LARGE POTATO. - We were shown a sweet potato, the other day, at the store of J. M. Shoemaker, raised in Colerain township, which, when taken up weighed four pounds and ten ounces. Who can beat it?

Robberies and burglaries are quite numerous in Somerset county. Some bold scamps entered several houses in Berlin and succeded in carrying away money, watches and other valuables. At Gebhartsburg, the house of John Weller, Esq., was entered and a considerable sum of money stolen. No clue to the robbers was discovered.

We will gladly publish all marriage notices, but to insure their insertion in this paper, they must be accompanied by the name of some responsible person. A marriage notice from the upper end of the county has been thrown into the "waste box," because neither the name of the person officiating nor the sender was given. "A word to
