> of Columbia County JEFF. DAVIS' BAIL RELEASED.

The bail of Jefferson Davis has been released, and he is now at liberty, on his own recognizance. Judge Underwood, the judicial puppet of the Radical leaders, has done this job of work. Thus is "treason made odious." The "great criminal" (vide Radical newspapers and platforms of a few years ago) travels about the country untried and unpunished. It appears to be no of stubborn facts: longer a crime to have insisted that the gainst the Government; but it seems tional! in their effort to leave the Union, and the Cabinet. that they were preserved in the Union | It is a fact that Stanton remains in not to be tried for treason as the Presi- ic motives. dent of the so-ca!led Confederate States; It is a fact that the impeachment "high crimes and misdemeanors," for by no other reason! of the Union, whilst Andrew Johnson him to do so. conduct of Radicalism, in a nut-shell, and the trial will only be a sham! since the close of the war.
