CAT COUNTERING CANINE.-Listlessly looking for lively locals in the melow morn of last Thursday, we caught a cat incident, and detected a dog item as transpiring on Juliana street, in the part of it lying between the magnificent building in course of erection and the Court House. A splendid specimen of the feline fellows, known in the neighborhood as Machine, in our advertising columns. novely Thomas Cat, while leisurely leaping across the elevated highway, had his attention arrested by an angry approach on his left flank of an important individual of the canine crew, designated in dogology as Dot. Then Thomas of the first part, catching cat courage, hemmed and halted--somewhat shortened spine, and elevated his back just ingly contrived charge of the enemy. Dot had the advantage of Thomas in size, but in ability was immensely his TEACHERS WANTED. -- 3 inferior. Suddenly sweeping down upon our rat-router with a rush that convinced us he did know his manfor the majestic move with which Thomas struck for the eye, with the terrific giveup ky-yi! barked out on autumn air as he bounded back a feet or more from Thomas, induced us to entertain the belief that somebody's "dorg" was somewhat seriously scratched—which was strengthened by seeing the aforesaid Dot double-quicking it home with a howl which indicated that he was far from being a contented cur. Since then, although cat has the certificate, Dot contests the will be doggedly decided by a committee of Congress. The services of a distinguished member of the Shovers' Valley Colony have been secured, which said member is willing to take an iron-cladoath that the aforesaid Dot was not there at all, upon his honor as a member of the Colony aforesaid. What effect this will have upon the committee will be chronicled for the benefit of our readers in due time. Hepe we shall not soon be called upon to record another such cat-astrophe with such dog-ged dogmatical diction.
