THE SUN FOR 1879.

The SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past: To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.
 The SUN has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the only policy which honest newspapers need have. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

The SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its hue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is the SUN's idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

The SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. The SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.
 While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the promptest, fullest, and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the world is worth attention. To this and the resources belonging to well-established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lead an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election in 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread and strengthening every where of a healthy abhorrence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN's work for 1879.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely.
 Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four page sheet of twenty eight columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $5.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet, of fifty six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.
 The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.
 The price of the WEEKLY SUN eight pages, fifty six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten send $10 we will send an extra copy free.

HORRORS OF THE PESTILENCE.

A letter from a plague-stricken district of the South says: "We are all bowed down under the nighty hand of God, and crying to him to have mercy upon us. The yellow fever is no stranger to us, and is not usually greatly dreaded: not so much as typhoid fever, malaria fever, scarlet fever, or small pox and not near so much as cholera. But this year the yellow fever has assumed a new character. It is malignant as never before. Many physicians pronounce it not the yellow fever, but a virulent plague under the form of the yellow fever. Children have always before been exempt, but this year the fever visits them especially. Negroes have never been much subject to it. This year they were peculiarly attacked. Usually but few die, most recover. This year it is reversed, and in some places all die who are attacked. Usually it avoids clean places. This year no cleanliness and no disinfection guards against it. Usually it avoids old inhabitants and acclimated persons. This year it attacks indiscriminately. Usually it runs nine days. This year sometimes not as many hours, and three days seems its limit. Usually it begins in September. This year in July, and there is no special reason either in the weather or atmosphere that we know of to cause this unusual deadliness. There has been no usual amount of sickness at all of any other kind.
 The terrible thing about it next after its malignancy, is the season of year in which it begins. We do not look for frost before the last of October or the last of November—perhaps not before the middle of November—and three months is an awful time! The Lord once offered David three years of famine, three months of war, or three days of pestilence. We have three months of pestilence to look forward to. But as the fever is new, it will probably grow worse, spread wider, and even grow more malignant. This is its usual course, and it is with sinking hearts that we look forward down the vista of trouble, pain and death. Poor Grenada two weeks ago was a flourishing little town of some 3,000 people. Now it is almost blotted out of existence. It was a pretty place, full of flowers, with many houses, nicely kept grounds, many happy families and all o generosity—for when the fever became bad in New Orleans and the people there began to seek refuge and were quarantined out of many places, the people of Grenada held meetings and sent invitations to New Orleans telling the panic-stricken people there to come to them. They opened every house, provided against extortion, and subjected themselves to crowding and annoyance—not for profit, but for humanity. The yellow fever had never visited Grenada, and they were confident that it could not gain a foothold among them. But one Sunday morning they were struck as if by lightning. Before Monday morning many were dead. On the next Sunday there were but 14 well white persons left, and now but five or six. Even the nurses and physicians sent from Memphis and New Orleans fell victims, and some of them, though long accustomed to the disease, died in terror. Many died through lack of attention. In two houses, close together, lived two families, one of seven and one of nine persons. Some were taken sick, then others, and finally all of both families, and when discovered the next day it was too late to do more than close their eyes and bury them. One gentleman living in Holly Springs heard that some of his father's family were sick and hastened to them. There were eleven in that family. Before 4 o'clock the next day he had laid out seven with his own hands with-out help.
 There were three brothers, bankers, with families, named Luke, all good churchmen, whose three families are utterly extinct, not one left alive. This is not yellow fever—it is the plague. Within an hour after death the bodies turn black. The negroes suffer terribly. Sometimes they are taken sick on the street, and turn and lie down on the nearest porch and die there. They will not help each other. The brother forsakes his sister, and the wife her husband and children. Those among them who are well suffer very much from hunger. They are laborers and mechanics, and depend upon their daily wages. But all work is stopped, all stores closed. In trouble they always turn to the whites, and never in vain. The Howard Association supports them, nurses them, and buries them when they will do nothing for each other.

A FORM OF PRAYER.
 The following circular has been issued to the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church of United States: At a meeting of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States the following form of prayer was prepared, and recommended for use during the prevalence of yellow fever:

PRAYER.
 Almighty God, our refuge and strength in time of trouble, give ear to our prayers in behalf of Thy people who at this time are suffering under grievous sickness and mortality, and hide not Thy face from them in this season of their distress. Remember them in mercy, not in wrath, and stretch forth Thy mighty hand to stay this pestilence. Heal the sick and deliver them not over unto death. Cover with the shield of Thy protection all those who are exposed to danger. Strengthen the weak hearted; comfort the bereaved and desolate, and give to them that are sorrowful beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Bestow Thy blessing upon those at home and abroad who minister to the relief of the afflicted. Sanctify this visitation to the good of this whole nation, humbling our hearts, binding us in sympathy one with another; and by Thy grace making us a people serving God and working righteousness. So may we live to honor Thy name and ex of Thy mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PREMIUM ENGRAVING, issued by "Peterson's Magazine," for 1879, like everything else from that quarter, is of unrivalled excellence, costliness and beauty. It is not one of the cheap, colored lithographs, with which the country is flooded, but a first-class line and stipple engraving, executed in the highest style of art. The artists are Homan & Brothers, and they have engraved it, (size, 24 inches by 30,) expressly for "Peterson's Magazine," in the most brilliant manner. It is such a plate as would sell, at retail, for five dollars. The subject is "CHRIST BLESSING LITTLE CHILDREN," and is after a picture by the celebrated German artist, Overbeck. It is a picture that ought to be in every household in America; that every mother, at least should own. In artistic merit and beauty it is, we think, the finest that even "Peterson's" has ever issued. You can get it gratis, by raising a club for "Peterson's" for 1879, or by remitting $2.50 for it and for the magazine, the magazine alone being two dollars. This is a rare chance. Or club subscribers can get it by remitting fifty cents extra. Specimens of the magazine sent gratis, to those wishing to get up clubs. Address CHAS. J. PETERSON, 305 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

He didn't go to the circus.
 For half an hour before the circus opened yesterday, an anxious looking, middle-aged man was observed walking around nervously, as he had a free ticket and was afraid the show was on the point of busting up. When the ticket wagon opened he made a run for it and bought a pasteboard, but while on his way to the tent, ticket in hand, a woman dodged into the procession, seized his collar, and for half a minute the air seemed full of heels.
 "Going to the circus, eh?" exclaimed the woman as she slammed him around. "Seaked out the back way and made a bee-line for here, did you?"
 "Let up on me—stop! stop this disgraceful conduct!" he ejaculated, as he tried to keep her at arm's length.
 "Gentlemen," she said to the crowd, as she held up one foot and then the other—see them shoes? I've worn 'em better nor a year, and there ain't nothin' gittin' but heels and shoestrings. And the children are just as bad off, and we don't have half enough to eat. That explains why I'm bouncing him—why I'll make his good for nothing heels break his good for nothing neck!"
 They fell over a rope as she grasped him, and in the confusion he broke away, leaving his ticket on the ground. A boy handed it to her, and wiping the mud off her nose with her apron she said:
 "I ain't seen no giraffes, nor clowns, nor snakes, nor hyenas for twenty-five years, and bring this 'ere ticket is bought I'd walk in and view the gorgeoussness, and the children shall come to-night if I have to pawn the wassitoo to raise the money!"—Detroit Free Press.

An exchange says: It is just awful discouraging! Just about the time watermelons begin to come in, the poor man has to scrape every cent he can raise to pay the tax on his dog. Why can't this dog tax be collected some time in the winter?

The man who has never seen two women in Snaker bonnets trying to kiss each other has never experienced the rejuvenating power of a laugh that could throw him down and kick him in the ribs.

CHEAP KANSASLANDS
 We own and control the Railway lands of TREGO COUNTY, KANSAS, about equally divided by the Kansas Pacific Railway, which we are selling at an average of $25 per acre on easy terms of payment. Alternate sections of Government lands can be taken as homesteads by actual settlers. These lands lie in the GREAT LIMESTONE BELT of Central Kansas, the best winter wheat producing district of the United States, yielding from 20 to 35 Bushels per Acre.
 The average yearly rainfall in this county is NEARLY 33 inches PER ANNUM, one third greater than in the much colder ARKANSAS VALLEY, which has a yearly rainfall of less than 20 inches per annum in the same longitude.
 STOCK RAISING and WOOL GROWING are very profitable. The winters are short and mild. Stock will live all the year on grass; Living Streams and Springs are numerous. Pure water is found in wells from 20 to 60 feet deep. THE HEALTHIEST CLIMATE IN THE WORLD! No fever and ague there. No muggy or impassable roads. Plenty of the building stone, lime and sand. These lands are being rapidly settled by the best class of Northern and Eastern people and will so appreciate in value by the improvements now being made as to make their purchase at present prices one of the very best investments that can be made, aside from the much coveted ARKANSAS VALLEY. A pamphlet, giving full information in regard to soil, climate, water supply, etc., will be sent free on request.
