THE TIDE TURNING.

Indications are fast growing stronger that Pennsylvania is soon to have a complet change in the political complexion of her state government. Every elective officer in the state now is a Democrat, except the Governor, and he will soon step down and out when Andy Dill, the popular candidate of the Democracy, will be invited to the executive chair by the people, in a voice as unmistakable as it will be emphatic.

Properly speaking there is no longer a Republican party in Pennsylvania. For the last decade and over, Simon Cameron has had the most complete and undisputed control of radicalism in the state. So absoknow what were Simon's wishes in or something in that line. any political matter, was to know the result of the actions of any state, and in fact of most county conventions, in Republican counties, and of the election as well. The Republican party of Lincoln's time has been so thoroughly Cameronized in Pennsylvania that it might with much more propriety be called the cheap for cash. Cameron party. Who does not know that in the matter of Federal appointments, the Cameron power was simply irresistable? Simon Ter public places was tetally out of Democrat. the question. Don's chances to be returned to the Senate are not very brilliant, just now, and we verily believe that thousands of Republicans throughout the state will vote for Dill and the Demecratic local tickets, just to ride the old Keystone of the galling yoke of Cameronism, and enroll her once again among the list

They have a way of electing their candidates for Governor in the central Susquehanna counties. Simon Snyder, of Selinsgrove, then in Gld Union but now in Snyder county, was thrice elected to the Gubernatorial chair; James Pol'ock, of Northumberland, on the opposite of the river from Union, was elected Governor by 40,000, and William F. Packer, of Lycoming, the Susquehanna county immediately above Northumberland, was chosen Governor by a majority equal to Pollock's. The little county of Union is the only one of the line of the central Susquehanna counties north of Dauphin that hasn't had a Governor of its own, aithough it was entitled to claim Snyder, and now Dill pro-poses to fill up the gap. The candi-dates for Governor of the northern Susquehauna region have been as eniformly unfortunate. Judge Wilmot, of Bradford, was beaten by Packer; Judge Woodward, of Luzerne, was beaten by Curtin, and Judge Packer, of Carbon, was beat-en by Geary; Hoyt and Dill can look the matter up when they are doing the Wyoming centennial and playing host and guest at Wilkes-

Guess Not. - A correspondent from Millheim writes to the Centre Herald of last week that there is "some talk of taking the rolling stock off the L. C. &. S. C. R. R." Who talks such foolish talk as that? It was talked several times before this but never had any real foundation, and it is about time that sensational rumors in that direction should cease. Shut up your busy gab's unless you have something more truthful to talk about.

Ten Thousand Chinamen Killed.

WASHINGTON, June 10. - The Consul at Canton reports to the Department of State that a terrible tornado passed over that city on the 11th of April last causing great destruction of life, and property. The whirlwind came from the sea in the form of a waterspout and struck the shore on the foreign settlement of Shameen, passing thence in a northeasterly direction through the crowded part of the city of Canton. The average breadth of the track left by the tornado was six hundred feet. No American property was damaged. In the native city it is estimated that 10,000 persons were killed. Owing to the narrowness of he streets the work of removing the dead bodies from the wreck made slow progress and would take several weeks to accomplish. The weather was very hot and the fearful stench from decomposing bodies led many to tear the outbreak of a pestilence.
