The Legislature is to adjourn on the 17th of March.

The Legislature is after the haggage smashers. Serves them right. Judge Rowe will hold a special term of court here next week. Johnstown is again agitating the removal of the county seat to that place. Hollidaysburg has organized a building and savings association. The strike of the Broad Top coal miners has been amicably settled.

John Mosser, Sr., of Todd township, Fulton county, died very suddenly, last week. He was shoveling snow, and complained of being unwell, and before he could be conveyed into the house, he expired.

St Valentine's Day was a failure hereabouts. We did not see a single missive, comic or sentimental. Sighing maidens and love sick swains neglected to transmit their tokens of love to each other. Perhaps the miserable weather of Monday dampened their ardor and drowned their affections. Who knows?

ADMITTED .- J. M. Reynolds, Esq., who read law in the office of J. W. Dickerson, Esq., was, last week, on motion of O. E. Shannon, Esq., admitted to practice in the several courts of this county. The committee appointed to examine Mr. Reynolds speak in very flattering terms of his qualifications to enter the practice of the law. We wish our young friend every success in his profession.

LICENCESGRANTED .- The following tavern and restaurant licences were granted last week by the Court:

Taverns-Michael Ott and John P. Weaverling, Bloody Run; O'Donnell & Manly, Bridgeport; William Weimer, Clearville; Isaac Mengel, Bedford; William M. Pearson, Woodber-The Somerset Standard is published ry; Henry Rose, Centerville; Levi Manges, Juniata.

Restaurants-John Harris, Jacob Barnhart, A. B.Carn, Bedford.

THE WEATHER.-The weather for ary, A. D., 1870. the last week has been as changeable as the hues of the chameleon. Rain, then fair weather, then snow and a thaw, and a freeze, gave us all sorts of weather. On Sunday last we had an old fashioned snow storm, and that night and on Monday and Monday night we experienced the coldest weather of the season. Gewilikens! how cold it was! Of course, ice storers were delighted, and what made others shiver, proved comfortable to them. As we write-Tuesday-everybody is busy as bees, gathering the ice crop for next summer's warm weather. Those who imagined they had a monopoly of the refrigerating substance, have learned how easily the clerk of the weather can knock their calculations into smithereens. Ice-cool lemonades will not be such an expensive luxury after all during the heated term.

> CESSNA'S Pow-wow.-The radical meeting on Tuesday night was a fizzle in the fullest and broadest sense of the word. "Our member" made a speech, and it was the same old "Mother Hubbard" that we have listened to a hundred times. All the rodomontades of Cessna are as similar as two drops of water. The same ranting, blustering and blowing; the same prating of loilty and of deeds of valor in which he, like Falstaff, has slain his scores of "men in buckram," is giv n to his audience. On the occasion of Cessna's last harangue we imagined ourselves in the veritable china shop, with the infuriatad Taurus tossing demolished crockery-ware about our devoted head, and we were obliged to give our nose an impulsive twitch before we were able to realize the situation. After all it was but "our member," tickling the fancies-what a pleasant phrase !-of the "trooly loil" to induce them to renominate him for Congress. "Only this and nothing more." O! how well does John understand the art of manipulating men into his support. How us, and is as interesting as any of its he subdues men and factions who dare predecessors. At its conclusion he replied, apparently very unconcerned "All right." "All right." The Sheriff replied it is just three weeks from next Wednesday, when Bohner replied "I know it." We understand that both the condemned have written a history of their lives, but as yet neither have given out a copy of it. We suppose the execu-tion will not take place till one or two o'clock of the fatal day, and that but w will be admitted.

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- But few cases were disposed of at court, last week. The Commonwealth list was unusually small, which must be taken as a healthier condition of public morals. The Grand Jury was not organized until Monday afternoon, and, in the absence of the regular foreman, the Court appointed William Hartley, as foreman. On Tuesday the Grand Jury was dismissed. But two civil cases were tried by juries. The following cases came up in the Quarter Sessions. Commonwealth vs Peter Kramer. Surety of the Peace on oath of Wm. Karns. Case heard and dismissed at the cost of Prosecutor.

Same vs George Troutman. Selling liquor to minors. Found Guilty. Motion for new trial filed and case continued to April Term.
