

HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP R.R. - WINTER ARRANGEMENTS - TIME TABLE - Accommodation train leaves Saxton at 7.30 a. m., and arrives at Huntingdon at 9.30 a. m., leaves Huntingdon at 4.40 p. m., and arrives at Saxton at 6.25 p. m.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE. - The members of the Democratic County Committee are requested to meet in the Grand Jury room in the Court House, on Tuesday, Dec. 10, at one o'clock, P. M.

OUR POSTAGE STAMPS. - It is stated that the post office department is experimenting on a new style of stamps, which are intended to replace those now in use.

A HIT AT THE TIMES. - The following lines from the pen of one who frequently worships at the shrine of the Muses, is a fair hit at one of the follies of the age:

TO ECONOMISE is to draw in as much as possible. Some of our ladies apply this art to their person, and the result is a very small waist!

THE SWISH SEASON is upon us in both fact and fact! Shrieking screams of ponderous pokers drown out the chorus of chattering; while sausages, scrapple and souce are standard bills of fare.

CHURCH ROBBERED. - The Dunkard Church in Snake Spring Valley, was entered some time ago, by some burglars, and robbed of plates, spoons and other articles contained therein.

ANOTHER. - On Sunday night last, another slight snow fell on Monday was supplemented with a few desultory flakes. Winter has made several desperate efforts to storm the works of Autumn, and will, doubtless, unfold his white banners in triumph, as soon as the trenches freeze over.

REGULATOR. - In the midst of the excitement attendant upon the establishment of new Book stores, etc., it will be well for our people not to forget the "Regulator," where boots and shoes, queensware, groceries, notions, &c., are sold cheaper than ever.

THE ROBBER TIME, that steals the sweetness from all fruits and flowers, is baffled by Phalon's "Night-Blooming Cereus." Its aroma is less perishable than that of foreign extract, essence or toilet water, and incomparably more delightful.

NEW BOOK STORE. - Our friend, Mr. John Keeffe, is about opening a new Book, Stationery and Picture store, in Shafer's building, on Juniata Street.

THE BANKRUPT LAW. - All who contemplate availing themselves of the benefit of the Bankrupt Law, must do so previous to March 2, 1868, as the fifty per cent. clause takes effect on that day.

THE WASHINGTON LIBRARY COMPANY of Philadelphia, is established in the confidence and affections of the people. The reason is obvious. The design is worthy, and creditable to the patriotic hearts who are laboring to benefit a too much neglected class.

AGENTS WANTED. - For two of the best-selling subscription books ever published. One entitled "Mysteries of the Neoplatonists," by an Es-Ex-Imperator Nona, a true account of the most complete and most thrilling and interesting work before the public.

NEGRO OUTRAGES. - The papers from all parts of the country are filled with accounts of the most revolting outrages upon women and children by negroes. A brutal, sensual race, and within the first year of the agitation of the question of their right to social equality and suffrage, we find them rioting in licentious violence.

THE NEGROES OF KENTUCKY have been holding a State Convention at Lexington. They demand the right to sit on juries, and general equality.
