AT LAST.

On Monday the 13th, Hon. C. N. Potter, of New York, one of the best men in our national House of Representatives, introduced resolu-tions to investigate the crocked road by which Rutherford B. Hayes reached the Presidential chair, and on Friday the 17th, the resolutions were passed, notwithstanding the Republican members done all in their power to defeat it, by filibustering and preventing a quorum. 145 Democrats voted for the resolutions, and two-Mills, of Texas, and Moses, of Massachusetts-against it. The Republicans did not vote at all. and thus but too plainly showed that they do not particularly care to be Investigated.

A committee of eleven members, of which Mr. Potter will be chair-man, are provided for in the resolutions to conduct the investigation. They will be clothed with full power to make it thorough and exhaustive. The name of Secretary Sherman and Ex-Gov. Noyes, Minister to France, are mentioned in the resolutions, in no very enviable connection.

We regret that South Carolina and Oregon are not included in the states to be investigated-not that we believe that there was anything irregular in the latter, and as to South Carolina we always had our serious doubts whether she voted for Hayes; but it would divest the matter of all appearance of unfair-ness and would leave the opposition without even a decent pretext for their opposition. If any one thing is certain it is that the great mass of the Ameri-can people are thoroughly convinced that Hayes is not the clocked Presi-dent but that he great while clocked dert, but that he was only declared elected by a partisan commission, acting under a make-shift law of doubtful constitutionality. The re-cent Florida confessions have made investigation imperative. Let it be comprehensive and thorough. Let the bottom facts be reached and known. That is what the people de-mand, and anything short of that will be unsatisfactory and worse than nonsense.

Whether the resolutions look to the ultimate unseating of Hayes does not just row appear on the surface. The Republicans in Cong:ess seem to be scared about the matter. They issue an address "to the voters of the United States" in which they designate the action of the House as a "revolutionary plot" intended to inaugurate anarchy and Mexicanize the government. Nobody will be disturbed by this cheap clap-trap. The investigation will go on, the truth of history will be yindicated,
