B. O. DEININGER, Associate Editor

Millheim, Thursday May 2.

THEY SHOULD KNOW.

Public servants should be held to a strict accountability for their official acts, and for this reason the people should keep themselves posted on what their servants are doing.

The party majority in the present legislature, in conjunction with a few corrupt Democrats, have acted so notoriously bad that their conduct will long stand in the history of the state as of matchless infamy. The passage of the Recorder bill is a specimen of partisan and ring legislation of the worst type. By its provisions an old and obsolete law in Philadelphia is revived, giving enlarged control to the Recorder and his under-strappers over the mercantile appraisements and the appeals thereon. The powers of the Recorder are enlarged to a dangerous extent, and the emoluments of the office are now variously estimated at from $30,000 to $50,000 a year. Now it is plainly visible to the naked eye even, that the Republican ring managers will not allow even its chief to pocket a salary of $30,000 to $50,000 a year, for ten years, which is the term of one incumbent as fixed by this law. They have lost control of the state treasury and are now obliged to create another source of income for electioneering purposes. The bulk of this fund will go where it will do the most good to carry elections. By it they hope of manufacture a large Republican majority in Philadelphia, in order to overbalance the Democratic majority, in the state, elect a Republican Legislature and return Don Cameron to the United States Senate, and thus rivet the fetters of Cameronism upon ring-ruled and tax-ridden Pennsylvania. This is the objective point, the whole secret of the matter. The indecent haste with which Gov. Hartranft signed the bill and gave the rich prize to the chief ringster, Mr. Secretary Quay, proves all this beyond a reasonable doubt. The agony made over the passage of the bill through its several stages, was the thinnest kind of sham.

Below we give a full detail of the vote in the House, hoping that the Democrats who voted for the bill will be so spotted by their respective constituencies as to cure them effectually of all lusts for legislative honors hereafter. (Democrats in italics.)

The Republicans voting against the bill were Fulton, of Chester; Irvine, and Mifflin, of Butler; McCowan and Peoples, of Lancaster; Shantz, Philadelphia; and Shonk, of Luzerne. The Democrats who voted for the bill were Carver, of Bucks and Crawford, Holland, Lodge, Monaghan and Pallatt, of Philadelphia.

The Republican has discovered that Democratic papers are good fertilizers. Never occurred to us before that that was the reason the crops in the Democratic portions of the county are always so much better than in the Republican. Always thought that nature and Providence had much to do with the productiveness of crops. Tuten, don't you see what a temptation you hold out to your Bald Eagle Valley patrons to subscribe for Democratic papers?

A correspondent in the Republican signing himself "Boggs" recommends Prof. B. B. Else, of Milesburg, as a suitable candidate for County Superintendent. May be a good man but—no go. Neither B. B. Else nor Anybody Else can get it this clip but Prof. Meyer. That's sure. Henry will walk off with the prize next Tuesday sleeker.

"To do as Folks of Fashion do." In one respect at least, you must use GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, which is immensely popular among the elite of society, and deservedly so, for it is the most salutary of beautifiers and purifiers. Sold by all Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, black or brown, 50 cents. 16-4.

Shoes at Stam's, only $1.25.

DON'T fail to hear the celebrated Jubilee Singers next Wednesday evening.

At Stam's store prints are down to 5 cents; good Rio coffee to 20 cents, and roasted coffee to 22 cents.

Dennis Lose has made a new good, flag-stone sidewalk. Who will follow the praiseworthy example? Now don't all speak at once.

The West Susquehanna Classis, Reformed Church, of which Centre county forms a part meets at Williamsport to-day.

John H. Maize's new house is up, under roof and under way generally. Keep the ball rolling, young men. Guess Jim Smith will come next.

"Lackawanna" is the name of the new county created out of parts of Luzerne, with Scranton as the county seat.

The Northern Conference of the Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania meets at Rebersburg next Tuesday.

Three new buildings are to go up in Centre Hall this spring—one by Jacob Dinges and two by J. O. Deininger.

Mr. Sivels, who has been confined to his bed by sickness all winter, is gradually growing worse. He has the sympathy of the community.

Do you want an Organ or Sewing Machine? The JOURNAL office can give you the best bargain ever offered in Penns Valley.

Rev. Dr. Keys, the popular lecturer, connected himself with the Presbyterian Church, at the recent session of the Northumberland Presbytery.

A valuable black kid glove was lost by a lady returning from preaching in Millheim, the other Sunday. The finder would confer a favor by leaving it at the Journal Office.

LADIES, did you see the beautiful, new style hats at Stam's? If not, you should go at once before they are all sold. You can get them trimmed or untrimmed, very cheap.

Reflect that in every cemetery ¼ of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and colds; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists. Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute. 18-4.

The other Monday the Sheriff of Huntingdon county was after the Watchman man, with a sharp stick we suppose. Wonder what ugly sin Meek has been guilty of up there again.

The Democrats of Lycoming county instruct their delegates for Hon. A. H. Dill, for Governor, and Hon. O. H. Reighard, of Lycoming, for Lieutenant Governor. Dill stock is rising.

IS IT TRUE?—Of course it is, because everybody says so, namely that J. W. Stam has the best and cheapest lot of goods seen in Penns Valley these many years. Go and judge for yourself.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference for the 34th District met at Bellefonte, on Tuesday, April 22nd, all the conferees being present. Senator Wallace was elected delegate by acclamation. He is understood to favor Dill for Governor.

At our Quarter Session Court last week, Jacob Wolf and George Adam, of the Penns Creek neighborhood were convicted, the former of arson, the latter of larceny. Wolf goes to the penitentiary for two years and Adam for one.

PROF. HENRY MEYER and MR. C. L. GRAMLEY made a short call at our Head Quarters on Monday. They are two of our best representative literary men, of tall, imposing posture, finely looking and splendid fellows throughout. If we were not so thoroughly unselfish, we would wish to possess the Professor's addication and would cheerfully give him ours in exchange.

We had much rain in this section nearly all of last week, and vegetation is farther advanced now than at any ye ar at so early a period, in the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant." Never before did grain and grass appear so promising, and it seems as though Providence meant to shower His richest blessings upon His undeserving and ungrateful children.

Matters at the Millheim Marble Works are brisk. Three monuments are already made this spring, and will be put up shortly, besides a number of heavy headstones and couches. The success of this old establishment is due to the mechanical skill and business integrity of the proprietors. Good work, fair prices and no misrepresentations are principles with them, and these have acquired for them a degree of confidence not easily shaken.

Our oldest three men in town are now confined to beds of sickness. John Harter, while descending the steps in front of Mrs. Harter's house last Thursday, had the misfortune to fall, fracturing his thigh bone. He is in a bad way. Jonathan Phillips is afflicted with chronic diarrhoea and a sore hand. Adam Moor had an attack of palsy. The first two are well up in the eighties, while Mr. Moor is their junior by some eight or ten years.

SEWING MACHINES, like all other machines, sometimes get out of order, and but few people understand to look properly where the difficulty lies. If there is anything wrong with your machine, you better not try too much to mend it, but take it at once to D. H. Rote, Aaronsburg, and get it fixed. Dan is a mechanical genius of a high order, as we have reason to know, and he will charge you but a moderate price.

The Lord willing the new Lutheran Church at Rebersburg will be dedicated to the service of Triune God, on Sunday May 12th, next, preaching to commence on Sunday previous. Prof. Zeigler, D.D., Rev. W. L. Criley and other ministers are expected to be present. The christian public is most cordially invited to attend. F. AURAND, Pastor.

The Northern Conference will also convene here Tuesday evening, May 7th.

J. Newman, Jr., at the Eagle Clothing Hall, Bellefonte, has just opened the best selected and largest stock of Spring and Summer Clothing ever seen in Central Pennsylvania. Why just hear some of his prices: A suit worth $7 for $4. Suits generally sold at $5 for $3. A good, all wool Cassimere suit worth $10 for $7. Best shirt, $1. Newman sells presumably more clothing than all the other stores in Bellefonte together—because his is a regular and exclusive clothing establishment and and his prices are so very low. Don't fail to call at Newman's for any clothing you may need. 18-4t.

INDEED?

We had no idea until recently that the accomplished and classic editor of the Republican had an eye so keenly appreciative of female beauty. He was in Millheim but once in his life, some six years ago, under pretense of "getting subscribers," but we strongly suspect he saw more pretty girls than he got subscribers. In last week's paper he gushingly delivers himself on the matter and calls our maidens

"Fair as e're the sun shone on," and that is just where he hits the nail square on the head. You may consider the "portly associate's" hat tipped, Edward, on behalf of our young ladies. Happy you found something at last in Penns Valley worthy of your praise.

THEY ARE COMING.

The Bellefonte Jubilee Singers, who have met with such flattering success at Pine Grove, Boalsburg, and Lemont, will give a series of concerts next week, as follows: At Rebersburg, Monday evening, May 6th; Woodward Tuesday evening the 7th; Millheim, Wednesday evening, the 8th; Spring Mills, Thursday evening, the 9th; Centre Hall, Friday Evening, the 10th.

The troupe consists of Miss Mary E. Roberts, Mrs. Maggie Brady, Mr. Geo. S. Skinner, Mr. John P. Thomas, Mr. A. V. Jackson, and Mr. Charles Garner, all colored.

The Republican speaks of the Jubilee Singers in the highest terms of praise. They are no doubt trained and skilled singers, and their performances are reputed to be of a high order. The proceeds of their concerts are for the benefi of the African M. E. Church, at Bellefonte.

We hope their tour through Penns Valley may be remunerative and generally successful.

REBERSBURG FRAGMENTS.

We will have plenty of all kinds of fruit, if old Jack will no more interfere.

The croquet fever is again raging severely in our town. Its effects are frequently almost fatal, at least our village Justice has concluded never more to fall its victim.

Mr. Geo. Schmeltzer, one of the oldest citizens of Madisonburg departed this life on Friday, April 26th, at the good old age of four score and four years. Peace to his ashes.

Mr. Jasper, the colored preacher contends that the earth stands still but the sun moves. If the reverend gentleman would only know that he could forward his theory with success in our valley, he doubt he would be in our midst ere long.

For information in reference to the novel way of going to Bellefonte inquire of T. M. Gramley and W. W. Hackman.
