Look out for "April fools!" A. J. Colborn, Esq., Democrat, was elected Chief Burgess of Somerset.

Dr. Mudd having been released from the Dry Tortugas can now be seen every day on Juliann street.

J. B. Cessa, Esq., was elected to the office of Auditor in McConnellsburg. Brother Jonathan, we congratulate you. Now for the Senate.

A good many folks are on the "move" this week. Things go "flitting" by as the first of April approaches. May happiness attend them in their new homes!

A palpable hit - "How do I look, doctor?" asked a painted belle of the family physician. "I can't tell, madam, till you uncover your face," was the crushing reply.

The Radicals at Harrisburg ratified the Fifteenth Amendment, or the Fifteenth Radical Commandment, as some term it. The people will now have an opportunity to ratify these ratifiers, at the polls, next October.

Dull and prosy - he attempted wit of the Bedford Gazette. - Bedford Co. Press.

That is decidedly the smartest thing the Press has said since its existence. Do it some more, boys. You are improving fast. You'll learn to be witty, too, by and by.

Our neighbors of the quill, in this county, are whistling "Old Hundred" with elongated countenances, since the disastrous defeat of their party at the spring elections. They had flattered themselves with the hope that the result would be quite different. No use talking, gentlemen. The dog's dead. Article XV is killed.

Juliann street was open to navigation last Friday. The letting on of the water was clumsily managed, and, consequently, the foot bridges and crossings were nearly swept away. Pedestrianism was dangerous save to those who could swim, or whose "pins" were of sufficient length to risk a wade. Juliann promises soon to improve her condition. Hope so.

Mr. Jacob Schaeetz - Sir: I suffered for over two years from Dyspepsia, with a sense of suffocation and severe pain after eating, and although I tried various remedies, and took medical advice, yet I found no relief until I tried your "Celebrated Bitter Cordial," which acted like magic upon my system and before I had used one bottle, I found myself entirely cured, and have not had any return of the complaint since. I can therefore recommend it as an invaluable remedy to those afflicted in the same way.

JOHN SNETHEM, Sup't of Franklin Square - Res., 109 N. St., Phila.

Mynheer Paul Dietrich, of Milwaukee, feeling his earthly tabernacle, stored with troubles, to be expelled, decided, after full enquiry and investigation, to employ Ayer's Pills. In his haste to purify his dutch stomach he mistook the directions. 2 to 7, and swallowed 27 for his dose. This created of course, an appalling internal rebellion. But Paul went through the fight like a hero, and came off victor at last, with a renovated system which he proudly exhibits as proof of the wisdom of his choice. He advises every body to take Doct. Ayer's Pills, but kindly advises his friends that are ambitious of following his example, to "prepare and take their right portion." - Minnesota Telegraph.

WEAR your learning, like your watch, in a private pocket, and don't pull it out to show that you have one; but if you are asked what o'clock it is, tell it. So if you are asked what the greatest tonic in the world is, you can with confidence say, the Zingari Bitters. It is recommended by some of the most eminent men in this country, as well as in Europe.
