DON'T PROMISE RASHLY.

Candidates are now beginning to announce themselves for the several county offices to be filled next November, and the party will soon have vised-it is open to grave objections. A candidate who asks the support of the party, is almost obliged, as a canyass is now carried on, to travel Well, the whole county and "see" almost for it. everybody; and since this is next to not personally acquainted.

It is also obvious at first sight that the present system is uselessly expensive, and that men of moderate means who would make excellent officials, are often detered from offerlose all he invested, while the successful one will try to make it up af. ter he is in office. Herein is a strong temptation to officials to 'make" more than they should, and traceable to this very source.

Some worthy men are entirely too timid to run tor office after thefashion now in vogue. The absolute and abject begging for "support" is distasteful to such, to say the least of it; and this class almostalways come out of the canvass secod be st, while their bolder compepitors carry off the prize. This is unfair to a very large class of our best ciizens, and very degrading in its effec upon politics generally.

We would say then to the rank and file of the party, whose sole in terest it is to have good, faithful men in office, doa't promis rashlydon't agree with the first candidate that happens to call on you, to do all for him you car, for you may regret it if you do. Wait until the several candidates are announced, then see who in your judgement are the best, the fittest, and the most worthy of your suffrage, and for such vote at the primaries.

What is here said is based on general principels altogether, and not the interests of any candidate or locality.

ROY. W. K. ALEXANDER.

The present Legislature is doing session it became painfully evident that a majority of the members were disposed to make the most of it for themselves; to stay as long and do as little for the public good, and as much for ring and personal legislation as possible. The party majority will have a tremendous heavy account to settle with the people next November. It is not our present purpose to enlarge on this matter ship. Mr. Bair is an old citizen of but to show that our representative Mr. Alexander, has uniformly spoken and voted for a short, working session, and in the interests of the people generally. He voted against the de novo dodge, by which little arrangement much labor done by the previous session was ignored and a pretext gained for a long sitting at "ten dollars a day" for all days over one hundred. He voted against the infamous Recorder biff, the Bank Examiner Bill, and similar measures, gotten up for the special benefit of ring-pets, who happened to be left out in the cold by the votes of the people.

The other Friday, when the question of additional sessions, that is for two sessions on Fridays and Mondays was up, Mr. Alexander said:

I hope that the amendments offered by the gentleman from Montgomery [Mr. RICHARDson] will not be adopted. We have already fooled away too much of the time of this session, and it is now time for us to do something. Gentlemen ought to understand that it is necessary for us at least to hold two sessions on Fridays and Mondays in order to have the business of the House transacted. And I give notice now that when the vote is taken Ishall move a call of the yeas and mays. The proposition for additional working was defeated, and the long and useless session grows longer, but

and useless session grows longer, but Mr. Alexander's vote stands recorded on the right side of the question, as well as on others. He has no axe to grind, is no candidate for re-election, but we deem it an act of simple justice to place him right before the people whom he represents.

Judge Blatchford of the United States District Court has decided against Mr. Tilden, in the demurrer in the matter of the suit against him to recover income tax alleged to be due. It will be recollected that the question of Mr. Tilden not having paid the proper income tax, was rais ed while he was Democratic candidate for President. Like many others he declined to make a return for several years, but paid the tax the assessor assessed, with a penalty of five per cent. additional. This was in accordance with the law. Judge Blatchford now decides that the assessor had no power to levy such tax, &c. If this opinion be sustained it will cause a vast deal of trouble and litigation, and every man who failed to make a return but allowed the acsessor to fix the tax, will find himself of very short duration, and yet we tackled on to a lawsuit.—Doylestown Democrat.

"CLEVER FELLOW."-The term is now so much used and abused that it has about lost its definite meaning. It is frequently applied to one who asks you up to the bar to take something, but when we use it in reference to our friend L. A. Haupt, Esq., the efficient conductor on the B. E. V. R. R., it has a far more significant and better meaning. Mr. Haupt is a gentleman of education and culture - an obliging official, and to us a true and value friend. AT THE Centennial Worlds Fair, 1873 ! THE SHONINGER ORGANS

PRONOUNCED UNANIMOUSLY AS THE BEST INSTRUMENTS Their comparative excellence is recognized by the Judges in their Report, from which the following is an extract: which the following is an extract:

"The B. SHNINGER ORGAN.
CO'S exhibit as the best Instruments at a price rendering them possible to a large class of purchasers, having a combination of Reeds and Bells, producing novel and pleasing effects, containing many desirable improvements, will stand longer in dry or damp climate, less tiable to getout of order, all the boards being made threeply, pat together so it isimpossible for them to either shrink, swell or spitt." THE ONLY ORGANS AWARDED THIS BANIS.

This Medal and Award was granted after the most severe competition of the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.
