EXCELLENT IRON ORE.—The Cham-

bersburg Valley Spirit says: "Some weeks ago, Mr. J. M. Cooper sent to Lancaster city, for examina-tion, specimens of what he believed to be iron ore, taken from his farm near Bedford. The iron manufacturers to whom these specimens have been sub-mitted pronounce them hematite and pipe ore of the best quality, which they say, will "melt like butter in a fur-nace."

Bedford county teems with untold mineral wealth, and all that is needed is a little enterprise to develop the same. When once we have a railroad through our county, furnaces and redling mills will spring up like magic, and the inexhaustible beds of ore that are found in every direction will be converted into the best of iron. But of conveying these ores feither in their raw or in their manufactured stateinto market, they will be of no earthand what we must have, is a railroad. I cess to Packard!

CUMBERLAND VALLEY IN 1808.- GREAT GATHERING OF RAD-ICALS!

The Juniata on Fire!

BIG SPEECH BY BIG-HAM!

Granny Govode, at the instance of Gory Geary, had issued his "supplementary" to the Radicals of Bedford county to assemble in mighty "Mass Meeting;" courriers had hastened on swift steeds to the hamlets of the faithful; flaming placards had been scattered to the four winds of heaven, inviting the people to come to this place and hearken to the champions of the "humbuggedest."

Tuesday evening came, and with it the most miserable failure of a "mass meeting" ever seen in Bedford. The "big injun" of the evening was a paid slanderer of Asa Packer, surnamed Big-ham-Durham-or "any other man," who boasted that he was a relcob Barkman; Secretaries, Thomas ative of John A. Bingham of Ohic. (We pity the Ohio fellow.) Our special reporter took down his speech on Kerr. Southampton promises to do the spot, and we give it below for the ure of hearing it:

"Mr. President-fellow citizens of Bedford co.—I'm no stranger to you—though we have never seen each other before—my name is Big-ham—in the first place—Asa Packer—Registry law Revenue tax—copperhead—silver-plate—door knob—$8.95—dem—dem copperhead—fraud—tax—copperhead —Grant—copperhead—rebel—Geary—

The speaker then took his seat in a "lather of sweat," and his hearers hastily adjourned in disgust. "Our member" who had been sketching the outlines of a brilliant harangue on the crown of his shining beaver, was left "alone in his glory," and the other speakers will be obliged to reserve what they had intended to say on this "big occasion" for some other day. We would advise our radical friends when next they import a speaker, to secure the services of one who uses decent language and knows how to address a Bedford county audience. Let Big-ham do it "more so." He can't swallow more than one "copperhead"

IN A BAD CONDITION .- The Lutheran and Reformed grave-yard which has been used for many years by the Reformed and Lutheran congregations of this place and the surrounding country, is at present in a disgraceful condition, and should receive immediate attention from those who have friends or relatives buried there. The fences are boken down, and by night and by day, this hallowed spot is a rendevous for all the cattle and hogs that are running at large. If this matter is not speedily attended to, there will be nothing left to mark the resting place of those who are sleeping silently in the "city of the dead." If those interested would contribute a small amount, eitherin money or lumber, the place would soon a gain look as it should. Respect for the memory of the "departed ones" should

A WORD FOR LOCAL NEWSPAPERS .-We clip the following from the New York Tribune. It is true, and we commend it to every one who has an interest in where he resides:

Nothing is more common than to hear people talk of what they pay newspapers for advertising, &c., as so much given in charity. Newspapers, by enhancing the value of property in their neighborhood, and giving the localities in which they are published a reputation abroad, benefit all such, particularly if they are merchants or real estate owners, thrice the amount yearly of the meager sum they pay for their support. Besides every public spirited citizen has a laudable pride in having a paper of which he is not ashamed, even though he should pick it up in New York or Washington. A good-looking, thriving sheet, helps property, gives character to locality, and in many respects, is a desirable public convenience. If from any cause the matter in the local or editorial column should not be to your standard, do not cast it aside and pronounce it good for nothing, until satisfied that there has been no more labor bestowed upon it than is paid for. If you want a good readable sheet it must be supported. And it must not be supported in a spirit of charity either, but because you feel a necessity to support it. The local press is the power that moves the people.
