"BALLY ROUND THE FLAG."

It would seem that Mr. Tuten, of the Bellefonte Republican. was away down in South Carolina recently, worked himself into the confidence of those arch rebels, Wade Hampton and Hamburg Massacre Butler, and had a confidential conference with these distinguished gentlemen. in order to draw them out and if. terwards expose their wicked designs to the whole country. How else could Edward know all the details of their secret plottings ?

Among other things equally dispicable, Mr. Tuten accuses Hamptom of having a wistful eye upon a certain chair in the United States Senate, just now occupied by the no-ble John J. Patterson, of whom our ronders may have beard lefore.

Ordinarily such: actions as Mr. Tuten makes numself gurly of would be considered a trifle mean, but it every means, honorable or dishonorable ; and then, controlling both company seems to be No. 1. branches of Congress, control' the Executive branch of the government more affectually than they do now."

Mr. Tuten gathers himself toto avert a calamity so dire, in the mer. Directors, J. W. Krumrine, following lofty language, which, sad to say, is by many odds more plain-Kutz, J. B. Fisher, Amos Alexantive than hopeful in its tone : It is high time the people awake and once more rally round the FLAG.

We greatly fear that the opportune moment to save the country from utter ruin has already passed. Just see how utterly crocked mat-ters have been, going for the hat year and more. California sends the Democrat Farley to the Senate to crowd out the Republican Sargent. and that nasty Buckeye Boy Pendleton, will call'around in Washington_ one of these fine days and invite the the saintly Matthe ws to step down and out. Unless our Republican friends can somehow manage to keep a majority in the Senate, by retaining such great statesman as Patterson and Kellogg, that august body will fast lose its high character and take to bungling in legislation, if is still in progress and is wellattendnot worse, and the present prosperous and lovely condition of the country will be distruyed, to make way fer mistule and consequent hard tintes, if not for anarchy and gener-cal chaos. If such a dreadful state of affairs does come to pass, let no one lay any blame upon the shoulders of the Bellefonte Republican, who labors so hard, though it may be, unsuccessfuily, to avert the sed late.
