FOR THE CAMPAIGN! RALLY IN YOUR MIGHT ! Read, Think and Act !

Our appeal is to the intelligent, the candid and the independent. We ask only that people shall understand the issues before them, and that, understanding them, they reflect upon their duty in the premises and then discharge what they believe to be that duty when they come to cast their ballots. In order that the questions to be voted upon at the coming election, may be fairly and fully presented to the public, the BEDFORD G AZETTE will be furnished for the campaign, at the following low rates :

In all cases the cash must accompany the order We respectfully ask the active men of our party to get up clubs for the campaign at every post office in the county. In no other way can the good cause be more effectively supported than by the circulation of Democratic newspap rs. It ought to be an easy matter to raise a club of twenty at any post office. #### "HANS" AGAIN.

The Radical State Convention met in Philadelphia, on Wednesday of last week, and re-nominated John W. Geary for Governor, and H. W. Williams for Supreme Judge. There was the fiercest opposition to Geary, but His Excellency, the immortal "Hans," had packed the Convention with his friends, who insisted upon his nomination, and threatened to "bolt," if he did not receive it. There were some fifty delegates who preferred any of the other candidates named, but when it was found that a majority of the Convention were Geary's henchmen, the greater portion of the anti-Geary men, thinking "discretion the better part of valor," surrendered to the hero of Snickersville. Eleven, however, stood out to the end and a resolution to ceived the negative vote of Geo. M. Lauman, one of the most prominent radicals in the state. So Geary failed to receive a unanimous nomination. There was much dissension among the radicals present at the Convention, and the swearing of "the army in Flanders" was as the roaring of a sucking dove compared with the objurgations and maledictions heaped upon each other by the supporters and opponents of Geary. The writer of this article was a "looker on in Vienna," and saw several well-contested pugilistic conflicts, between adherents of the several factions, after the announcement of the balloting for Governor. Several enthusiastic Gearyites displayed the na tional colors immediately below their optics and were borne off the ground by Mayor Fox's police. This act of "disloyalty" on the part of the latter, was, of course, nothing more than could have been expected. The nomination has caused much dissatisfaction among the rank and file, and an independent candidate is talked of in some quarters. Col. W. B. Thomas, of Philadelphia, is the gentleman who is to bear the banner of the anti-Geary radicals. We look for the defeat of Covode's "humbuggedest" as a fixed fact. Henry W. Williams, of Pittsburg, the nominee for Supreme Judge, is the same person who was defeated by Judge Sharswood, the Democratic candidate, two years ago. He is on the Supreme Bench at present, having been appointed by Gov. Geary to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Strong. His mettle will soon be tried in two very important causes which will come before the Supreme Court this month, viz: the Lycoming Judicial District "case and the Registry Law. The former case arises upon an act of Assembly, passed last winter, in a single night, when the Senator from Lycoming was absent from his seat, to abolish the judicial district which had been erected for the benefit of the people of Lycoming. The real object of the law was to legislate Judge Gamble, the President Judge of the district, out of office. It is familiarly known as the Peter Herdic act, from the fact that Herdic, of Williamsport, "lobbied" it through the legislature. The Registry Law Philadelphia sabbath schools, are great was enacted for the special purpose admirers of Grant. Is it because Ulyssof hindering naturalized citizens es atte. carrying the election. In this case Judge Williams has a direct personal interest, as if the Registry Law be sustained, some naturalized citizens who would vote against him, may be deprived of the elective franchise. Now, we shall see whether he is an upright and impartial judge. If he is the man his partizans claim him to be he will decide both the Herdict act and the Registry Law unconstitutional. But we presume he is made of the same material of which Radicals usually make statesmen, heroes and judges. The Convention passed a resolution endorsing the Fifteenth Amendment and refused to pass one recommending "retrenchment and reform !" The foul attempt of the last legislature to steal from the people the right to control the elective franchise in their own way, is thus made a part of the Radical platform, whilst the people are assured that they need not expect retrenchment and reform at the hands of the Radical party. It does seem to us that men who flout such insults in the faces of the people, must be insane. It has been suggested to us that some of the anti-Geary politicians foisted the platform on the Convention, because they meant to insure Geary's defeat. If this be true, and we are inclined to think it is, the object aimed at has been very successfully accomplished. The Fifteenth Amendment and the dcfeat of the "retrenchment and reform" resolution, are sufficient to ruin the most popular candidate. How, then,

THE Inquirer has made the following startling discovery : "Copperhead-'ism and British Free Trade go hand "in hand. They are now making a 'fierce attack upon every species of "American Industry." The fable has it that there once was a fool who believed that pumpkins were mare's eggs, and when one of those rotund vegetables was thrown into a brush heap and a frightened rabbit ran out in consequence, the fool called after poor puss in a loud voice, as he pointed to a female ass in another part of the field, "Whoa! colty, there is your mother !" The editor of the Inquirer has evidently discovered a similar mare's nest. It is simply untrue that the tariff question enters at all into the present canvass. It is not, at present, a political question. Congress alone can deal with it, and the new Congress will not be chosen until next year. But, perhaps, it is the "copperheadism" of John Cessna to which the Inquirer recomiums to which their civic achievefers. If John's old Democratic blood will rebel against exorbitant tariffs, we can't help it. The Inquirer must make the most of it. The radical party have make the nomination unanimous re- taken him, "for better, for worse," and must get as much out of a bad barchurch crowded. We cannot say that gain as possible. But what has the Inquirer to say in regard to the course of such leading Radicals as W. LLOYD GARRISON, WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT, PARKE | the war he was one of the few who GODWIN, A. T. STEWART, GERRIT SMITH, and DAVID PAUL BROWN, who are now championing the Free Trade movement? What sense is there in howling about Free Trade casion. "Copperheadism," when the brains and soul of the Radical party are in the Free Trade movement? Will the Inquirer have the frankness and honesty to inform its readers that the great Radical leaders just named, are and while you might put women in members of the Free Trade League ? | Congress and without any effort have Come, now, let us see whether you have the grit.

the American people have sat down to their Fourth of July dinners, since Lee's surrender, but not once to celebrate the restoration of the Union. Upwards of four years have elapsed since the last rebel laid down his gun at Appommattox, yet to-day three states, Virginia, Mississippi and Texas are out of the Union, whilst Georgia is neither out nor in, and only the negroes and carpet-baggers of seven other states are represented in Congress. A pretty subject for reflection on the anniversary of American Independence.

AN ERROR .- The Inquirer of last week states that of the six members of the last legislature from Lancaster county, but one, Senator Billingfelt, has been renominated. Now the fact is that the Radicals of Lancaster county have not yet made their nominations. This correction will set the readers of the Inquirer right in regard to this matter. Attention ! Mr. Lutz has the floor.

PHILADELPHIA.

[Correspondence of the Bedford Gazette.] PHIL'A., June 24th, 1869. THE RED STOCKINGS.

The impression was current that Base Ball, like velocipedes, had had its day; but recently it enjoyed a spasmodic revival. The Cincinnati Club, Red Stockings, paid this city a visit for the purpose of bearding the lion in his den and all that kind of thing. They came on, disciplined as an army in fine trim, and occupied the enemy's ground. "Our fellars," of course, would maintain their high reputation, and send the Buckeyes home with a bug in their ear, for everybody wants to be master of the situation at home. The Red Stockings had reaped a great deal-I believe all the glory thus far that there was to be found in base ball. Like Casar, they went, and saw, and conquered, pretty much as they pleased. The first club that met them was the Olympic. The interest was very great, and a large crowd was on hand anxious to see the game and get the result Red Stockings were the victors by a score of 22 to 11. The next day was to be the great game, Red Stockings vs. Athletic. This was a crack club and the pride of the Base Ball ring. Twenty thousand people were on the ground and you may be sure every man in the game looked to his timber. The Ohio boys played deliberately and laid out the Athletics by a score of 27 to 18.

Next came the Keystone club which wanted to take back some of the laurels, but the Red Stockings couldn't see it in that way by a score of 45 to 30. The success of the Cincinnatti club was due to system, deliberation and a leader who put them thro' a regular training for this trip, such as to bed at 9, a bath at 5 a.m. and no beverage stronger than milk. They were fresh, strong and agile, and they deserve all the en- yield, especially in heavy soils.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS

A negro was brought to Shreveport, La., on the 26th, and lodged in jail, charged with having offered violence to and disgracing the person of a white lady. The lady was the wife of a Mr. Jack Glenn. It is reported she was horribly beaten-her throat partly cut, and her body thrown into a mud-hole: the negro thought she was dead, no doubt, but she has partially recovered. A letter from Chief Justice Chase, received in Washington, gives a flattering account of the improved condition of South Carolina. He says the people are fast recuperating from the effects of the war, and if permitted, would soon be thriving and prosperous. He and his daughter have been treated everywhere with the greatest respect and kindness.

A plot was recently discovered in the South to burn a town and massacre the inhabitants. The plot was started by a gang of negroes. In attempting to arrest the gang, the ringleader was shot and killed. This is but another sample of radical rule in the South. 'Let us have peace."
