GETTING MUST-Y .- Some of our bills have been stored away so long in their appropriate pigeon holes, waiting to be "lifted" by those whose names are written upon them, that they have become quite must-y. Indeed, they must be collected, and we give this last notice, to those who are interested in saving costs upon them, that after the coming Court, they will be placed in the hands of an officer. We have neither time nor inclination to dun any more, and have made up our minds to pay somebody a fair percentage for making collections. We have indulged many of our friends until indulgence has ceased to be a virtue, and if, after this notice, they are still delinquent, they can blame nobody but themselves, if they are forced to pay. Call and see us; bring your receipts with you, if you have any; let us settle, any how; and do not, by your negligence, compel us to resort to the law. Court week will give almost every one in arrears an opportunity to communicate with us. If you cannot come in person, authorize your neighbor who is on the jury, or a witness, or to this and save yourselves trouble and the printer much vexation.

WINTER.—"Chill November's surly blast makes fields and forests bare. and likewise covers them-with snow. On Tuesday morning last, we had a visions of furs and sleighs and prancsmirking and smiling and chattering and flattering of the belles, at once themselves in the chapped nose, the longest ever had in that county.—Getfrozen toes and the other woes, of a tysburg Compiler. fashionable sleighing-party. Others who love to eliminate pleasure from smooth and solid sheet of ice, and whence they seemed to hear the ring as the music of the spheres. And the were in their heads, and slippery pavements and smooth turn-pikes danced a jig before their excited fancy. But alas! for the joys of the girls and the boys, it ceased to snow and there was

A SWEET EXAMINATION .- Not every examination of teachers, turns out as sweet as the one at Stonerstown on last Saturday. Some boys, bent on mischief, had made a journey to a land "flowing with milk and honey," in Huntingdon co., and there captured a bee-hive filled with honey. Like the man who drew the elephant at a raffle, they were at a loss to know what to do with their prize. But, as the sequel shows, they finally concluded to store the hive in the loft of the Stonerstown school house. Well, the examination of teachers began, on Saturday morning. The applicants for examination began to hum, on the first floor, and the bees on the second. Presently a number of the latter dropped from the hive, to the first floor. The County Superintendent found several buzzing about his ears, greatly to his annoyance .-About this time an officer of the search the house. It was granted. One of the School Directors mounted a bench, ascended to the loft, and soon returned with the treasure—a hive filled with honey. It was now proposed Stoves and Parlor and Ten plate to test the contents which were accordingly issued out by one White, and County Superintendent likes honey, Nov. 18th (Court week). but would rather have it stored elsewhere than in school house lofts.

A SNAKE IN A BOY'S STOMACH.-A boy aged eight years, son of Benjamin Whisler, residing in Mifflin township, a short distance, from Newville, in Cumberland county, has been seriously afflicted for some time past on account of having a living snake in his stomach. The presence of the young reptile was discovered about two years ago, and by a rapid growth it has attained a size that renders it very painful to the boy. Thirteen physicians assembled at the family residence last week and held a consultation, when it was decided that the only manner in which the snake could be removed was by cutting open the stomach of the sufferer. The boy has not eaten any food except sweetmeats and new milk for more than a year past and has a horror of everything else in the shape of nourishment. The case is a very singular one, and may be considered by many UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE CO.
