IN MEMORIUM .- Mr. Thomas Saupp. formerly a typo of this office, died the other day in Kansas City, after a long and severe illness. Our young friend emigrated to the West shortly after serving his time in the GAZETTE office, and had succeeded, by untiring industry, in establishing himself in a lucrative business. RECIPE TO SAVE MONEY .- Don't buy on "tick," thus being tempted to buy more than you can pay for readily, and always "dead broke" after paying such debts off, but go to H. F. Irvine's boot, shoe, queensware, glassware, grocery and notion store, No. 2 Anderson's Row, where you can buy only for cash, and at much lower rates than when you buy on credit, you will be sure to save a considerable sum of money in the course of one year, Try

About eighteen years ago Isaac Martin and family emigrated to Michigan, leaving a son, Barnard Martin, in Southampton township, Bedford county. Since then they have not heard definitely from him. Any persons knowing of his whereabouts or what has become of him will confer a great favor upon his aged parents by communicating the same to Isaac Martin, Robisonville, Bedford county, Pa.

DUBLIN TOWNSHIP AHEAD.-Biggest Snake of the Season .- Our Dublin township correspondent sends us word that a young man by the name of Rush Benedict, residing in said township, some time since killed a black snake which measured 12 feet in length. We have noticed some of our exchanges bragging over what they called big snakes, but havn't seen anything to cope with the above. In Fulton county we think nothing of such snakes .- Fulton Democrat.

SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.—The Democratic conferees of the Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Somerset, Bedford and Fulton, met at the Mengel House, in Bedford, on County. The book gives a short state- dred. Tuesday, Aug. 17, and organized by the appointment of J. P. Philson, Esq., as President, and E. F. Kerr, Esq., as Secretary. The following conferees presented their credentials and were admitted to seats in the conference.

Somerset.—J. P. Philson, Valentine
Hay and A. T. Ankeny.
Bedford.—O. E. Shannon, E. F.
Kerr and J. McCleery.
Fullon.—Dr. H. S. Wishart, Abner
Hess and James Wishart.

On motion, nominations for candidates for Senator were made, and the names of Hiram Findlay, of Somerset, J. W. Dickerson, of Bedford and Jamison Kelley, of Fulton, were placed in nomination.

After a number of ballots, Hiram Findlay, Esq., of Somerset, was unanimously declared to be the nominee.

LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE.—The Democratic conferees of the Legislative | ing musical reading, sketches, stories, district, composed of the counties of news, gossip, and valuable hints for Somerset, Bedford and Fulton, met at musicians. Published monthly at the Mengel House, in Bedford, on Tues. day, Aug. 17, and organized by appointing Hon. James Burns, President, and Valentine Hay, Esq., Secretary. BEDFORD, PA., Aug. 17, 1869. To the Democratic Conferees of Bedford, Fullon and Somerset Counties: GENTLEMEN: - I respectfully withdraw my name for nomination for the Legislature and suggest the name of Hon. Joseph B. Noble, a gentleman of sterling integrity and a faithful democrat. I shall ever gratefully remember the kindness of my friends in presenting my name, and assure them I shall never cease to feel a deep interest in the success of the gallant Democracy of Bedford county.

Very Truly, Yours, W. C. SCHAEFFER. The nominations of Hon. Joseph B. Noble and Captain Thomas Sipe were then made unanimous. On motion the conference adjourned.

$5.00 REWARD.—The above reward, we understand, has been offered by any information that will lead to the discovery of the little fellow. Their uneasiness has been caused by the failure of the late Radical County Convention to mention the catamountain member in their resolutions. They seem to have lost sight of him altogether. And though lost to sight, he is not to memory dear. Poor lost

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.-On yesterday week, a very sad accident happened in Licking Creek township, which east a gloom over the whole neighborhood. Two young men, sons of Mr. Frank Sipes, of said township, were engaged in hauling bark and in coming down a hill, the younger, a lad about 11 years of age, was walking beside the wagon, and it is supposed slipped and fell, wher the wagon passed over his head crushing it in and killing the boy instantly. The elder brother, aged about 19 years, was driving and did not know anything of the accident until he had gone some distance when he looked back and saw his brother lying in the road dead .-

RIOT .- Juliana street was the scene of a sanguinary conflict between the two races, on Monday last. The weapons, offensive and defensive, were stones, and these missiles were thrown around with a recklessness that made it unsafe to be within "stones throw" of the belligerent parties. A few bloody heads, terrible curses-loud and deep-and no little excitement, and the affair wound up. We are sorry to state that a litlle boy came near being made an innocent victim by a stray stone. He was severely cut about the

The riot commenced near Harris corner, but as there are so many conflicting stories as to how it originated, we withhold comment. We would merely suggest, however, that throwing stones on one of our thoroughfares is by no means a healthful recreation, and should not be indulged in by any one. If exercise of that kind is needed, base ball is much better, and even that often results in bone bruising.

8. T,-1860-X.-The unprecedented and extraordinary demand for Plantation Bitters is evidently owig to their being prepared with pure St. Croix Rum, Calisaya Bark, &c. A hugh landslide occurred near Stockport, in Columbia county, New York, on Monday of last week. The earth caved to a distance of eighty feet, and the surface moved six hundred feet, carrying trees and fences with it, and leaving them upright and in good order on their new site. Some of the weaker trees were snapped or twisted. The movement occupied half an hour, being very gradual, and no noise was heard until the mass struck the base of a hill with a crash like thunder. A fissure deep beyond sounding has appeared near the sunken portion of land, and fears are entertained that another slide may occur. Thousands of people have visited the scene of the phenomenon, and great excitement exists in

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVER-WELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhus, or Seminal weakness, involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Phisical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, or sexual extravagance, Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming conrequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

Their own interests are at stake in this matter. Everybody has suffered so much from the accursed CREDIT SYSTEM, if system it can be called, that I intend to offer to everybody a panacea for the evil in the future.
On and after the first day of June, 1869, I will sell goods EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH OR PRODUCE. No doubt some customers may be lost to me, but I flatter myself that it will be only those from whom I cannot collect present accounts.
