Some time afterwards, Keefer saw what he ocracy of Bedford and the neighborsupposed to be a deer in the bushes some two hundred yards distant, and fired at it-when an exclamation from Ringler revealed the fact that he was shot. The ball passed through one of his shoulders, but the wound, it is said, will not necessarily prove fatal. Mr. Ringler, we believe, is doing well, and on a fair way to recover. NEWSPAPER SUSPENSION .- We re-NEWSPAPER SUSPENSION. — We lee gret to learn from last week's Bedford Gazette, that so thorough-going a Dem-ocratic paper as our neighbor has been, is obliged to suspend publication. The publishers say that its assets are suffiient to pay the claims against it. Are there not enough whole souled Democrats in Bedford to set so able and ardent a worker in the cause on stroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. its legs again? Pennsylvania is too important a state, and the Democracy cannot afford to lose one of its organs in this, perhaps the greatest crisis in We assure our friends of the Times that the GAZETTE stands as firmly on its legs now as ever it did during the sixty-five years of its existence. It is well sustained by the sterling Deming counties, and its publishers hope to print it as a Democratic paper when Radicalism shall be remembered only as a by-word and a reproach. The error of the Times is explained when it is remembered that in our issue of Nov. 18, a card was published by Messrs. Reed and Schell, Bankers, announcing their suspension, which appearing at it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume. the head of our local column, was mistaken by the editor of the Times for an announcement of the discontinuance of the GAZETTE!
