Now that the nominations for county offices are made, Democrats will be able to turn their attention to a thorough organization of the party for the struggle at the coming election. If the same zeal and energy which characterized the contest for nominations, be displayed in the campaign against the common enemy, there will not be the smallest grease spot of radicalism left in this county on the second Tuesday of October next. The nominees should not be content to rest on their oars. The party has honored them with its confidence. It has placed its standard in their keeping and bids them bear it forward to victory. We have no doubt they will do their whole duty. Yet we would exhort them, as as well as all sincere and zealous Democrats, to make an earnest and vigorous campaign, a fight that will result in the atterrout of the radicals. To this end Democratic papers should be circulated freely among the people, especially among those who have hitherto voted against us. A FIRST RATE TICKET was nominated by the Democrats at the Primary Election last Saturday, and much excellent material was held in reserve for future use. The defeated candidates are honorable men, worthy of the confidence of the Democrats who gave them their support; men who will not only conscientionsly live up to the pledge they gave the party over their, Democratic ticket at the coming election, but who will show their manliness by doing all they can to promote the election of their successful competitors. Of such stuff are proud and noble men made. It is only the milkand-water sort who sour at the stomach after passing through a thunderstorm. BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

A disgusting case of body-snatching has just occurred at Williamson, Wayne county, New York. In England and Germany there are a great many mutual-benefit associations in which a number of citizens agree to pay a certain amount of money into a common fund that is provided, in case of death or sickness. The society of Odd Fellows, we believe, does this, and we presume there are twenty other associations, not quite so extensive, that support their members and endeavor to protect them against want. But a better plan than either is to take a policy in a well managed Life Insurance Company, such a one for example, as we have in the National Life Insurance Company, chartered by a recent act of Congress. This is a national institution. It is not limited to any State. Its managers are men of widely extended reputation for sagacity, honor and enterprise; they offer special features. They have one plan which is particularly desirable, namely: The annuity plan, by which the insurer pays a certain amount per year, and at the end of ten years receives one-tenth of the policy upon which he insures, so that during his life he has an income, and at his death leaves his family a provision against want. All the policies are non-forfeiting; all the premiums are returned at death. There is the security of a paid up capital of one million dollars. The rates of premium are lower and the insurance larger than are offered by any other company for the same money .-

SPECIAL NOTICES. Schenck's Pulmonie Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will care Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions They are all three to be taken at the same time. They are all three to be taken at the iver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient beguns to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripers in the lunes. makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption. To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Scheuck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood food will make good blood Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver, is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great eare); that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.
