IMPROVEMENTS .- Our enterprising friend, J. J. Shoemaker, of the Bedford Hotel, is about putting another story on his house, which will make the "Bedford" a most commodious and comfortable hostelry. Messrs. Spang and Durborrow and Lutz are also about to erect a three story brick-building on the corner immediately South of the "Mengel House" to be occupied as offices. Mr. Jacob Bowser has made a fine improvement to the old Colonnade building recently purchased by him. Our town gives more sign of business life at present than it has shown for years. We hope this spirit will not be allowed to flag.
