On Tuesday last, it was ascertained that Gen. F. P. S. T. Glover. MY DEAR SIR: I am greatly oblig-ed for your favor of the 13th inst.— Those who suppose that I do not acqui-esce in the work of the National Democratic Convention, or that I do not sin-cerely desire the election of its nominees, know very little of my character, believing as I really do, that the preservation of constitutional government depends on the success of the Democratic party in the coming election. Were I to hesitate in its candid support, I feel I should not only fails by my own record, but commit a crime against my count-ry. I never aspired to the Presidency on account of myself. I never sought its doubtful honors and certain labors and responsibilities merely for the position. My own wish was to pro-mote, if I could, the good of the country and to rebuke the spirit of revolu-tion which had invaded every sacred precinct of liberty. When, therefore, you pronounced the statements in question false, you did exactly right.-Principles, not men, is the motto for the rugged crisis in which we are now struggling. Had I been made the Presidential nominee I should have sidered it a tribute, not to me, but to the principles which I had proclaim-ed and practiced; but shall I cease to revere those principles because by mutual political friends another has been appointed to put them into execution? Never; never. These, sir, are my sentiments, whatever interestown by a large and handsome pro-cession, headed by the Democratic friends who, halling from every secon of the Union, preferred me by neir votes, and other expressions of their votes, and other expressions of confidence, both in and out of the Convention, and shall do them all the justice to believe that they were governed by patriotic molives; that they did not propose simply to aggrandize my per-sonal fortunes, but to serve their country through me, and that they will not suffer anything like personal pref-erences or jealousies to stand between I have the honor to be, dear sir, very
