

Friday Morning, May 29, 1868.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, of Fayette County.

Campaign Gazette! REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY! NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU! NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the starting cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism.

One copy, $ .75. Ten copies, 6.00. Twenty copies, 11.00. Fifty copies, 25.00.

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy.

ENLARGEMENT.

At the close of the present volume, on the first of August next, the GAZETTE will be enlarged to thirty-two columns, and will then be one of the largest weeklies in the State.

TO OUR READERS.

The editor of this paper having become connected with the Democratic Daily newspaper at Harrisburg, will hereafter spend a part of his time at the latter place, at the same time retaining his interest in the GAZETTE and continuing his residence in Bedford.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

We call the attention of the Democrats of Bedford county to the call published in the GAZETTE for the annual Democratic County Convention, to be held on Monday, June 22.

TWO COUNTRIES AND TWO FLAGS.

The Crosby Opera House Chicago Radical Platform, upon which Useless Slaughter Grant has been placed as a candidate for President, contains the following plank:

"The guarantee of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South, was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be maintained, while the question of suffrage in all the loyal states properly belongs to the people of those states."

Thus "equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South," is made one of the cardinal principles of the so-called Republican party, whilst the question whether "equal suffrage" should be granted to "all loyal men" at the North, is left undetermined.

"Equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South," including 600,000 Negroes, are made voters at the South, whilst at the North, "the people" are to decide whether "all loyal men," Negroes included, shall, or shall not become voters. This is equality with a vengeance!

Here is drawn a line between the North and the South, as broad as that which divided the two sections in the days of slavery. Here are made two countries, with a different rule of suffrage for each.

But it is true that we have worked before us, even with the great hero, Grant, at the head of our national ticket. We must, in the day or night, be contending with a foe that has been the enemy of the country for years, with whom many of us contented on the tented field.

Grant on a Negro Platform. Gen. U. S. Grant has been nominated for President by the Radical Convention which met at Chicago last week.

Gen. U. S. Grant has been nominated for President by the Radical Convention which met at Chicago last week. He has accepted the nomination and stands upon the platform adopted by the Convention.

OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN!

GREAT GUNS FROM THE GIBERNATORIAL GAN-WORKS! GEARY SPEAKS! Let All the Earth Keep Silence Before Him!

On Friday evening last, Gov. Geary addressed the National Union Club, of Philadelphia, upon the subject of the Chicago nominations and politics generally.

The following report of his remarks is taken verbatim from the Philadelphia Press, of Saturday. We would like to see the man who, after reading this luminous speech of His Excellency, will dare to endorse the ill-natured remark of John Covode, that "Geary is the humbuggest Governor ever had."

There is also another circumstance that makes us bow our heads in humiliation, to think that we have in our household, men who betray their families. A few years ago, James Lane, of Kansas, came with all the dignity of his State to the United States Senate, and there shamefully abused the confidence that the people reposed in him;

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Union at Chicago, I thank you for your hearty and cordial thanks for this welcome to me. When I left Harrisburg I left it amid the booming of cannon resounding on the banks of the Susquehanna.

The Convention at Chicago has placed before us a most acceptable ticket, one that has not been excelled since the days of Washington and Jackson. What can be said of General Grant that has not been said to every one present already?

We, as Pennsylvanians, have something to say of him. His father was from old Westmoreland county, the place of my nativity. I have often stood on the ground where he was born. I know Grant well. It was my good fortune to serve under him in the war just closed.

Grant spreads his maps before Geary and informs the latter that he (Geary) and his divisions were instrumental, &c. On a certain occasion, when dining with Grant at Chattanooga, after the cloth had been removed he called for his maps, which he spread before me, and said: "Sir, your division has been instrumental in obtaining the victories around this city."

Justice must be done—Sherman stole Grant's thunder—Grant's talents shown by his name being a synonyme. This was in 1863, nine months before the city of Atlanta was taken.

law—Seienger Colfax [applause] comes of the purest old Revolutionary blood on both sides. He is almost a direct descendant from General Schuyler.

From our special correspondent. Scenes during the vote on Impeachment: Interview with Senator Fowler; Sprague's obstinacy; Van Winkle's boldness; Fessenden's impetuosity, &c.

The first Senator on the roll was Henry B. Anthony, to whom the Chief Justice said: "Mr. Senator Anthony, is the Chief Justice, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, guilty or not guilty of a high misdemeanor, as charged in this article?"

The morning is warm and bright; "loud, laughing, full of eyes and ears." The green of the grass and of the trees, contrasts beautifully with the pure white marble of the capital.

The din of arms has now ceased; the musketry no longer rattles; yet the war has not ceased. It still goes on, and you have placed your case in the hands of your members of Congress.

Think of the consequences of their acts. Shall the people continue to mourn forever? Shall the great republican party be disintegrated, whenever any recreant chooses to go off?

I fought against the bad principles of the Democracy twenty years ago, only in a different form. In California I was a free State, and in the language of the arch-traitor himself, "make them take back seats."

Another break-down in the impeachment farce! The President again proved "Not Guilty." Stanton leaves the War Office! He gives way on account of "Superior Force!"

On Tuesday the High Court of Impeachment voted on the second and third articles, and the President was acquitted of the charges preferred against him therein. This blasted the last hope of the Impeachers and compelled Stanton to sneak out of his hole in the War Office, where Sumner had admonished him so laconically to "stick!"

WHAT IMPEACHMENT HAS COST.—The cost of the impeachment trial of the President of the United States is estimated at four hundred thousand dollars. The probability is it will exceed five hundred thousand dollars.

EDITOR GEARY.—You remind me of a promise to give you an account of the impeachment scenes in Washington, if present.

On my walk to Whitney's, I met several acquaintances to whom I put the interrogatory, in turn, "How about Impeachment?" and from the radical received the answer "gone up," "sold out," or some other expression indicative of deep disappointment.

The morning is warm and bright; "loud, laughing, full of eyes and ears." The green of the grass and of the trees, contrasts beautifully with the pure white marble of the capital.

The din of arms has now ceased; the musketry no longer rattles; yet the war has not ceased. It still goes on, and you have placed your case in the hands of your members of Congress.

Think of the consequences of their acts. Shall the people continue to mourn forever? Shall the great republican party be disintegrated, whenever any recreant chooses to go off?

I fought against the bad principles of the Democracy twenty years ago, only in a different form. In California I was a free State, and in the language of the arch-traitor himself, "make them take back seats."

Another break-down in the impeachment farce! The President again proved "Not Guilty." Stanton leaves the War Office! He gives way on account of "Superior Force!"

On Tuesday the High Court of Impeachment voted on the second and third articles, and the President was acquitted of the charges preferred against him therein.

WHAT IMPEACHMENT HAS COST.—The cost of the impeachment trial of the President of the United States is estimated at four hundred thousand dollars.

On my walk to Whitney's, I met several acquaintances to whom I put the interrogatory, in turn, "How about Impeachment?" and from the radical received the answer "gone up," "sold out," or some other expression indicative of deep disappointment.

The morning is warm and bright; "loud, laughing, full of eyes and ears." The green of the grass and of the trees, contrasts beautifully with the pure white marble of the capital.

The first Senator on the roll was Henry B. Anthony, to whom the Chief Justice said: "Mr. Senator Anthony, is the Chief Justice, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, guilty or not guilty of a high misdemeanor, as charged in this article?"

On my walk to Whitney's, I met several acquaintances to whom I put the interrogatory, in turn, "How about Impeachment?" and from the radical received the answer "gone up," "sold out," or some other expression indicative of deep disappointment.

The morning is warm and bright; "loud, laughing, full of eyes and ears." The green of the grass and of the trees, contrasts beautifully with the pure white marble of the capital.

The din of arms has now ceased; the musketry no longer rattles; yet the war has not ceased. It still goes on, and you have placed your case in the hands of your members of Congress.

Think of the consequences of their acts. Shall the people continue to mourn forever? Shall the great republican party be disintegrated, whenever any recreant chooses to go off?

I fought against the bad principles of the Democracy twenty years ago, only in a different form. In California I was a free State, and in the language of the arch-traitor himself, "make them take back seats."

Another break-down in the impeachment farce! The President again proved "Not Guilty." Stanton leaves the War Office! He gives way on account of "Superior Force!"

On Tuesday the High Court of Impeachment voted on the second and third articles, and the President was acquitted of the charges preferred against him therein.

WHAT IMPEACHMENT HAS COST.—The cost of the impeachment trial of the President of the United States is estimated at four hundred thousand dollars.

On my walk to Whitney's, I met several acquaintances to whom I put the interrogatory, in turn, "How about Impeachment?" and from the radical received the answer "gone up," "sold out," or some other expression indicative of deep disappointment.

The morning is warm and bright; "loud, laughing, full of eyes and ears." The green of the grass and of the trees, contrasts beautifully with the pure white marble of the capital.

more occupied with his school books and play, than impeachment. The other stories are worthy of equal credit. At 7 P. M., I left for Baltimore. On the train were Logan, Sickles, Norman B. Judd, Gen. Shank, and many others, on the way to Chicago. They looked as melancholy as if they were going to a funeral.

Yours Truly, REAM. For the Gazette. COLFAX'S BOAST.

History records to the immortal honor of our organization, that it saved a nation and emancipated a race. We struck the fetters from the limb of the slave and lifted millions into the glorious sunlight of liberty.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives, in his address on the occasion of his nomination to the Vice Presidency, proclaims, among other glories of his party, that of emancipating the negro.

The circumstances, also, may vitiate a good action. The Colfax party threw out upon a civilized and christian community, four millions of uncivilized and unchristian Blacks, to corrupt our children, to lower, debase and demoralize the white population, the owners of the soil, the descendants of white men, who conquered this country for the white man.

The Woolly, Black Republican Party exalt the Negroes, and depress, disfranchise their own "white race." Their motive cannot be pure. It is an "ill bird that fouls its own nest."

The glorious Democratic Party are for the emancipation of the white human race. Its motives are pure, not for party purposes, but for whatever is best and most expedient and useful for the entire human race.

THE DIFFERENCE.—One of the chief points of difference between civilized and barbarous mankind, is the attention given to the natural covering for the head; the one being carefully cut, cleaned and brushed, and the other allowed to remain dirty and unkempt.

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless.

STOP THE ROBBER!—Do you ask, what robber? Why, Father Time, of course, who is stealing the color from millions of heads of hair. Alas!

WARRANTED CHEAPEST AND BEST.—To Farmers, Express Companies, Stage Proprietors, Livery Establishments, and all who use Horses.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.—A Gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured.