In order that the questions to be voted upon at the coming election, may be fairly and fully presented to the public, the BEDFORD GAZETTE will be furnished for the campaign, at the following low rates :

The Convention was more largely attended than any other State Convention ever held in Pennsylvania. The city of Harrisburg was enlivened with the marching of processions, the parade of delegations, the display of flags, the strains of bands of music, and the excitement and enthusiasm of the immense crowd which had come to witness the naming of the next Governor of Pennsylvania. Every thing went merry as a marriage bell. The Demccracy have risen from their slumbers .--The people are aroused. A revolution is in the political atmosphere. With Packer and Pershing we shall win .-Men of Bedford county, hasten to join in the march to victory!

THE radicals regard with fear and trembling the fact that the democratic candidate for Governor is a man of wealth. They have corrupted the President. Mr. Buckalew addressed people for so many years that they now fear the men they formerly purchased will demand more than they can pay. Let them rest casy. Judge Packer made his money honestly and will not use it to buy dishonest radicals. But their State Committee had better watch Forney. He once sold the Washington Chronicle to the advocates of the Alaska purchase for $2,000 in gold.

The Success of Democracy Assured.

The Democratic State Convention met in the Hall of Representatives, in Harrisburg, on Wednesday, July 14th, at half past ten o'clock and was called to order by Hon. W. A. Wallace, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. It was by far the largest and most enthusiastic gathering that has been seen at the state capital for many years. An organization was effected by electing the Hon, William Hopkins of Washington, temporary president of the Convention. On motion of Hon. Alex. H. Coffroth, a committee composed of one delegate for each Senator was appointed on permanentorganization. A similar committee on resolutions was also appointed. Hon. Charles R. Buckalew was selected by the committee as permanent the Convention in a speech of great power and eloquence, and was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic ap plause.

On motion of General Coffroth, nom inations were made for a candidate for Governor. The following were named:

George W. Cass, of Allegheny; Daniel M. Fox, of Philadelphia; Asa Packer, of Carbon; General William Mc-Candless, of Philadelphia ; and General W. S. Hancock, Victory foreshadowed.

The Democratic State Convention which met at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, 14th inst., was characterized by a spirit of harmony and enthusiasm which clearly foreshadows success at the coming election. Hon. Asa Pack- pointments upon the recommendation er, of Carbon county, was nominated for Governor on the first ballot. Gen. Cass, of Pittsburg, was his principal competitor for the nomination. Gen. Hancock wrote a letter prohibiting the use of his name before the Convention, but so ardent was the admiration of that body for the gallant soldier exiled into the wildernesses of Dakotah by the edict of Grant, that, notwithstanding his positive declination, he was given a complimentary vote by a considerable number of the delegates. The nomination of Judge Packer is a very strong one. His personal popularity in the eastern and central counties, is greater than that of any other citizen of the State. He will carry Philadelphia by an immense majority, and in the Tenth Legion, Luzerne, Susquehanna, Bradford, Columbia, Montour, Lycoming, Union, Snyder, Northumberland, Dauphin, Lebanon, Lancaster, and adjacent counties, his name is a tower of strength. In the west the radical majorities of last year will also, be materially reduced, and there is every reason to believe that he will be triumphautly elected.

For Supreme Judge, Hon. Cyrus L. Pershing, of Cambria, received the nomination. The readers of the GA-ZETTE are too familiar with Mr, Pershing's abilities as a lawyer, his record as a legislator, and his high character as a pure and upright man, to render it necessary to print, for their benefit, one word of commendation. Mr. Pershing has been a close student and is a clearheaded, careful lawyer. He will make an excellent Judge; in fact his mind possesses the qualities necessary to adorn the bench, rather than those which render one conspicuous as an advocate at the bar. We have known Mr. Pershing for many years, and speak what we do know, when we say that he is eminently qualified for the position to which he has been nominated.

The resolutions adopted by the Convention, form a platform on which all persons opposed to the ultra and revo-Intionary schemes of Radicalism, and pi, and Arkansas will soon follow the lead of the Old Dominion the latter experiment will be slightly difficult.

The Secretary of the Treasury has declined to act in the matter of apof any man in Virginia who voted for Walker. This is widening the breach in a very perceptible manner. As the Congressional delegation from Virginia will be strongly Conservative, they may have a word to say to Mr. Boutwell before the issue is closed.

FORNEY'S PRESS says, "We admit that Judge Packer will make an honest Governor." This admission will give the Democratic ticket thousands of votes. The people want an "honest Governor," just for a change.

THE Pittsburg Chronicle (radical) concedes that Judge Packer will be eelected. It declares that at present the chances are in favor of the Democrats carrying the State.
