

This number begins the fifty first volume of the JOURNAL, according to the best information we have on the subject. Fifty years ago Dr. Centre Berichter was started at Aaronsburg, by Adam Gentz, and published by him for fifteen or sixteen years. The publishers that succeeded Mr. Gentz were, John P. Kutz, Ludwig Kutz, Fred Kutz, Thomas J. Kister, John H. Miller, Phil. D. Stover and Geo. W. Foote. The Berichter was published as a German paper exclusively for two years. Under Mr. Kutz, his two sons, George and Fred introduced English, first a column, then more, until it became half and half. This system has its advantages, as well as its disadvantages, which however we will not now enumerate. No change in this respect is contemplated at the present time. It would be impracticable to do so. We are in no way responsible for this change, and will continue to publish the JOURNAL half English and half German, just as we get it. It may be not in most families, where it pays its weekly visits, the older members read the German part and the young folks the English.

Regarding our prospects we will say that we feel encouraged. When we took charge of the Berichter in May last, we did so with a full determination to succeed. Knowing that there were many obstacles and difficulties in the way, we made up our mind not to be discouraged by anything short of absolute impossibilities. The field of labor was new to us—everything to be learned, and yet it affords us no small degree of satisfaction to look at the results already achieved. We have increased our circulation very materially—not to say largely, and our advertising and jobbing business is all that could be expected, as times are. With the continued patronage of the public, we expect to improve the JOURNAL to the utmost of our means and ability.

The Prospect.

The political atmosphere is brightening. The convention is settling itself in the public mind that Tilden is elected and that no amount of fraud or false counting must be permitted to cheat the people out of their rightful choice. The report of the congressional committee will show up the Louisiana conspirators in their true light. An organized system of fraud will be revealed on the part of Kellogg and company that will amaze the whole country. In Florida the Supreme Court has ordered a re-count of the vote, and the Bard, unlike that of South Carolina, dare not resist its mandate. Just now it has the appearance as if the whole bottom of the Grant, Chandler, Cameron conspiracy would give way, and Tilden inaugurated President by universal consent. Courage, friends.

The Democratic State Committee held a meeting at Harrisburg, on the 22d of last month to give expression to the views of the party on the present political crisis. The meeting was well attended, the proceedings calm and dignified. Gov. Bigler read an able and exhaustive report on the Louisiana case, which must convince every candid mind that Tilden fairly carried that state, and that the infamous Returning Board deserves the condemnation of all fair minded people. The address voted to the people of Pennsylvania breathes the true spirit of patriotism and loyalty to the Constitution and the laws. We ask our readers to give it a candid and deliberate perusal.

To the People of Pennsylvania: We address you in that spirit of patriotism which is common to all the citizens of this Commonwealth. The political condition of our country is fraught with impending peril. The expression by the people of their intention to support those constitutional means which will settle the issue made on the question of the Presidency may prevent what otherwise all will deplore. Whoever violates either the letter or the spirit of the Constitution tends to weaken and may destroy our government. There is not a question or a measure relating to the peace and happiness of the whole people exciting controversy and provoking discord for which the Constitution fails to provide. The election of President and Vice President of the United States is a high and solemn duty of the people of the several States. To attempt to evade obedience to the popular will by any effort to distort the meaning of the Constitution or the interpretation of law to seek to set up barriers against the face of this declared will is substantiating revolutionary expedients for the constitutional methods.

The Senate and House of Representatives of the United States have by the Constitution the sole and exclusive power to settle all questions which relate to the validity of the electoral votes of the several States. In one event the Constitution gives the House of Representatives the power to elect a President. We therefore earnestly invoke from you every effort consistent with the execution and support of the constitutional methods by which it is to be determined who are the lawful elected President and Vice President of the United States. We invite those who feel the present danger to aid in all lawful means which may induce the Senators and Representatives of the States and people in Congress assembled to obey the plain intent and meaning of the Constitution and laws, and not in defiance thereof attempt to place in the high offices of the government men whose title is tainted with fraud. As free citizens of this Commonwealth we suggest that you consider those measures which such a contingency may involve or command.

We believe a large number of our citizens who are too patriotic to be bound by the designs of the managers of the present administration, are prepared openly to condemn the disposition they manifest to plunge the country into a sea of dangers, rather than return to the people the trust committed to them for a special period of a Presidential term. If the people will with courage and calmness, in full faith in their sovereignty as the source of all political power, make these declarations, then their servants may listen and obey. Believing that these opinions are entertained by all honest and patriotic citizens, we declare that Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks were on the seventh day of November last, elected President and Vice President of the United States. Self-pretensions have no part in this our solemn statement of the fact upon which we intend to rest our future conduct. And secondly, that we call upon the members of both Houses of Congress to adopt such lawful means as may lead to the official declaration of the fact that Mr. Tilden and Mr. Hendricks have been elected, and we urge them to resist with all their power the proposed to settle the ascertainment of a fact already accomplished, by a reference of it to any other tribunal than that already appointed to decide it by the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. JACOB SCHULTZ, near Rebersburg, killed four hogs that weighed 1632 pounds, an average to each hog of 420 pounds. We suppose Jacob don't complain of hard times, at least he should not.

LARGE HOG. Mr. Jacob Kertter killed a hog the other week, weighing 539 pounds. This is the largest porker we heard of this season, and the returns are about all in. Go head, Jake, trap the whole class at once.

And now we are very much favored as far as music is concerned. The Millheim Cornet Band has its headquarters right under us. To be a little more specific, the Band occupies the first floor of Musser's Building and the JOURNAL office the second.

The report of the road-viewers, for a road from the toll gate at Aaronsburg, to intersect the road from Millheim to Coburn Station, was set aside for informality. The Aaronsburgers don't propose to fight it out on that line. They will take a new departure.

On Sunday the sheriff of Clearfield county arrested two men, John Cool and Frank Gray, in our valley. The sheriff caught Gray at Spring Mills and Cool at Daniel E. Gentz's at Penn's Creek. They are charged with having fired a lumber yard in Clearfield Co., and robbing the express office at Tyrone, and are reputed as bold and desperate criminals.

Joints and Muscles, stiff and painful with rheumatism and gout, are promptly relieved by Glenn's Sulphur Soap. Local diseases of the skin and defects of the complexion are also remedied by this standard article. Depot Crittenton's No. 7 Sixth Avenue, New York. Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

LARGE APPLE CROP. Mr. John Ruhl, near Rebersburg, has an orchard of less than six acres, the products whereof were, 800 bushels of fine winter apples, 90 barrels of cider, and enough apples gone to waste to have made 15 or 20 barrels more. Mr. Ruhl has some of the finest apples in this section, and it makes our mouth water for some of them as we write this.

Among the admirable properties of Glenn's Sulphur Soap is that of cleansing the head of dandruff and preventing its subsequent accumulation, by opening the pores of the scalp and thus keeping it healthfully moist. Depot Crittenton's No. 7 Sixth Avenue, N. Y. Hill's Hair & Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50 cts.

Yesterday was uncommonly lively in Millheim. We commenced counting sleighs and sleds in the morning but were soon compelled to quit as the job was too prohibitive. Why everybody "and the rest of mankind" was in town, on business or pleasure. Who dare say that Millheim is not a big place or that it has not a first class paper? Let the wretch step up and try, or Devil will knock him out of sight in less than no time.

CHRISTMAS came and passed pleasantly, but rather quietly, in Millheim. There were no festivals, no parties nor public demonstrations of any kind, and yet our people enjoyed themselves very well in a quiet way. The town was full of people from the surrounding country, and we are happy to record the almost entire absence of drunkenness and rowdiness. Home enjoyments are slowly growing in favor. The beautiful—we are almost disposed to say pious custom of preparing the historical Christmas Tree for the little folks, is becoming more general every year. This is a good indication. The family circle is, after all, the real place for enjoyment, and parents should strive to make it the happiest place on earth for their children and themselves.

On Tuesday constable Gary and Mr. A. A. Frank had quite a chase in arresting a certain Wm. B. Kinsel, a young man of about 18 years, living with his parents somewhere in the "Loop." They tracked young Kinsel from Potter's Bank to his father's, about two miles. Entering the house they demanded to know whether William was there, but were told by his mother that he had not been home for several weeks. At this moment however the young man made his exit from the house and was off. All and Dan followed, chasing Bill over fences and through snow drifts. He made a detour and entered the house again, where he was found secreted in the chimney. Kinsel's sins are getting goods from several of our merchants on forged orders. He now has leisure in Fort Munsion to reflect and repent.

THE RAIL ROAD, ah yes! the rail road—and when is it coming? There's the rub. The question reverberates along Penn's Creek, strikes the rocky cliffs of Beaver Mountain and Paddy's Mountain and the echo answers: "When?" What's the matter, anyhow? The bonds are paid, or secured to be paid; the rails are stacked at Laurieton by the hundred tons; ties are plenty and labor abundant and cheap, and—President Miller is out of the way. Now, what's to hinder a speedy completion of the road? When shall the off-disappointed hope of the people of Penn's Valley be realized? When will those in authority—at whose mercy we are—say "Enough, we are coming!" We had hoped and were encouraged to say so from many sources—official and otherwise—that trains would run to Coburn Station by the holidays, or soon after, and now it is said that September next may not bring the trains to Penn's Valley. There must be bungling somewhere, it can not be otherwise; and if we just knew to a certainty where the fault rests, we would go for somebody heavily—so we would.

Well, there is some consolation in the reflection that teamsters should have something to do these hard times and that horses should not be entirely idle. Patience, friends, some of us may yet live, by the will of Providence, to see a locomotive in Penn's Valley.

PUBLIC REPORT POLICEMAN. I have not enjoyed my first few years past, yet have not allowed it to interfere with my labor. Every one belonging to the law class, who is in the habit of being obliged to labor when the body is not in the best of health, will be glad to know that I have heard the VEGETINE spoken of as a remedy. It is a medicine that I have used, and I can say that it has done me good. I have used it in cases of colds, coughs, and other ailments, and it has always proved to be a most reliable remedy. I have used it in cases of colds, coughs, and other ailments, and it has always proved to be a most reliable remedy.

HEARTFELT PRAYER. H. R. STEVENS, Esq. Dear Sir, I have been in gratitude, if I failed to acknowledge what the VEGETINE has done for me. I was attacked about eleven months ago by a cold, which settled in my chest. I had night sweats and feverishness, and was distressed for breath and frequently spitting blood. My friends thought my case hopeless. I was advised to try the VEGETINE, and I did so. I had used from twelve to fifteen bottles, and I am now happy and strong. I can say that the VEGETINE is a most reliable remedy, and I would advise all suffering from colds, coughs, and other ailments, to try it. I believe it to be a good, honest, vegetable medicine, and I shall not hesitate to recommend it to all who are afflicted with any of the above ailments. I am, &c., respectfully, L. C. CARROLL, No. 43 Broadway.

MAKE IT PUBLIC. H. R. STEVENS, Esq. Dear Sir, I have heard from very many sources of the great success of VEGETINE in cases of colds, coughs, and other ailments. I have used it in cases of colds, coughs, and other ailments, and it has always proved to be a most reliable remedy. I have used it in cases of colds, coughs, and other ailments, and it has always proved to be a most reliable remedy.

Has Entirely Cured Me. MR. STEVENS: My daughter after having a severe attack of whooping cough, was left in a weak state of health. I tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health. I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism, and I have used the VEGETINE for this ailment, and I can say that it has done me good. I have used it in cases of colds, coughs, and other ailments, and it has always proved to be a most reliable remedy.

VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints, i.e., the bowels, and stimulates the whole system, acts upon the secretory organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures the bowels, cures constipation, and regulates the bowels.
