Reader, this is the last issue in the old GAZETTE office.

Patrons, the next issue of this paper will be from the new GAZETTE BUILDING, on Juliana street.

Cumberland claims a population of 15,000.

Go to Crouse's for a mixture to keep mouths out of woolen goods. It does not soil them.

The events of to-day have more interest than those of yesterday. For this reason men are fast giving up books for newspapers.

The Times, of Cumberland, says that it is expected that the whole of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad will be completed the coming summer.

On last Saturday the Free Masons sold their house and lot, on the corner of Pitt and Richard streets, to William Hartley, Esq., for $3,151.

John M. Buchanan, Esq., well known to many of our readers, has been appointed Chief Judge of the Orphan's Court of Allegheny county, Md., vice Hamill elected to Congress.

A. L. Deffenbaugh has moved his store to Mann's corner. The building he occupied is being razed to make way for a splendid three-story building to be erected this season by J. M. Shoemaker.

H. F. IRVINE has just received, at the Regulator Store, another fine assortment of queensware and glassware, also a fine assortment of boots and shoes, groceries, notions, &c. Everybody buys from the Regulator.

Our Cumberland neighbors say that as soon as the weather permits the preparatory work towards the construction of the rolling mill, by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, will be commenced.

Two of the types of the Somerset Democrat office got on a "high," one day last week, armed themselves with guns and struck for the woods in search of game, a la Nimrod. They were promptly dismissed by the editor. Served them right.

The graduation, masonry and ballasting of the remaining 47 sections of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad, situated at intervals upon the 90 miles between Connellsville and Cumberland, will be let on the 1st of May next.

NEW HARDWARE STORE.—John F. Blymyer has opened a hardware store in Blymyer's Row, next door to G. R. Oster & Co.'s store. John is a clever young man and deserves a share of public patronage.

HORSES STOLEN.—A raid of horse thieves was made on McConnellsburg and vicinity, one day last week. Three valuable horses were captured, two of which have since been recovered. The thieves made good their escape with the other one.

D. W. CROUSE has the largest assortment of tobacco and cigars ever offered to the people of Bedford county to make selections from, and as for quality and price are unsurpassed.—We therefore advise our readers to give Dan a call and try the weed.

WAINRIGHT & Co.—The attention of our mercantile friends is called to the card of Wainright & Co., Wholesale Grocers and Tea Dealers, corner Second and Arch streets, Philadelphia. They are first rate fellows and first class merchants.

Henry Crawley has removed his torsorial establishment to the room formerly occupied by Dr. Marbourg, on Juliana street, directly opposite the Post-office. Shampooing, hair dressing, shaving, &c., done in a manner that will give satisfaction to all.

EDITORIAL CHANGE.—John R. Donohoo, Esq., who for four years, has so ably edited the Fulton Democrat, has retired from that paper, and Smith M. Robinson, Esq., has assumed the management thereof. Our regards to both of you, gentlemen.

Smokers and chewers should make it their business to buy cigars by the hundred and tobacco by the pound at Crouse's "Resort," Carn's Row, it being the only exclusive tobacco and cigar emporium in Bedford. By so doing, you can buy cheaper and better than anywhere else. Dan tries to please.

POOR PAVEMENTS.—There is a number of pavements in this place that need reconstruction badly. There is one east of Bedford street, which is in such miserable condition that it should at once be abated as a nuisance. After a rain it is almost impassable. Will property holders take the hint, or shall the matter be looked after by the borough authorities? We shall see.

The first number of the "Mountain City Times," published at Cumberland, has reached us. The copy before us is a fine specimen of typographical skill, and the original matter evinces considerable editorial ability. In politics, the Times is sound to the core, being thoroughly Democratic. We wish the proprietors unlimited success in their new enterprise.

Hoffman of the Somerset Democrat advertises for a "good smart boy" to learn the art of printing. He says, "Boys that smoke, swear or spend their evenings on the street, need not apply." We are afraid that he will have some trouble to get one to suit him. Unfortunately for the good of a seditious, boys are not considered "smart" these degenerate days without the above "accomplishments."

Huntingdon has gone wild over the velocipede. Mercenary merchants, big-bellied bankers, audacious attorneys, generous gentlemen and chivalrous clerks, as well as fancy young men, are exhibiting their sprawling powers at National Hall. The mania has reached the editors, too. The Monitor proposes to secure a velocipede, get astraddle and skedaddle after its delinquent subscribers, even at the risk of having its mangled editorial self buried at the expense of the county. Poor fellow!

RESIGNED.—The resignation of Hon. William McSherry, as Revenue Assessor of the 16th District of Pennsylvania, was accepted by the President of the United States on the 23d of March. Mr. McSherry is one of the most correct and faithful officers in the State, and his services will be missed.

It is generally understood that Edward Scull, of Somerset, will succeed him. "Somerset was to do a big thing for Cessna at the election, and then Cessna was to give Somerset the Assessorship," is the way in which the supposed bargain is sometimes stated.

One day last week we dropped into the mammoth store of J. B. Williams, Bloody Run, and were surprised to see how busy the enterprising proprietor and his gentlemanly clerks were kept selling goods to cash customers. Mr. Williams adopted the cash system on the 1st of April, and the thing appears to work like a charm. People will buy for cash what they need, especially when they can get it for 20 per cent less than under the slow and circuitous method of long credits. It is really astonishing to note how cheap Williams is selling goods, and we are surprised that both merchants and customers are not everywhere in favor of the cash system.

THE WEATHER.—The weather has been April-frogging everybody completely.

Instead of Spring, with her genial influences on everybody and everything, old Boreas pays us a visit every few days. This is attributed, by many, to the fact that the ground-hog made a mistake this year.

The ground-hog has proved himself a poor prognosticator of the weather. He is a mendacious cuss—an unreliable underground weather-cock.

He's too slow for this age.

Even the weather itself gets ahead of him, while the Hagerstown Almanac beats him two to one.

He had better emigrate to Alaska at once, via Boher's Landing.

But Spring like Christmas, is "coming to come" if we have patience to wait. We must wait.

The buds are beginning to swell and the trees are filling their trunks with sap and getting ready to leave.

After which "the spring time will come, gentle Annie!"

QUITE HAPPY.—The editor of the Inquirer seems to be overjoyed at the fact that he is to be our near neighbor. If our propinquity to the Inquirer will make it a decent newspaper, or improve its editor's "character for truth and veracity," we shall be highly gratified. There is only a brick wall between the GAZETTE BUILDING and the rooms occupied by the Inquirer, but we remember "draft" times and are not afeared. By the way, we do think that we have now the prettiest printing office to be found in any county town in the state. Mr. Spang deserves great credit for his enterprise in erecting so beautiful, substantial and useful a structure as the GAZETTE BUILDING. Mr. Lutz of the Inquirer merits praise for trying to keep pace with us, and has erected a very fine house in which he will keep his book-store, printing office and parts of which he will rent out. But for eligibility of site, handsomeness of construction, convenience of arrangement, and above all, light, the GAZETTE BUILDING is incomparable. Nevertheless, we are not so proud of our new office, that we cannot fully appreciate the joy which Mr. Lutz seems to feel in becoming our close neighbor.

THE PITT-BURG AND CONNELLVILLE RAILROAD.—During the past winter several of the contracts on this road were thrown up by the parties who had undertaken them, they averring that they had already lost large sums, and would lose more should they continue the work. This of course checked the progress of the work somewhat. Last fall forty-three sections were let, and forty-seven remained unlet, between Cumberland and Connellsville, a distance of ninety miles. Those sections which were let at that time comprised the heaviest work on the line of road. The company have now, says the Cumberland Civilian, determined to put the entire work under contract; let all the sections which have not been heretofore bid for, as well as to relet those which have been thrown up during the winter. The specifications will be ready for distribution at their office by the 9th instant. The work will be put in hands at once, and the officers of the company will make every effort to have the road opened and cars running between Pittsburgh and Cumberland by the fall of 1870.

TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS FINE FOR KILLING A SMALL BIRD.—By an act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, approved the 31st of March, A. D. 1869, a penalty of twenty-five dollars is imposed for the killing of any insectivorous bird; one half of this fine is to be paid to the informer. Here is an opportunity to make twelve dollars and a half, and render the community effective service. There is no practice so inhuman as the killing of the pretty nuthatch, or the killing of the pretty nuthatch. Long life and happiness to you!

CLOSE OF THE ST. CLAIRSVILLE SCHOOL.

The winter session of the St. Clairsville school, under the management of S. W. Keyser, closed on Friday March 26, and we cannot permit the opportunity to pass, without expressing our conviction that the school has proved a decided success. The session was closed with an "Exhibition," which we must in nowise neglect to speak of. The closing exercises took place on the evening of the 26th, in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen, patrons and directors.—After prayer by Rev. C. U. Heilman, the audience were favored with a song called, "Good Evening." This was followed by an address, subject, "Each a duty to perform," by Mr. S. W. Keyser, was ably written and well delivered. The exercises were then continued by quite a number of Essays, Select Readings, Declamations, and Dialogues. The audience were occasionally favored by a number of comic songs by G. W. Grove, which received much applause. The exercises throughout were a complete success. Mr. S. W. Keyser deserves great credit for his assiduous attention to the duties of his profession, and for the careful attention to the advancement of his pupils during the session. He, like all earnest teachers, has a desire to see the teacher elevated in his position, and not trampled under the feet by ignorance and vice.

The true motives, which should animate the teacher are a love of the profession for its own sake, a firm and unyielding devotion to the interests of the common schools and popular education, and a pure and unselfish desire to seek the highest good of those young minds he is to assume the responsibility of leading into the paths of knowledge and virtue. I hope that all teachers, who have this desire, will not cease until the profession of teaching is elevated to that high position, from which will emanate those influences, which are to lead future generations into the paths of Virtue and Knowledge.

WONDERFUL.—Henry W. Burr, No. 49 West 14th Street, white op to a visit to the West, was attacked with severe illness from drinking impure water.—Life was despaired of, and it was thought that he must die. His wife was immediately sent for, and in a day or two was at his bedside. Having herself seen the beneficial results from the use of Plantation Bitters, she insisted upon their being administered to him, which was done, in quantities prescribed by the attending physician. The result was almost as if by magic, and in one-half hour from the time they were given her husband was out of danger, and by a moderate use of them three or four times a day, he was soon able to resume his journey to his home. This is but one case of many thousands that we know of.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.
