THE BEST MEN.

It is of the utmost importance that every Democrat should attend the primary elections and there vote for his choice of the several candidates that are before the people asking their suffrages. It is here that the very ground work is laid for a good ticket, and what is a good ticket other than good men—men of intelligence, of integrity and of general good repute.

The voter should cast his ballot at the primaries more with a view to the success of the whole ticket than with mere local or person al aims, although these have their weight, and should get due consideration in the make up of the ticket. There should be a fair and equitable distribution of nominations, over the entire county, if by so doing other and primary considerations are not ignored.

As a party we are warned by indications most unmistakable, that our enemies are industrious, and that they will leave nothing undone to defeat our county ticket, or at least diminish our majority. A fusion with the National-Greenback-Labor party is contemplated, and thus they hope to weaken our forces materially and possibly elect some of their candidates.

The only real danger to our full success in the county is a weak ticket and local dissensions. Not every man's man can be nominated—it is impossible—and so let the best and worthiest be placed on the ticket, and we will not only have success assured in the county, but will contribute an increased quota toward the electioe of our excellent state ticket.

"CIRCULATION."

Certain diseases are confined to certain professions or classes of men, and it really seems that for the very reason that they are thus limited, they become the more virulent. Editors, for example, are subject to a very strange and dire malady known among themselves as circulation. What aggravates the matter is the circumstance that the disease generally selects for its victim—not the wealthy city journalist who counts his patrons by tens of thousands—but some poor country editor who can but illy afford to be put on the sick list.

Circulation, unless speedily checked, has the effect to develop all the baser passions of one's nature. It makes the poor victim extremely selfish, conceited, envious and hateful. He will by degrees get possessed of the hallucination that this mundane sphere was created for his sole and exclusive benefit and use. He tries to persuade himself that other editors are mere rabble—other papers than his own, the merest trash. He can never see any fault in himself, never any good in others who are engaged in the same profession.

Circulation will rob him who is afflicted with it of all real comfort and peace of mind. He will continually fret and chafe under a sense of imaginary wrong. Like an evil spirit it follows him by day and by night. It will make him snap and snarl like an enraged mastiff at everybody and everything that comes in his way. He will often abuse people who are his superiors in every desirable respect, and what is most remarkable, he is utterly incapable of making a truthful statement of this ailment, either with regard to himself or others.

Some constitutions are of course predisposed by nature to take this evil, and if permitted to become chronic it will thoroughly saturate the whole physical and moral being to the utter exclusion of everything that is generous or noble.

Beheading A Rattlesnake.

From the Cherokee Georgian.

A young man named Penny, while out hunting his steers, barefoot, the other day, stepped on the head of a large rattlesnake. He had his heel on the snake's head, and being afraid to move, did not know what to do for some time, while the hideous thing was writhing and squirming and vigorously lashing the youth's legs, Penny was badly frightened, but recovered presence of mind sufficient to take out his knife and reach down and cut off the snake's head.

The Reported Murderers of the Kinztlers of Snyder Co., in Jail.

Special to Selinsgrove Tribune, August 1st.

MIDDLEBURG, July 30.—The readers of the Tribune will remember the burning of the residence of the Kintzlers, two old Germans—man and wife, in which the old people were burned on the night of the 9th of December, 1877, and which at the time created the impression of foul play. The Kintzlers resided in Adams township, Snyder county. Several parties were arrested at the time for the murder, but owing to a lack of evidence to convict them, were released on a writ of habeas corpus. For some time rumors to the effect that the guilty parties were known have been circulated in the upper end. Last week Mary Hartly made information before John H. Bachman, Esq., and upon which Ettinger, Uriah Moyer, Israel Erb and the informant, Mary Hartly, were arrested and confined in jail at this place.

The following is a brief synopsis of the confession as made by Mary Hartly. It may be a little imperfect as it was secured under difficulties, but in the main it will be found correct: The woman Mary Hartly accompanied Ettinger, a beau, of her's for the purpose of getting measured for a pair of shoes at Isreal Erb's, who is a shoemaker. On the road they were overtaken by Moyer and his wife, who were also going to Erb's. A little while before they reached Erb's house, they were met by him; he came out of the woods. Here they halted and after talking a while the men proposed to the women that they should remain there in the woods while they would go to Kintzlers and see about something, giving as a reason for leaving the woman behind that they had cross dogs. After the men were gone some time the women heard a noise which sounded like breaking glass. The women became anxious to know what was going on, so they approached the house. Here they found Ettinger cutting a hole into the door with a double-bitted axe. After the hole had been cut in the door he reached through and turned the key. The men entered the house and killed the two old people, striking the old woman first with a club, killing her and then serving the old man in the same manner. They then searched the house and found the money, which they took out on the west side of the house and divided by the light of the moon. Before they left the house they set it on fire, burning it to the ground and the bodies of their victims were also completely destroyed. Whether this story as narrated by the woman Hartly can be established remains yet to be seen.

E. KOHR, Presiding Elder.

Rev. S. T. Buck, of the Ev. church was prostrated by the sheat on last Thursday morning, and could not attend the services of his church on Sabbath last. Rev. A. L. Reeser, Presiding Elder, took suddenly ill on Saturday evening last while officiating in the above church. In consequence of the sickness of both pastor and presiding elder, there were no services on last Sabbath morning, and the communion service was postponed till Sabbath morning August 4th.—Miltonian.

A recent town election in Illinois shows that an American citizen can be too little a politician. The farmers were so busy getting in their hay and attending to things in general that they forgot all about the election until the next morning and found that a lot of roughs, who had no farm work to do, had elected a convict just out of jail to the position of police magistrate. The Governor is being importuned to withhold the commision, but whether he does this or not, the farmers of that town have probably received a lesson on the duties of citizenship which they will not soon forget.—Phila. Times.

The Democratic county convention of Snyder county met in the Court House at Middleburg, July 22nd, and nominated the following ticket:

For Congress, Hon. John A. Magee, of Perry county; Senate, S. P. Wolverton, of North'd; Assembly, D. S. Boyer, of Freeburg; Associate Judge, J. A. Smith, of Middlecreek; Sheriff, Benj. Arnold, of Freeburg; Treas., Reuben Dreese, of Beaver; County Commissioner, R. P. Cornelius, Jackson, and Henry Wetzel, of Middlecreek; Auditors, Samuel Mowrer of Penns, and Daniel Reber, of Perry.

A Bellefonte correspondent of the Lancaster New Era says that the Greenback movement is tearing things up so in that part of the State that "not Chairman Quay's stentorian bugle-calls will hold even the faithful this year. It is now undeniable that Curtin has the inside track for Congress. The Democrats say it is necessary to give him their support, as he is the only mad who can dislodge the odious Cameron gang who have kept them under in the State so long. The Republicans say, since we must have a Democrat or a Greenbacker Curtin will be safe on the tariff question and his known loyalty will keep him right on the Southern issue. Besides, the masses are coming back to him with somewhat of the old feeling of war days." —Phil'a. Times.

J. WILLIS MUSSER.

Messrs. Nesbit Brothers, of East Lewisburg, have donated fifty dollars to the Milton Fire Department. Wonder if they would not donate about twenty times that amount to the Millheim Fire Department. Will somebody who is less busy than we please see them about it?

To our surprise and delight, our old friend Dr. C. B. Wagner, of Lebanon, paid us a flying visit on Saturday. The doctor is hale and hearty and seems to be getting along number one. He still has a warm place in his large heart for his old home and friends.

It is reported, says the Lewisburg Journal that Hon. John B. Packer has employed Gen. B. F. Butler, of Massachusetts, to assist in defending him as execut or of the will of the late Wm. Cameron, deceased. Butler at Lewisburg would be a sensation.

The Slifer, Walls & Shriner, Mfg. Company are just now making extensive preparations for the manufacture of stoves. They make several kinds and sizes of cook stoves and heaters, and persons who have tried them speak of them as fully equal if not superior to anything of the kind in the market.

THE RED FRONT FURNITURE STORE of Jacob Hower, Lewisburg, Pa., is one of the best places in this part of the state for good furniture. Any one who visits Mr. Hower's establishment will be surprised at two things viz.: the substantial quality and beautiful designs of his furniture, and his low prices. tf.

PICNICS. — The Union Sunday School of Rebersburg will hold a basket picnic in Henry Smull's woods, next Saturday. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. F. Aurand and Rev. J. M. Smith.

The Lutheran Sunday School of Aaronsburg will have a celebration next Saturday in Stover's woods a little east of town. The school will leave the church at 9 o'clock.

Our Union county neighbors will hold a county meeting in the Court House at Lewisburg, next Saturday, in the interests of economy and retrenchment. A county alms-house, the abolitiotion of several useless offices, and the reduction of the salaries of others, are among the "topics" to be discussed. Judging from the way the call reads these people mean business.

Last week Capt. J. P. Brooks, of Lewisburg, purchased the entire stock, good will, furniture and fixtures of the Watch and Jewelry business of the late C. H. Held, and removed the entire concern to the small, neat building between Eisenhuth's Drug Store and Tomlinson's Grocery. We know whereof we speak in saying that Capt. Brooke is a gentleman of standing and integrity as well as an expert in the watch business.

While we have but very few things to boast of we always did feel proud of our beautiful duplex watch. About a year ago, while straightening a fence, we were so unlucky as to drop her on a stone—giving her an ungly dinge outside and internal injuries from which it was thought she could never recover. She traveled to Philadelphia and New York for her health, but was obliged to return sick as ever. Last week we gave her to Capt. Brooke, our new watch man, who fixed her, and she is now all right again. How glad we are and how grateful to the Captain.

Mr. Cornelius, of the Lewisburg Chronicle, comes a trifle too near being an angel just for a common county editor. We liked him the first time we saw him and our respect has certainly not diminished since. The following piece, taken from his Chronicle, shows how clever and unselfish a fellow he is. Why it reads just as if he intended making the golden rule a living reality. Wish we had such editorial neighbors for a while, just for a change:

The "new departure" in our subscription arrangement, seems to suit our subscribers to the fractional part of a T. Come right along, ladies and gentlemen! Here's your Chronicle at $1.50 a year in advance. While our esteemed cotemporaries in the county print 48 feet lineal feet of column measure weekly, at $150 a year (and it is well worth that price) we give 61 feet, same measure, and somewhat wider, at the same price. Now mind, we don't want one subscriber at the expense of either the Journal or the Telegraph—they are entitled to a good support; but there are good citizens enough in this county and vicinity to give us all a paying list. Each of us, albeit, being furnished with a horn of our own, we would be considered ninnies were we too modest to blow it.

PROVOKING.—The Union County Harvest Home Picnic last year was such a grand success all 'round that every one present hoped it would be repeated this year. We mean that it would be held at some point accessible to us of Centre county. In fact we thought this was the implied understanding all along, and looked for the announcement for several weeks past. The committee however, or somebody for them, can't just see it in that light, and so they fix upon New Columbia, an out-of-the way place, to have the picnic. Who ever heard of New Columbia? We have heard Hail Columbia mentioned frequently, but New Columbia, no—that gets us. If it exist at all it must be in some obscure spot where nobody ever goes—and here is where the committee propose to enlighten the people on Political Economy and Providence in Husbandry. How about Providence in selecting places for picnics? Well it is really none of our business where Union county holds her picnics; but if we had that committee before us just now they would wish they had never been born. Thats all.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Huckleberries 5 cts per quart and plenty at that.

Capt. Hassenplug is getting along admirably and will soon be out again.

Nearly all our young people attended the picnic on the summit of Nittana monutain, last Saturday. Buggies were in sharp demand and brought as high as $2. A livery would do well here if the right man would take hold of it.

Charles Horner had two horses hitched in his spring wagon, and just as the family were in the act of getting on, the horses took fright and ran off, wrecking the wagon. Luckily no one was in yet.

The excursion train will leave here on Sunday morning for the camp meeting near Millmont, and return in the evening. Fare only $1. 09 for the round trip.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, New York. 25-4w.

A Wonderful Invention.

[From the N. Y. Daily Graphic.]

An invention all frugal wives will appreciate—in fact, an article that even rivals the sewing machine in usefulness—is now on exhibition at the Broadway store of the Wilson Sewing Machine Company, in this city; yet it is so wonderfully simple that it can scarcely be classed as an invention, and a wonder to everybody that it was not discovered years ago. The invention consists of a very simple little attachment of the Wilson shuttle sewing machine for darning all kinds of rips, worn-out places, ect., in clothing, table and bedlinen, stockings, underwear etc., in the same manner that it is done by hand, and leaves the repaired part scarcely discernible. The operator of the sewing machine can darn a large-sized hole in a bed sheet or table cloth almost instantaneously. It is to be regretted, however, that this wonderful invention is patented and owned by the Wilson Sewing Machine Company, of Chicago, Ill., who will not permit its use except with one of its make of sewing machines, which the Company's manager states, is furnished each of the Wilson shuttle sewing machine, without extra price. Truly, this is a golden nest egg for the Wilson Sewing Machine Company, and, it is said, they are running their works day and night and making and selling 300 machines a day.
