VERY MUCH CONCERNED.-The Radical papers of this Congressional district, are in a terrible fidget over the prospective Democratic nomination for hitched. Had it not been for Mr. Mid-Congress. They have already announced a half dozen candidates for that nomination, and seem to be on the look-out for more. This is evidently the result of their conviction that our next Congressman will be a Democ at, ses. Truly, a narrow escape. and their consequent anxiety to know who is to be the man. The Falton Republican, of last week, has the following:

"The Democracy of this district are already agitating the subject as to flooring of a "hay-mow." It appears who shall be their standard-bearer that Mr Naugle was engaged in hauli) the aproaching contest for member o. Congress from this district.

As the Radical papers appear to have forgotten that there are aspirants in their own ranks, or consider them too "small potatoes" to mention their names, we will just remind them that there are such among them. The present incumbent, Gen. Koontz, of Somerset, is pressed, we are told, for renomination. John Cessna, ex-copperhead, of Bedford, is a candidate. Dr. S. E. Duffield, of Fulton, quiet as you keep it, Mr. Republican, has not abandoned his hope of being the nominee. Franklin county has a candidate in the person of a certain iron-master whose name nion Herald, 23d ult. we don't, just now, recollect. And Adams will present our unfortunate SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT .-- On man, 30th ult. Tuesday last, 31st ult., a very serious accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a short distance from Mill Creek, Huntingdon co., by the breaking of a rail. Four cars of the fast line, ran off the track and upset over an embankment. Mrs. Annie Duggin, of Pittsburg, was killed, and her body partially burned up. Her husband, Patrick Duggin, was also seriously til Sunday. There are suspicions as burned. A number of other persons to the thief.
