Publications.

The attention of the public is invited to the laims of "The World" as one of the leading pub-c journals of the country. It is the chief organ f the Democratic Party of the United States, and character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These The World always aims to give with consciencious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interst, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of The World for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United Cloth-lined, Linen finished, Lockwood, Enamelled of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. The World will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foestiers as feeders as heart and arguments described by solitical foestiers as feeders as heart as a second second and the publish for the second se BOWS, &c. they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish doc-uments and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to Our CASSIMERES and CLOTHS will be found suitable for old and young, rich and because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed We would call the special attention of gentle men to our line of HATS, which we boast on in Calicos, Delaines, Muslins, Tickings, spite of foolish usury laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and loreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom of all local communities to manage their local affairs without central interterence; Freedom in every section of the country from the average and preporting in a spirit production. from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human
