BEDFORD COUNTY!

Right Side up as Usual!

The Democracy of old Bedford, ϵ merge from the fierce and terrible struggle, covered with glory. Every district in the county has done well, and at present we do not choose to discriminate between them. All honor to the dauntless men who have fought the battle against the great odds which contained a wagon, tastefully decoratwere against them.

THE RESULT.

At the present writing we are unable to say positively how the State has gone. We believe it to be very close. The Radicals claim it by a small majority. Allegheny county gives about 8,000 Radical majority; Lancaster county about 5,800; Erie 2,900; Lawrence 1,900. Philadelphia is reported at 3,000 Democratic. The Democratic candidate for Mayor has been elected in Philadelphia. York gives 3100 Democratic; Berks 6,500; Wayne 700. No matter what may be the result, it is our duty and the duty of every Democrat, to renew the effort to redeem the country from Radical thraldom. Let us prepare for the battle on the first Tuesday of November and vote for the principles we so dearly prize. Let us do our duty and commit the rest to God.

CAKE DEFEATED.

Another Radical Cake is dough .-Col. Conner, Dem., is elected in the Lebanon and Schuylkill Congressional district, over H. L. Cake, present member, and Radical candidate.

The Bedford Inquirer of last week in a flaming announcement, illustrated with flag and cannon, announced that the Radicals have gained "i0,000 in Connecticut!" A more bare-faced, shameless, atrocious, miserable and contemptible lie, was never before set up in type. The very contrary is the case. The Democrats have carried a majority of the towns in Connecticut for the first time in 15 years. They have made gains in all the large cities and towns except New Haven, where the Democratic majority is so large that it was not necessary to poll more than half the vote, and yet the Democrats carried the city by 1,000 majority. Mark you, this was only an election for town officers, corresponding to the Spring elections in Pennsylvania, and yet Connecticut shows a Democratic majority of 5,000, which is a gain of 3,000 over last Spring.
