Hell thrills with ecstacy as the announcement rings through its corridors. The flends shout and laugh, for they scent blood and death in the upper air.

The infernal "Rump" of a Congress have impeached the President. The vote was taken at five o'clock on Monday last, and stood 135 for, to 47 against, impeachment. Yes, the Radical Rebels have resolved to remove the Presi-

WHY?

Because hes' ands by the Constitution and fulfils his oath to support and maintain that sacred instrument. Because they have undertaken to bind him hand and foot with unconstitutional at one another and at all about them, legislation, and he dares to stand up for his rights. Because, forsooth, he chooses to appoint his own cabinet officers, as the Constitution authorizes him to do and as all other Presidents If they are not permitted to gorge have done before him.

These devils incarnate, who would plunge the country into the bloodiest civil war that ever reddened the page of history, these hatchlings of the bats of the lowest hell, who subsist on the intensity of human misery, these tadpoles of the toads that feed in the slimiest holes of the bottomless pit, would take advantage of their own devilishness and thus drag down as their victim a true, honest and fearless MAN!

A law is passed, unconstitutional on its face, which affects the President alone. He prefers to keep his oath to support and defend the Constitution, rather than to break that oath by obeying this law. In other words, he refuses to regard this law as valid, and manded the forces of Curtin. The batthus seeks to test its validity in the Courts. For this he is to be removed from office. Shall it be done? NEV-ER! NEVER! NEVER!

THE RADICAL TEAM.

It was Munchausen, we believe, who told the "ower true tale" about a pack of wolves attacking the horses attached to a sledge, the wolves eating the horses as they ran, until they (the wolves) and taking the place of the horses. case found a parallel, some years ago, in some "wolves in sheep's clothing" whose savage attacks upon the "Republican" party resulted in their completely swallowing up the old wheelhorses of that party and getting themselves, body and breeches, into the harness of Radicalism. These creatures now run the Radical machine and are driven by the lash of their party masters, whithersoever their drivers list. They are, however, a troublesome team, as they cannot pass a single bone without snapping at it and quarreling over it, and would fain tear each other to pieces, did they not fear the crack of the party whip. Formerly they were tried in the Democratic wagon, but they snarled and growled so much and their real character became so transparent, that they were distrusted and discarded. It is a little queer that our Radical friends still have hope of domesticating these greedy animals. themselves with the fat things of the party, and at the same time to snap up all the little bones and crumbs as they go along, it will be impossible to make

Quite a contest has been going on, for some time, in the Radical party of of this county, between the several factions which compose that organization. The County Committee met on Tuesday of Court week to elect a delegate to the State Convention. The choice of this delegate, the question of the Vice Presidency, and the old fight between the clan Cameron and the gang Curtin, was re-opened with great energy and bitterness on both sides. Collector Ashcom acted as field-marshal for the Cameronians, whilst "little Johnny Sissney" comtle waxed hot and the carnage threatened to become fearful. But in the midst of the conflict a flag of truce appeared, with the proposition that both Grow (Cameron's man) and Curtin should be shelved, and instructions passed for E. M. Stanton. The national democratic committee held a meeting in Washington on Saturday. Hen. August Belmont, of New York, presiding. After considerable debate, the committee agreed upon the city of New York as the place for holding the presidential nominating convention, and the 4th of July as the time. The only other action taken was an argument to give this announcement, accompained by an earnest invitation to all the opponents of radicalism to unite in this movement to select anti-radical candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States. The proceedings were harmonious, and the result, it is understood, meets the almost unanimous approval of the members of the commit-
