THE GREAT ISSUE.

The question that looms up more prominently before the American people than all others is, whether the Great Fraud that elevated Rutherford B. Hayes into the Presidential chair, under the forms of law, but against the expressed will of the large majority of the people-shall It is a principle sacred to every American citizen that the will of the majority should rule. Educated to this principle from boyhood it has become endeared to the American voter, and is a chief factor in our political ethics, as well as the Keystone that holds and supports our cherished institutions.

Until a very recent period of our history this principle has been kept in violate, as the ready and cheerful su bmission of mmorities to the deoves. It was but necessary to kn ow whom the people had chosen for its rulers, and the result was accepted as final by all political parties by victors and vanquished alike. It was during and after the famous Presidential campaign of 1876 that the first serious inroads were made upon this fundamental principle of our liberties. As the sequel abundantly showed, the Mortons, the Chandlers and Camerons of the North, with their Carpet-Bag confederates of the South, had made up their minds not to accept the verdict of the people, if adverse to their par-ty and interests.

It is a fact that will hardly be questioned, that allarge majority of the American people sincerely be-lieve that Samuel J. Tilden was elected President. Not only every Democrat in the land, but thousands of Republicans are thoroughly convinced of this. While Mr. Hayes was declared elected, urder a law of doubtful constitutionality, enacted for the purpose—the great body of the people will never believe that he was chosen by a majority of votes, all the Returning Boards and Electoral Commissions to the contrary natwitheranding.

This is the Great Wrong under which the people smart—of which they so justly complain; and which to repudiate in a manner that will hereafter forever make it impossible to count in a President, they will embrace the first opportunity. Maine endorsed the fraud, but did it in a voice so feeble and sickly that it is in reality more nearly defeat than a victory for Radical extremists. The Coldent State opportunity. The cutaneous blemishes. Sold by all dient will, to use a slang phrase, "knock the spots off" any victim of cutaneous blemishes. Sold by all Polden State speaks and reverses her vote of last fall, which was for Hayes. Ohio will have her election this week and the prospects are very good that she will repudiate the foul work of the Electoral Commission. The Empire and the Keystone will soon follow, and unless all signs fail both will array themselves on the side of Lustice and Truths, and the side of Justice and Truth; and thus the good work goes bravely on.

The End of a Carpet-Bagger.

John Patterson, of Juniata county, who has been for several years playing carpet-bag Senator from South Carolina, has been indicted in that State for various crimes growing out of his late vocation. John, it appears, addressed an order to the State Treasurer, requiring him to deliver $114,000 of revenue bond scrip then due the Blue Ridge Railroad Company, of which John was the faithful President, to H. H. Kimpton, upon condition inserted in the order that Kimpton should pay out of the proceeds the sum necessary to bribe the Legislature to pass deliver. $114,000 of revenue bond scrip then due the Blue Ridge Raliporad Company, of which John was the faithful President, to H. This order was entrusted to the hands of T. J. Mackey, a scallawag, for delivery. He took it to Governor' Scott, another of the Indian, and then thinking it might be convenient to know what sort of correspondence John was carrying on with the State Treasurer, coolly opened the envelope, and found, as they elegantly expressed it "all hell itself" inside. W. S. H. Keys, D. D., at Rebersburg, was on *Idola*to have the Court House scrubbed on Wednesday (the 26. ult.) to prevent the Republicans from holding their convention in it. If that was the reason they scrubbed it they ought to be ashamed of themselves for their meanness. The Court House should be scrubbed because it needs it may be a second to the scrubbed because it needs it may be seen to have a second to the second try. His discourse was unusually interesting, perhaps partly owing to a number of idols, which he had with him, exhibiting them as he spoke of their various titles, and the different ways by which they are it and if the ring gets it done for political reasons they should be made to pay for the jeb themselves.

Good Use for a Dime.

We advise all our readers to forward their address and ten cents to Orange Judd Co., 245 Broadway, New York, who make a special offer to send for this sum (half price and postage) the number for October ist, of the American Agriculturist This splendid number, besides over fifty engravings, contains a great amount of useful, practical, reliable, seasonable information, not only for the farm and garden, but for the Household, Children included. Most will get from it hints and suggestions worth ten or twenty times its cost..... Better still, to send $1.50 and receive the paper, postpaid, from now to the end of 1878—that is, all of volume 37, with the rest of this year free. (Two copies for $1.50 each.) Nowhere else can one get so much really valuable, paying information for so little money—not 3 cents a week, a sum easily saved or produced extra, which the paper will be sure to help one to do. This Journal is prepared by practical men and women, who know what they talk and write about from according to the sure of the control to one to do. This Journal is prepared by practical men and women, who know what they talk and write about from actual experience and large observation, and they can and do greatly aid others to profitable planing and working. Many single hints and suggestions each abundantly repay a year's cost. The fearless exposures of quackery and humbugs in every number, are invaluable, and have saved its readers and the country millions of dollars. The departments for the Household and Children are pleasing and instructive. Every number of the paper is beautifully illustrated. In short, the American Agriculturist is full of good things, for every man, woman, and child, in city, village, and country. Take our advice and send $1.60 for 14 months, or at least send a Dime for the half-price specimen now offered, and see it for yourselves.
