ANDERSON RELEASED.

Anderson, the convicted forger of the infamous Louisiana Return Board, has been released by the Supreme Court of that State. The decision of the court as we understand it, is based on purely technical grounds, but will not satisfy the outraged sense of justice of the country. No amount of labored "decisions" will be able to whitewash these dirty rascals in the eyes of the people, and their crime and its consequences will forever stand out in black relief on the pages of American History.

The Philadelphia Times, which generally sees as far into the motives and causes in such matters, as any journal in the country, speaks thus of the strange proceedings:

The Supreme Court of Louisiana yesterday solved the vexatious problem of the arraigned members of the Returning Board by deciding that the Vernon parish returns were not susceptible of forgery, and with the discharge of Anderson the indictment against Wells falls of necessity. This decision was given by a Conservative court, whose members are in hearty sympathy with Governor Nicholls, and it can't be imputed to partisan disregard of the law; but the belief will be very general that the court could have decided the question the other way, without violence to either law or justice, had it been deemed equally expedient to do so. The understanding that seemed to fill the air about New Orleans when the Nicholls Legislature was installed as the undisputed authority of the State, and that has been pressed upon Governor Nicholls with more zeal than discretion as the ground for a pardon, has evidently permeated into the Supreme court, and all doubts as to the law have been resolved in favor of an era of general forgiveness and peace. Judges are but men after all, and those who made the decision owe their present unquestioned titles to their places to the atmosphere that was crowded with whispers of generally accepted agreements that justice should be suspended for a season to bridge the hideous chasm of crime and partisan hatred; and what was the unwritten and undeclared law of the Hayes Commission, has been affirmed by the Nicholls, Supreme court. We may mistake the morrow of the case, but it isn't worth while to waste time looking into political millstones, if the guess has missed of the truth.

Looking to the Dethronement of Hayes.

The intelligent observer of political events cannot fail to see the inevitable drift of all parties toward the President. The Democrats to both branches of Congress have at last been driven from even the semblance of sympathy with his general policy; the Democratic press has unloosed its restraints and flays him as a pretender; the Republican press has ceased to defend or apologize for his acts; the Independent press no longer ventures to sustain him since he no longer sustains himself, and if there is a Republican Senator, Congressman, or politician of note who avows his devotion to the President, he is unknown to the country. * * * The sequel is now visible to all, and it is so logical that none can dispute its lesson. It exhibits a President not only without a party, but almost literally without a friend; and the peril of situation is in the unmistakable tendency of the Republican leaders to have him disposed from the Presidential chair and Samuel J. Tilden installed as Chief Magistrate.—Philadelphia Times.

HAYES HAPPY.

When the news was carried to Hayes that his pet Anderson was released, the sham President went into ecstacies of joy, and said "that entire Union would applaud the action of the Supreme Court as patriotic and in the interests of conciliation." We opine that the "entire Union" does no such thing, but on the contrary the "entire Union" is mortified beyond expression that a few of the basest scoundrels that ever were permitted to pollute decent people with their presence, should be permitted to appoint such a nonenity as Hayes to the Presidency. That's about what the "entire Union" thinks.

FREE BONDS.

The people of the United States have paid, in interest on untaxed National bonds since 1861, $1,690,442,307.32. This is almost the entire amount of the National debt. How many times are the people to pay the debt? To exempt bonds from taxation was a war measure, excusable on grounds such as permit another to kill some one in self-defense. To exempt the bonds from taxation now is like licensing a man to kill another when not attacked.—Cincinnati Enqirer.

The Democratic State Committee met at Harrisburg on the 19th, and fixed on May 22nd as the time and Pittsburg as the place, for holding the next state convention. The attendance was very full, much interest was manifested, and the best of feeling prevailed. The fixing of so early a day for the meeting of the convention is supposed to be a strong indication in favor of Dill for Governor.

FOR SALE.—A cabinet organ of superior quality, excellent tone, nearly new, by one of the best makers in the country, for sale very cheap. Call and see it at the residence of C. F. Deininger, Millheim

Our subscribers in the Penns Creek neighborhood will hereafter get their papers at Ertel's Mill. We have made arrangements with Mr. Samuel Bartges by which he will deliver the JOURNAL to our patrons in the section. 12-2w

All the schools in the township, except Pike and North Street, have closed this week.

The new silver dollar will exactly buy one of the best white shirts you ever saw, at Newmans Eagle Clothing Hall, Bellefonte.

Newman, of the Eagle Clothing Hall, has just laid in a very large stock of Spring Goods and Clothing, which are sold off rapidly at the lowest possible prices.

At a special election in the North Ward, Bellefonte, for councilman, Ardell, Republican, was elected over Cowdrick, Democrat, by eight majority. The usual majority in the ward is about sixty. Bring out the big guns, Tuten.

D. C. Wilt, Esq., of Millheim, is announced in last week's Reporter, as an Indegendent candidate for Legislature "by the request of many citizens of Penn township." (? !)

The other week Mr. Charles Penny, of Lewisburg, appointed assignees. His liabilities are reported of $20,000, whil the assets will be considerable short of that sum.

Yesterday the Central Penna. Conference met at Lewisburg, and the Chronicle will publish a daily issue, giing the proceedings, during the sessions.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—In Bellefonte they are selling out people's household goods for taxes. Either they must have exorbitant taxes up there or fearful bard times. Penns Valley has had no tax sale in ten years that we know of.

The Clearfiel County Bar, like that of Centre, unanimously ask Judge Mayer to be a candidate for re-election as President Judge or this district. Where is Tuten's man—Furst?

We are considerably more than half mad over our next door neighbor, Wash Stover. Wash flitted without asking us to dinner, left without bidding us good bye---- and ---- well, we will pick this last crow with him one of these fine days.

A choice lot of 3600 feet of yellow pine floor boards for sale, cheap. Apply at Long's saw mill, head of Penns Creek, Gregg township, or call on

FRANK J. WEAVER. 15-3t.

Having obtained special rates on COAL OIL to Coburn Station we are now prepared to sell by the barrell to dealers at the same price they would be charged either at Sunbury or Williamsport.

tf SMITH & CO.

SEWING MACHINES, like all other machines, sometimes get out of order, and but few people understand to look properly where the difficulty lies. If there is anything wrong with your machine, you better not try too much to mend it, but take it at once to D. H. Rote, Aaronsburg, and get it fixed. Dan is a mechanical genius of a high order, as we have reason to know, and he will charge you but a moderate price.

KNITTING FOR ALL.

Miss Rosie H. Deininger is prepared to do all kinds of knittingfor the public, in a very beautiful and substantial manner. Stockings, Hose, and Socks, either wool or cotton, knit upon short notice and at the most reasonable rates. A large pair of stockings knit for 25 cents Give her a call. tf.

"The stormy march has come at last."

Sunday and Monday that tricky old fellow—March, showed his deceptive nature with a vengeance. He lashed his tail so furiously that the dormant powers of snow and storm were raised to shake and shiver men from head to foot—especially those who had neade garden and were talking about linen coats, lemonade and ice cream. We told them so.

On account of the very long Treasurer's sale of unseated lands which we publish this week, our reading matter is pretty well crowded out. The job came upon us late and suddenly, so that we had no chance to arrange our forms to give more reading matter. Much that was already in type had to be set aside. We beg indulgence of our readers and correspondents. Next week we will be able to do better.

A WORD IN SEASON.

Now that winter is over and spring work about to commence in earnest, let those who are more blessed with this world's goods than their fellow men generally, look about them and see whether they can not help along the poor by giving them something to do. Most of our laborers in this section have spent all winter in forced idleness, had nothing to do, and a few days wages would be a Godsend to many now. One of the saddest sights in this blessed land of liberty and abundance is to see strong, healthy men begging for work as a means to support their families—without being able to obtain it. The best way to help such is to teach and enable them to help themselves. The worthy poor man would prefer to earn his living, rather than receive it as a charity.

As times are, economy is carried to a point far beyond equity, by many of our wealthier men. Building and other improvements are almost entirely stopped, because they cost money. Work, often of a necessary kind, is left undone, because times are hard. If this system is to be continued much longer what is to become of those whose only means of subsistence is the labor of their hands? At this season, however, there is always much to do that is absolute, while much more might be done that is necessary and useful. If you have no farm to work you may have a garden to dig, fences to make or repair, outbuildings and fences to whitewash, yards to clean, flower beds to make—anything that is really useful or beautiful, only so you do your share to give men work and enable them to earn their daily bread and make an honest living

Give men work.

Northumberland is building a new Lutheran Church.

Rev. A. J. Bright recently preached a sermon in Jersey Shore, of which the Herald of that place speaks in highly complimentary terms. From a notice in the Watchman before us we infer that the congregation of Jersey Shore is likely to give Mr. Bright a call.

The new firm of Musser & Smith have lately been filling up their store room with all kinds of Hardware, and it is their purpose to keep their stock complete in all its branches; but what is best of all they sell at prices that are astonishing low. Builders, Carriage Makers, Farmers and Mechanics—make a note of this.

At the general election next fall the voters of Centre county will vote for candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Supreme Judge, Secretary of Internal affairs, President Judge, member of Congress, two members of the state Legislature, Sheriff, Prothonotary, Treasurer, Register, Recorder, three Commissioners, three Auditors, and, if we mistake not, a County Surveyor and two Jury Commissioners. Some trouble is feared to get enough men willing to accept all these burdensome offices, but we hope good men and true may be found in due time, who are ready to make the sacrifice for the good of the country.

On the 12 inst., at Young's Hotel, this place, the stockholders of the Bellefonte and Youngmanstown Turnpike Co. chose the following officers for the ensuing year: President—John Stoner. Managers—Adam Weaver, J. B. Leitzell, Theo. Hartman, Wm. Fichthorn and John Stoner.. Secretary and Treasurer—Jno. C. Motz. All that portion of their roadway east of the road leading to the residence of Mr. G. W. Chambers, was abandoned by said corporation. If this action is strictly in accordance with law, the Borough of Mifflinburg calls heir to the delightful (?) thoroughfare best known as Chestnut St. Gratitude, of course, will move councilmen to put it in proper shape.—Telegraph.

NO HOME is complete without some ornamental trees, flower beds, shrubbery, or at least one grape vine around the buildings. Many folks in towns may not have the space for all or many of these beautiful and refining luxuries, but there are few, if any, houses that have no place for at least one good vine and a few flowers. Nothing pays the little labor spent upon it so well as a choice grape vine, but it does not pay to plant trash. Seven years ago we planted an Israella, from the grape nurseries of Jonas Oberholtzer, at Mifflintown, Juniata county, and we would not to-day take any man's twenty-five dollars for it. It is a sight worth seeing when filled with its beautiful, delicious fruit. Every year as we pluck the precious grapes, we think in gratitude of Mr. Oberholtzer.

"Go and do likewise.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.—The bill equalizing the salaries of county superintendents has passed the House finally, and it will probably pass the Senate also and become a law. By its provisions superintendents are to receive two dollars for each school and seventy-five cents for each square mile of territory in the respective counties, but no salary shall be less than $800, nor more than $2000. If the convention of directors desire to vote a superintendent a higher salary than the provisions of the bill will give him, the excess is to be paid out of the county treasury. Ever since the law creating the county superintendency was enacted the salaries of these officers were very unequal, some getting too little, while others were perhaps paid more than they deserved. For ought we can see the provisions of the bill are altogether equitable.

TREASURER'S SALE OF UNSEATED LANDS FOR TAXES FOR 1876 and 1877, AND PREVIOUS YEARS.—Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an Act of Assembly, passed the 12th day of June A. D., 1815, entitled "An Act to amend an Act, directing the mode of selling unseated lands, in Centre County," and the several supplements thereto, there will be exposed at public sale or outcry, the following tracts of unseated lands in said county for the taxes due and unpaid thereon, at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on the second Monday in June, A.
