PILFERING POULTRY .- Thomas Bates, a descendant of Ham, not having the fear of the Commandments before his eyes, visited a neighbor's hen weakness for good conditioned poultry, and, espying two plump ones, which his eyes coveted and his stomach craved, he converted them to his sole use and benefit. This being contrary to the act of assembly in such case made and provided, a constable visited Thomas and asked him to appear before a magistrate. Thomas, being a little chicken-hearted, and expecting new honors, kindly consented. The Justice, with due deference to Thomas' ingenuity, insisted that higher honors awaited him, to reap which Thomas gave his bond to appear before the Honorable Court at the next term.

Malicious Mischief.-David Imler, Levi Imler, Ephraim Imler and Henry Imler, four young men residing in Bedford tp., were conceived of an idea that it was their religious duty, as good citizens, to throw stones at the domicil of their neighbor, Jacob Fritz, and accordingly they set themselves heartily to work at the aforesaid business on the night of the 30th ult .-Fritz protested against such conduct, and in due time, Constable Fetter brought these stone throwing youths before Justice Nicodemus, who upon hearing the case, dismissed Ephraim and Henry, and held David and Levi in $300 each to answer at the next term of court. DEATH OF DAVID POINTS, Esq. We forgot to notice the sudden death of this estimable citizen of Bedford tp., last week. Mr. Points was an honest, upright citizen, and his loss will be felt by the community in which he lived. He was an acting Justice of the Peace at the time of his death.

IN OFFICE .- The County Auditors were in session last week and attended to their yearly duties. M. A. Hunter, Esq., the new member of the board, was present. Mr. Hunter is a shrewd business man, and makes a splendid Isaac Kensinger, one of the commissioners being absent, Judge King and William Kirk, the other commisioner, proceeded to fill the wheel. Five hundred and two names were placed in the wheel .-These were apportioned among the several districts of the county, according to the number of electors at the late election. Thus, Colerain with four times the number of electors that Schellsburg has, would get four times the number of jurors, or 20 to 5. In drawing the jurors the commissioners are assisted by the sheriff. The first twenty four names drawn are Grand Jurors, one of whom is selected by the jury commissioners to act as foreman. Then thirty eight are drawn as Petit Jurors. Persons who prefer serving as Grand Jurors will thus see that the commissioners and sheriff cannot control the > PRISONERS PARDONED. - Among the list of pardons, accompanying the Govassigned by the Governor were no doubt set forth in the petition to "His Excellency," and upon these the pardon was granted:

James Key, Bedford county, Feb. 16, 1667. "Assault and Battery." Three years and one month in the Western Penitentiary. Pardoned March 29, up-on recommendations from Hon. John Cassna, S. L. Russell, J. Mower, Thomas Hughes, F. Benedict, M. A. Points, John Harris, and many others, who aver that the testimony did not justify the conviction; the prisoner had previously sustained a good character and having suffered an imprisonment of more than a year the ends of justice had been achieved.

Isaac Shafer, Bedford county, Sept. 5, 1867. "Larceny." Five years in the Western Penitentiary. Pardoned Feb, 27. Recommended by the president judge and district attorney, Hon. John Cessna, E. F. Kerr, A. D. Koontz, S. M. Barclay, A. S. Russell, O. E. Shannon, and many more. Reasons: Shafer was seventy five years old, and in declining health; a monomaniac on the subject of horse stealing and promised, if released, to expose an extensive gang f horse thieves, and make other important disclosures.

The promise to "expose and makeother important disclosures" has never been carried out. Why this has not been done we are unable to say.

PATTERSON-In Bedford tp., this county, Jan. PATAERSON—In Bedford Cp., this county, San. 7, 1869, after a somewhat protracted illness, David Patterson, Esq., aged 73 years, 4 months and 24 days. For 30 years he had been a member of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, which he liberally supported, and regularly attended, when health permitted. He was kind to the poor, a good neighbor, a worthy citizen, and an humble christian. A son and three daughters, all married, survive to mourn his departure.

vive to mourn his departure.

LYONS—After a protracted illness, borne with the most saintly patience, Mrs. Mary C. Lyons, mee O'Hara, consort of the late Nicholas Lyons, merchant of this place, departed this life on the morning of the 3rd of January, 1869, at her residence in Bedford, in her 68th year. The deceased was born and raised in Pittsburgh, but spent all her married life in Bedford. She was a member of the distinguished O'Hara family, so connected with the beginnings, growth and prosperity of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Lyons was a christian lady in the most exalted sense. Her appearance and general manner were truly dignified—and indicated a noble and lofty soul; but her moral virtues were her brightest ornaments. Whilst she charmed, by her grace, people of the world, the pions found in her unostentatious virtues, matter of edification and example. She was profoundly religious—devout without affectation. She was respected and loved by all her neighbors. She was kind and merciful to the poor, the widow and the orphan. No one was more beloved by the members of her household—her domestics—and such was her charity that she had always on hands some poor friendless one to maintain in her house, for whom she well provided, both temporally and spiritually. She is gone to receive her exceeding great reward from Him who acknowledges as done to Himzelf whatever His charitable disciples do for their needy follow-creatures.

"Then the just will answer Him; when did we see Thee a stranger and take thee in? or naked and did cover Thee? or when did we see Thee sick? And the King will answer; as long as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it to Me." Matt.xxv.37v. It is from the recoilection of these high christian virtues and from her pious and happy death, she having received most seasonably and fervently all the rites and sacraments of the Church, that her bereaved children and numerous sorrowing friends draw those sources of hope and consolation which input dry up their tears and make them feel a vell grounded assurance that God hath only taken back his own, lent to us on earth, for a time, and that her abode this day is in Zion and that the beautiful prayer of the Church, at her obsequies, will be heard in her regard. "May the martiyrs receive thee at thy coming and bring thee to the Holy city of Jerusslem ... and mayest thou have eternal rest with the once poor Lazarus."
