The impression seems generally to fruit this year, as the buds have not been materially injured.

Artists who do landscaping in whitewash, and execute geometrical figures with soap and brushes, are extremely busy just now.

The weather just now is extremely fine and gentle spring in her "ethereal by their citizens during the war. mildness" appears to have taken up her abode with us.

CESSNA'S LAST TRIUMPH.-"'Our" Congressman is a giant when it comes to lifting postmasters. He has recently hoisted one at Scalp Level.

Family bibles, miscellaneous books, school books, wall paper, inks and stationery are sold at the Inquirer Book Store for less money than anywhere else.

> FATAL ACCIDENT .- On last Friday, as Michael Warmouth was erecting a shed for a brick yard, in Napier township, a heavy pole which he was about putting up, slipped and struck him on the head, inflicting such severe injuries that he lived but a short time. His remains passed through this place on Sunday, on their way to Marklesburg, Huntingdon county, where his family reside.

ANOTHER SHINGLE .- The Bedford Gazette swings from the Southern end of the Inquirer Building. They took that end from principle. The "Inquirer" of course stays North .- Inquirer. Those fellows of the Inquirer are a stupid, selfish set. They pretend to admire our beautiful "shingle," but as their vision does not penetrate farth-
