GATHERING OF THE BUZZARDS.

The legislature assembled on Tuesday, of last week, and was organized by the election of John Clark, of Philadelphia, as Speaker, and James L. Selfridge, of Northampton as Clerk of the House, and Wilmer Worthington, of Chester, as Speaker, and G. W. Hamersly, of Philadelphia, as Clerk, of the Senate. The Radical caucus to nominate candidates for U.S. Senator and State Treasurer, assembled on Wednesday of last week, when John Scott, of Huntingdon, was nominated for the former position and Robert Mackey, of Pittsburg, for the latter. This is a triumph of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and Simon Cameron, over the politicians of the Radical party. John Scott, however, is an independent man and is in the habit of thinking for himself. We expect better things of him than from any Radical at present in the U. S. Senate. It is the general belief that Mackey's nomination was purchased. Some who pretend to know, aver that at least $100,000 changed hands before this nomination was effected. McClure and the Curtin men have been completely annihilated.

LUTZ IN A QUANDARY.

The crude and undigested philosophy of the radical demagogues upon the tariff question, blindly and slavishly adopted, of course, by the Inquirer, has gotten brother Lutz into a quandary. We noticed, in an article in our issue Lutz was about to become a convert to get them from our opponents. to the Democratic doctrine on the tariff able to correction.

We ask him, is not the article of wool radical party imposed a heavy duty material, out of which gas and oils, etc., are manufactured? And have not the radical party imposed a tariff duty on foreign coal? Is not lumber raw material? And have not the radical party laid a duty upon lumber imported from abroad? These ques-

Now, then, as wool, coal and lumber | well that ends well. are raw materials, and are all subjected to tariff duties, brother Lutz will acknowledge that he made a mistake when he said that his party never favored the imposition of such duties upon the raw material. Again, as he admits that he is opposed to a tariff upon the raw material, he is certainly in favor of free trade so far as the articles of wool, coal and lumber are concerned. Hail, regenerate Lutz! Welcome, illustrious convert to the doctrines of Adam Smith, Ricardo and Say! Hur rah for the raw material!

After the noble efforts of the radicals by disfranchisement laws to put rebels under the ban, their candidate seizes the earliest opportunity to ask the first one who comes to Washington home to dinner. It is too bad. If the Tenure of Office act be repealed, there is reason to fear that Grant will fill the offices with rebels. Is this the way to make treason odious?

ONCE MORE.—They are making preparations among the government lawyers at Washington for another trial of Surratt. It is a profitable job for them, and Surratt has not been tried for some time. It is supposed that he will be tried about ten times during Grant's administration.

A gents Wanted to Take Orders for Recollections and Private Memoirs of Washington, by his adopted son, GEORGE WASHINGTON PARKE CUSTIS. With Illustrated and Explanatory notes by Benson J. Lossing.

A book for all sections and all parties, containing the minute details of Washington's Private Life, as well as his public career, (which general history does not reveal.) This book is written by a member of Washington's own family—one who lived with him from infancy, and must prove peculiarly acceptable to the American Public.

The great demand for this work, its ready sale, and an increased commission makes it the best book for Agents ever published.

The most liberal terms to agents, and exclusive sale in the territory assigned.

Send for descriptive circular and terms to ag'ts.
