GLOBE WOOLEN FACTORY.
20,000 lbs of WOOL WANTED.—The proprietors of this well-known factory to its numerous customers for their former liberal patronage, and begs to assure them that it is now better prepared than ever to accommodate them. His machinery, which is abundant, is in excellent order, and he can card and spin for customers on the shortest notice, at 25 cts per pound.
And he is prepared to do all kinds of manufacturing. Mr. Uley will visit upon our customers throughout the country and afford them an opportunity to exchange their wool for goods. He has 20,000 lbs of good wool anxiously desired. Please give us a call if convenient, if not, write for the wagon. [mar23/67] JOHN KEAGY.

MANHOOD; HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.—Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Sexual Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Exhaustion, Impediments to Marriage, &c., also Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fissures induced by self-indulgence or Sexual extravagance.
Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of this self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine, or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radially.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, or two addressed, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post-stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's Marriage Guide, price 25 cents. Address the publishers,

Publications.
1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading publications of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consist in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful one that has preceded it. The first requirement for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These two World publications stand high with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fairness and fidelity, whether they make for or against the views of public policy. Prompt activity in speaking before their readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of "The World" for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else may fail, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundantly, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. The World will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes as freely as those prepared by political friends, making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are contrary to the views of its own party. Advertising, which it cannot refuse, is content to leave to make their full impression. The World accepts this rule because it believes no duty is honest, because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, "The World" will continue to be the advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unfolding champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its policy is Freedom restrained by Justice; and, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest and most liberal sense of the term.
Being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own party. Advertising, which it cannot refuse, is content to
