stop thief," and we are well convinced that nothing will come of it but idle gossip. The Fort Delaware fraud cannot be covered up by any such stale tricks, and the men engaged in it, from Governor Geary, to the miserable knave who forged the return, even if they be not punished by the laws, will sink beneath the contempt and indignation of right-thinking men of all parties.

The history of the Republican party in the United States is the history of progress and liberty. Were it today to-morrow, it would leave such a record as no other party in the history of the world has left. Inquirer.

There is not the slightest doubt about that! It freed and enfranchised three millions of brutish blacks, to make them slaves of a midnight League, which compels them to vote at the point of the bayonet, and it enslaved five millions of white people who are not permitted to take any part in the government under which they live. It made prison-pens of the forts and castle buildings of the country, and cast men innocent of crime, into loathsome dungeons, to suffer ineffable tortures and die a death of horror. It doomed men to ignominious punishments, without judge or jury, simply because they chose to hold and avow political opinions opposed to its own peculiar dogmas. It even hung up a defenceless woman, after heartlessly mocking the tendernessibilities of her nature, by exposing her to the devilish burlesque of a trial before a military commission. Finally, it would up by piling upon the country a debt that weighs the people to the earth, by imposing upon us a most unjust, because unequal, system of taxation, by inventing a plan to keep ten States out of the Union, at an enormous expenditure of the people's money, by erecting a military despotism over those States, and to close the scene, by placing ten millions of white people under the domination of three millions of blacks. Verily, "such a record no other party in the history of the world has left," and, God be thanked! that record is about coming to an end.

The original order of Gen. Schofield, in regard to the holding of the election in Richmond and other large cities in Virginia, named two days upon which the voting was to be done. On closing the polls on the second day, it was discovered that there was a white majority of about 500. As such a result was not "on the bills," the polls were re-opened, and another day and night were given Hunnicutt to drum up his blacks, and the voting of negroes was kept up all that day and night, until the white vote was overcome. Great God! what a mockery of the elective franchise, is an "election" like that!

JUDGE WOODWARD has been elected to Congress from the Luzerne and Susquehanna district, by a majority of upwards of 600. He was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. Charles Dennison. Judge Woodward was in Europe at the time of his nomination and election, and knew nothing of the action of his friends in making him a candidate. His presence in Congress will produce a rattling among the dry bones of Radicalism.

The Republican party must raise itself above these "tricks" formed for mere spoils, or die of corruption. Inquirer.

Is it possible? Can it be? We are overwhelmed with amazement! The "Republican" party dying of "corruption"! This confession, coming from the Bedford Inquirer, is truly astounding. When we said previous to the late election, that the "Republican" party was corrupt, the Inquirer was ready to swallow us, so enraged did it become at the "infamous Copperhead lie." But now it "acknowledges the corn." Republicans! What more do you need to convince you that it is your duty to leave this party that is dying of "corruption"?

Gov. BROWNLOW, of Tennessee, has announced himself as a candidate for United States Senator. We wish Tennessee could find some one to represent her who would add to the dignity of the United States Senate, rather than detract from it. Inquirer.

Oh, ho! Your stomachs are getting a little squeamish, at last. We had thought Brownlow suited your taste exactly. But how can Tennessee find a decent man among the dominant party in that State, made up, as it is, of renegade rebels and brutish blacks?

The Inquirer seems to favor legislation legalizing the running of street cars on Sunday, in Philadelphia. Tut! tut! that is not in accordance with "great moral ideas!" Take care, boys, lest you be "read out of the party."

ELECTIONS will be held in New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, on Tuesday next. The Democrats are hopeful of carrying a majority of them.

THE NEGROIZING OF VIRGINIA.

The following article, copied from the Baltimore Sun, of Friday, last, will give our readers some idea of the working of Reconstruction in Virginia:

THE SUFFRAGE SPECTACLE IN VIRGINIA.—Whilst Ohio has refused, by an immense majority, suffrage to the comparatively small number of colored men in her population, Virginia, with her vast body of emancipated slaves, has just been subjected to the experiment of enforced negro suffrage in an election for a convention to form the organic law of the Commonwealth. We are much mistaken if the parade of returns from that election, and the figures, facts and incidents connected with it, do not greatly accelerate the reaction at the North which has been manifested in the late elections in Northern States. The spectacle which has been exhibited in the Virginia election may well cause all men of any capacity of reason and forecast, even in the radical ranks, to pause and reflect what is to be the end of such things. What we have just seen in Virginia is solid organization of blacks, as completely as under the leadership of any man, with an army under its general in time of war, not only marching to the polls to vote down conservative intelligence, but to vote down all moderate men, including those well-known as the prominent Union men of the State, and threatening to hang those with stones and threaten to hang those of their own color who attempted to vote the conservative ticket, and furiously to assault the police when they endeavored to protect conservative men of their own color from their violence. One illustration, out of many, of the manner in which the leaders of the blacks in Virginia have compelled their followers to draw the line between white and black, and make allegiance to one Hunnicutt, an agrarian white radical, instead of Union principles, the standard of qualification in the late election of delegates to the convention, is the defeat of Franklin Stearns, Esq., in the county of Henrico. Mr. Stearns is a Northern man by birth, an original Union man of the strongest kind, a gentleman of high character, great energy, and fine business talents, and has labored for years for the welfare of Richmond and Virginia. This gentleman recognized as one of the most influential republicans of Virginia, has been beaten by the president of a local negro league, who is understood to have received a white vote in the county. Mr. Stearns was altogether disinclined to go to the convention, and only consented in order to save the county from being represented by a man thoroughly incompetent. Another case is that of a well-known leading republican, Lewis McKenzie, Esq., a man of high character, former ally and political colleague, formerly justly acknowledged by the colored men as their "best friend," who received only ninety-nine votes whilst the selected chief of the extremists received one thousand four hundred and eighty-seven.

The frauds in the election; the injustice of the apportionment, which, with a large white majority in the State, so arranged the districts as to insure a majority to the blacks in the convention; the contemptuous arraying of the blacks against the Union men; the infuriated and bloodthirsty assault upon those of their own color who declined to vote their ticket, and whose lives were only saved by the interposition of the military and the police, furnish ample food for reflection of all in the North who read the returns of the Virginia election, and will intensify the reactionary tide which has already set in so strongly from Pennsylvania, and other Northern States, and has compelled radical leaders like Chief Justice Chase and the Governor elect of Ohio, feeling the ground giving away under them, to retreat to a moderate and unpracticable position and seek safety in more conservative ideas. The reaction which has begun in the North, and which the scenes just witnessed in Virginia will greatly strengthen, arises from no animosity to the negro, and from no desire to interfere with the most liberal and unpracticable position and seek safety in more conservative ideas.

The following important telegram has been received by William L. Hirst, Esq., of this city, from General Townsend, in reference to the Fort Delaware election fraud. The document speaks for itself, and, at present, needs no comment:—

THE RADICAL FRAUD IN FORT DELAWARE!

Starting Disclosure! The Way in which it was Done and Who Did It!

The following important telegram has been received by William L. Hirst, Esq., of this city, from General Townsend, in reference to the Fort Delaware election fraud. The document speaks for itself, and, at present, needs no comment:—

WAR DEPARTMENT, October 15, 1867. Wm. L. Hirst, Esq., 211 South Sixth Street, Philadelphia. In reply to your letter of October 12, received yesterday, General Grant directs me to send you the following copy of telegram just received from the commanding officer at Fort Delaware:—

FORT DELAWARE, Oct. 14, 1867. General E. D. Townsend, Assistant Adjutant General. I was in Philadelphia when the election occurred here. Colonel Howard, who was in command, reports that a citizen presented himself here with a commission from Governor Geary, under the seal of Pennsylvania, appointing him to take the votes of Pennsylvania soldiers at this post. Colonel Howard told him that he was under the impression that such an election was not legal. But as the man had a commission from Governor Geary, he allowed him to take the votes. I had, on my part, a large proportion of the men voting had no vote in the State under any circumstances. It is said only thirty-three (33) votes were polled, while over a hundred (100) were returned. No officers were concerned one way or the other in this election. (Signed) C. H. MOGAN, Major Fourth Artillery, Brevet Brigadier-Gen. Commanding. E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

THE NECESSITY OF THE TIMELY DISTRIBUTION OF POLITICAL INFORMATION.

We recommend the following, from the Cincinnati Enquirer, to the serious consideration of the Democracy of Bedford county:—"The New York Tribune, in commenting on the result of the recent elections, makes the following suggestions:—"Flooding the country with printed matter, on the eve of an election, is a desperate resort, better than nothing, that is all. No reliance can be placed on it; little good ordinarily comes of it. But begin now, and systematically insure that every man that has a vote shall have a newspaper, if he will take it, and all is safe." "That is very true. If it is desirable that the people be indoctrinated with correct political sentiments, they should be furnished with the arguments long in advance of the election, in order that they can thoroughly turn them in their minds, and study them while working at their benches, or on their farms, or other places of occupation. Now is the time to commence the distribution of information, in a printed form, preparatory to the next Presidential election. No election since the foundation of the Government, can compare in importance to the one we are about entering upon, and never before were the people so imperatively called upon to inform themselves as to the issues upon which the contest must be decided. We have gratifying evidence that the people, Democrats and Republicans, are awakening to the importance of this matter. Since the election we have received upward of three thousand new subscribers, daily and weekly, one-third of whom, we are written, are Republicans. The sign is an auspicious one, and we hope it will continue to be manifested for months to come. Every person who can afford it, should take two political papers, one of either side. If he cannot afford to take two, he should by all means strain a point to take one, and that one should be of his own political faith. Immense interests hang upon the event of the Presidential election of 1868, and every citizen should be prepared to meet the responsibility cast upon him as a voter. The newspaper is the cheapest instructor he can find."

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

Elisha Brady, a Radical ward politician of Baltimore, was shot and killed between three and four o'clock on the morning of the 22d ult., by John Bowers, whilst the former was in the act of cutting the balyards of a hickory pole erected by the Democrats. This was too great a punishment for the offence, we think, but Ben Butler did not think so when he hung Mumford at New Orleans for hauling down the flag. Nor did Gen. Slocum (or Stanton) when he said: "If any man hauls down the American flag, shoot him on the spot."

The full official vote of Ohio is in. It shows that the largest vote ever cast in the State was polled at the late election. It foots up 484,277, which exceeds any previous vote by 8,000. The republicans polled 242,605 for Hayes, and the democrats 242,672 for Thurman. Of sixteen congressional districts carried by the republicans last fall, seven now go democratic. The heaviest republican loss in any one district is 7,000.

Mrs. Hoffman, the woman who was stabbed in church at Canton, Ohio, on Sunday, the 13th ult., by a divorced husband, died on Saturday last. Hoffman hung himself in his cell on Sunday night. He had tried to kill himself by bumping his head against a wall, but failing in this, made a rope from his bed-clothing and hung himself to the wall of his cell.

For some time past, a company of outlawed freedmen, numbering about a dozen, have squatted on Gen. Hampton's lands, within five or six miles of Charleston, S. C., known as the "Old Furnace Tract." These freedmen, armed with guns and other warlike weapons, have on several occasions stopped travelers and demanded their money or their life.

It is related that in Virginia City, Nevada, a poor widow, examining an old vest of her deceased husband, found a dirty paper in the pocket, which, on examination, proved to be the deed of three feet of a valuable mining claim. The secretary of the company informed her that it was genuine, and that $1,800 in dividends was due on it. She took the money, sold the dirty paper for $14,000, and went to her home and friends in the East.

THE PLAN of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia, for the endowment of the Riverside Institute for "Soldiers and Sailors' Orphans, is one that has been laid out in strict accordance with the terms of the charter as granted for this purpose by the Legislature of Pennsylvania. This charter of the Washington Library Company, legalizes the very acts that its members are now performing for this noble object. The plan, most of our readers are aware, consists in selling stock at $1 per share, each share being accompanied by a handsome fine steel-plate engraving, worth fifty per cent more than is actually paid for the stock. Besides this, every share of stock secures one present in the great distribution of presents to shareholders. Of these presents the aggregate value is $300,000, one of them being worth the enormous sum of $40,000, another $20,000, another $10,000, and one worth $5,000, and two worth $2,500 each, several worth $1,000 each, and so on. This is simply the plan in brief as adopted and presented to the public. Every shareholder will obtain some present in the great distribution, besides the beautiful engraving at the time of purchase, and each one has an equal chance of getting a small fortune.
