THE NOMINEE.

Andrew H. Dill, of Union, the Candidate for Governor.

Andrew H. Dill, the Democratic old, and resides at Lewisburg, Union county. He is a Marylander, and the son of a Methodist preacher, Rev. Henry 4. Dill, who sent the boy to the Methodist schools at Carlisle. Young Dill entered the Dickinson Seminary in 1849, graduated in 1852, and then went into the junior class of the college, whence he taught school right after leaving college, being located in Frederick county, Maryland, and reading law in the office of James Lynch, Fred. erick city. He was admitted to the Frederick bar in 1858, but became a practitioner in Columbia county, this state. An office was opened in Gertysburg, but the young lawyer done before him, wander about. so after a six month's stay he joined his uncle, Isiah Dill, at Huntsville, Alabama. In April, 1860, he came back to Pennsylvania, and settled in vania Militia. After the war in 1865, he became a member of the firm of Billmyer, Dill & Co., boatbuilders, at Lewisburg. In 1869 he was nominated by the Democrats for the House of Representatives for the counties of Lycoming, Union and Snyder, composing the Seventeenth, a Republican district. He was elected and took his seat January 1, 1870. In the fall of 1870 he was elected to the Senate from the same district for three years, and has since Notwith-standing the popularity of Wagonseller in his own county-that gave him nearly 1,100 majority-Dill was re-elected by some thirty votes. In the Senate he ranked second only to Wallace as a parliamentary leader. and, without ever assuming the leadership, he gravitated to the front rank of his party in the Legislature, just as water finds its level. At the close of his second term, in 1876, he wished to retire, but was compelled to accept a third nomination. The district had been changed by taking Perry from it, thus increasing the Republican majority over 100, and the sharp party lines of a Presidential contest made the battle apparently more than doubtful. He accepted the nommation, however, and and Dr. Wagonseller, his old compet itor, was again nominated: but in the face of the intensified national conflict, he was again elected by over 200 majority, and has two years yet to serve in the Senate. Able in debate, sagacious in council, unobtrusive to a fault and blameless in repute, the nomination of his party for the office of United States Senator, last March, was but a just tribute to one of the most respected and meritorious representatives of liberal and progressive Democracy. tions. But at the election in the two houses March 21, 1877, Don Cameron received 146 votes and Senator Dill 93, Messrs. Heister Clymer, A. G. Curtin and John Jackson receiving one Democratic vote each. During the present session of the Legislature Dill has been the recognized leader of the Democratic side in the

Senator Dill replied in a very feeling manner, thanking the people of Union county for the many acts of confidence and partiality by them bestowed and especially for the spontaneous demonstra-

on that occasion.

While the investigation is progressing every one-whether Repubican or Democrat — had better make up his mind to keep cool. There will be no war, no revolution, no ousting of President Hayes, and so there is not even a pretext for excitement. The hue and cry raised by leading Republicans of "Mexicanizing the Government" is the sheerest clap-trap, to thin by much to deceive any body. It illy be-comes men high in office to manifest so much temper in this matter. If John Sherman and other brilliant lights in the Republican party are as innocent as they say they are, they need entertain no fear. If they are guilty let them suffer before the bar of public opinion as they deserve it. Let the investigation be pushed vigorously and all whose hands are clean of guilt will stand from under.

I make this statement from the fact that I cannot afford to canvass the county as other candidates are doing, but would in this way most respectfully solicit the support of every person are doing, but would in this way most respectfully solicit the support of every person in the county, and hereby pledge myself, if nominated and elected, that I will discharge the duties of the office with fidelity. #### WANTED, at the JOURNAL office, REBERSBURG FRAGMENTS.

Our Supervisors, Messrs. Jesse Long and Wm. Bair, were doing a vast amount of work on our roads during last week. Their motto seems to be "Low tax and every man to work out his tax." They seem to have no intention to lay a high tax and then collect it and handle the money. They think it more eco-nomical to let every tax-payer himself handle his money, if he has any, and all work on the road. I think this is moving in the right direction. Let this example be imitated by others, and we shall soon see better
