THE NATIONAL TICKET.

as as as Last week the so called National party held their convention in Phila-delphia, nominated their candidates and constructed their platform. The convention was a very strange and discordant mixture of "respectable" men, Greenbackers, Laborers, and Communists. The latter elements predominated and took charge of matters from the first. "Respectable" Billy Armstrong, who was so sanguine of a nomination for Governor, was next to nowhere.

Some of the resolutions are of course all right and read well enough on paper, but the major part of the platform is visionary and impractic-

The following is the ticket : Gov-ernor-Samuel R. Mason, of Mercer; Lieutenant Governor-Christopher Shearer, of Berks; Supreme Judge-Benj. S. Bently, of Lycoming; Secretary of Internal Affairs— James L. Wright, of Philadelphia. Mr. Shearer has since declined being a candidate, and Judge Bentley er may do likewise.

It is not altogether an unusual thing to hear of some stir in our town occasionally, but one of the most pleasant and interesting times, in the measure of all the state of th For the Millhettu Journal. in the memory of all unbiased minds. took place during last week.

The Northern Conference of the Central Pennsylvania Synod convened here, in conjunction with the preparatory meetings for the dedica-tion of the new Lutheran Church. The following ministers with their delegates were present : Revs. Diven, Aurand, Tomlinson, Smith, Fisher, McCool, Anspach, Miller, Lintz and Schnure. Rev. S. G. Shannon, of Milroy, and Rev. W. M. Landis, Paster Loci of the Reformed Church, were also present, and elected advisory members. The neetings and services throughout the week were well attended and much interest was manifested by all

On Thursday aftermoon the exercises were conducted for the benefit of the children. Revs. Schnure, and McCool addressed the children, followed by Rev. Fisher, who spoke to the parente, very forcibly and eloquently urging upon them the neces. sity of training their children in the way they should go.

The most interesting feature of the week was undoubtedly the Bible reading or Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Shannon. Space does not allow me to give this matter justice. Suffice it to say that not only did the ministers participate, but all-even from the aged down to the youth, just ushering into manhood or womanhood, took

On Sabbath morning the largest concourse of people that ever assembled here on a similar occasion, flocked together to witness the dedication of the church. Services were held in two churches—the Lutheran and Reformed-one being entirely inadaquate to accommodate the people. Rev. Henry Zeigler, D. D., of Selinsgrove, preached in the Lutheran, and Rev. S. G. Shannon, in the Reformed Church-both to the delight and edification of the large numbers present. A debt of $775 still remained to be paid, but in less! than an hour this amount with a margin over, was secured. The whole secret undoubtedly was-the people heard good preaching, their bearts were benefited—and their purses opened. They gave liberally and cheerfully.

Sunday afternoon communion was held. It was one of the most solemn and impressive services I ever witnessed. Ministers and people-of all denomination present—assembled around the Lord's table to renew their allegiance to their Divine Master, the meek and lowly Jesus. Well may angels look down on such a sight and weep, if they can weep-for joy.

The exercises of the week closed on Sunday evening with an excellent sermon by Rev. Criley, of Lewisburg. The people returned to their homes with grateful hearts, well satisfied with the work done during the day and week. Yours,

It was a sorry sight to see these men passing from the jail to the depot here in charge of the Sheriff and his assistants. The crimes of most of them were committed while under the influence of whisky, and their fate ought to be a warning to others. The Sheriff delivered his prisoners safely, as he always does, and returned to town on Saturday. His deputies for the occasion were Cal.

BIG FIRE IN LEWISBURG. - Tuesday night the 7th inst. Lewisburg had a big fire. Shortly after 11 o'clock, while a heavy thunder storm was prevailing, M. Halfpenny & Co's. Woolen Factory was discover-ed to be on fire on the third floor. The steam engine was soon at hand. but every time it started playing on the fire the hose, which was rotten, bursted. The whole building was soon enveloped in flames, the heat became intense, and a scene of great excitement ensued. Another adjacent building of Halfpenny & Co's. as well as four other houses belonging to Mr. Walls also caught fire, and it was feared a good portion of the town would be laid in ashes. At this critical juncture some of the citizens brought out the old Valient hand engine and with it done good service. A second heavy rain also descended and very opportunely assisted to extinguish the flames on the Walls houses, but the factory and other buildings close by, were totally destroyed. Halfpenny & Co's, loss is very heavy, but they have a total insurance of $27.300 on the two buildings and on their stock. The fire is supposed to have originated by spontaneous combustion or by lightning.

boxes. [But how do they advertise?-Ed.] Some one had the meanness to shoot two hogs with shot, which may result in death to the poor dumb animals. Hope Mr. Gray may be able to find out who is guilty of so mean a trick, and give him the full penalty of the law.

KINGSTON, MINN., April 20, 1877.

I consider COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER the best plaster I ever saw, and am recommending it to alt. C. McMorrow. HUME, ILL.,
April 18, 1877.
It has done my boy more good than all other medicines. He now goes to school for the first time in three years.
