. THE AFGHAN WAR

The British have beg"n war upon Afghanistan, a small Mohammedan state lying between Persia and India, and the British Inma Army is aheady rapidly advancing upon Ca-bul, the capitol, without thus far having fired a shot. They will have an easy and possibly bloodless victory over the weak state, it seems.

The cause, or rather pretext of this war is about as strong as if Mr. Hayes would ask queen Victoria to be imvited to a dinner party, and the dignified little queen would not views so abruptly and squarely that respond or even answer the suggestion, in any way. The Ameer, or ruling head of Afghanistan, lately received a Russian emblassy, probably for purposes of trade and commerce England. upon seeing this at once sends an emblassy too, but the Ameer declines to receive it and even treats it rather coldly, at which England takes insult, pretends to fly into a rage and goes to war. Jeal-ousy of the growing power of Russia in the Orient is at the bottom of Whether this little war will have any significance for the Uniten States or the world at large, depends entirely upon w lether other nations will or will not take a hand in the matter. At present nothing can be foretold on this point.

> For the Journal. BOROTGH AND TOWNSHIP.

Mr. Editor :- The subject of incorporating your town into a borthe past year or more, but until recently we of the township did not think that the town would urge the matter for the present. In this we are disappointed, as you already had your petition before the Grand Jury, and that body acted favorably upon It would seem then that you will have rather smooth sailing to get your borough, unless some of your own people should take it into

I have no disposition to enlist the feeling of the township against you, posed to be a Bald Eagle. for we had enough and more than enough of bitterness between town and country, for the last four or five years. But as this is a public question which affects our interests cheap at a lively rate. as well as yours, we claim the right to have our say.

I submit whether it is right and just that you should secede from the township even before the expensive road which was made at your instance and for your exclusive benefit, is completed? You compelled the township to make that road, as far as it is made, and now you are very unfairly trying to slip out of your share of the costs of completion and maintainance. I would like to hear your opinion on the fuirness of such conduct. On all other matters the ship would be fully able to take care of itself, and I presume if Miliheim really does want a borough, there would be no objections by us, except for the reasons above stated. TOWNSHIP.

REPLY.

Very much could be said in answer to what Township says and asks, but we will confine ourself to the main question—the road from Millheim to Coburn. It is true that Millheim wanted the road, for the very good reason that it needed | their small accounts, and we take it to have good access to the railroad; but it is very unfair to assume friends and patrons that the printer that the township done all the making thus far. ### For the Journal. COUNTY INSTITUTE.

Dear Editor :- A ware of the interest you ever have taken in school affairs generally, the zeal you manifest in all measures relating to progress, I ask you to find room for the following:

Our intention is not to scold anypatrons and others. one; not to tender any advice gra-tuitously, neither to find any fault with the present admirable administration of school affairs in Centre Co. We do wish however to state our opinion upon the County Institute. It is undoubtedly a powerful agent, efficient in its work; productive of great good; not to be dispensed with under any circumstancburg Telegraph. es whatever. We presume the prime object of its existence to be the interchange of ideas concerning the practice of teaching; the comparing commending, critizising or condemning different methods of school governments, etc.

With feelings of extreme pleasure we remember the many friendly, sociable and profitable sessions in the past, and trust, most earnestly, they will continue to cast around us the beautiful, necessary, profitable and above all desirable halo of security, of which we as teachers of the young stand so much in need. To sum up Institute as a body; nothing but gratitude to the many members who contribute to its success; and nothing but protestation (renewed and re-renewed) of fidelity, and emotions of highest and most enduring esteem for is its present head—Prof.

It is and has been customary to meet during the Holidays, near the middle of the term, and at a time when not only teachers but humanity in general wish to enjoy all that is to be enjoyed, and shrink from later with an aversion that must be hereditary; a time when we as far as possible desire to forget all the trials and vicissitudes so unpleasantly numerous at
