DESTRCTIVE FIRE .-- We learn from the Somerset Democrat, that on last Wednesday a destructive fire occurred in Quemahoning towship. The new dwelling house of Joseph Zimmerman, cabinet shop and outbuildings, together with all their contents were consumed. Scarcely anything was saved, not even clothing, books, money and valuable papers. Loss about $4,000, partially covered by insurance.

PLANT TREES .- At this early day, though not too early, we call the attention of our fellow citizens to the necessity of planting fruit trees, vines, ornamental trees, evergreens and shrubbery, the present spring. Too many neglect this very important matter.-Many regret this neglect. Now, let all make amends for it. Don't forget it. There is nothing that any one plants, which grows, but what pays well, in time, some way or other. Nothing adds more to the appearance of a town, or to the public comfort of its inhabitents, than fine shade trees along the front walls. The person who plants them does a public benefit, and derives no more personal comfort and advantage from them, than every other one who cools under their refreshing shades. Those who have not yet planted shade trees should delay no

A CARD.—Since I became a candisome evil disposed persons have circulated a report that I supported John Cessna, for Congress, last fall, and that he had secured me the appointment to a lucrative office as a reward for such support. With those who know me, no denial is necessary, and those unacquainted with me, could easily satisfy themselves of the falseness of the charge by referring to the vote of my own township, where Mr. Cessna did not get à single Democratic vote! The charge is false and utterly without foundation.
