THE INAUGURATION.

Programme of the Inaugural Ceremonies at Harrisburg January 21st, 1879.

The indications are that the inauguration of Ger. Hoyt, which will take place on the 21st of this month, at Harrisburg, will exceed any similar event in the point of brilliancy and the number in attendance. The programme for the inaugural ceremonies has been announced as On Monday night, January, 20th, a full dress recention and hop, tendered to Gen. Hoyt by the Young Men's Republican Club of Harrisburg, will take place in the Opera J House, Gov. Hartrauft and staff will be present with Governor-elect Hoyt. On Tuesday morning at nine o'clock the military and civil organizations will form on Market street ready for parade, under directions of the Chief Marshal, whose hadquarters will be at the Lochiel Hotel. At ten o'clock precisely the parade will move, passing over a short route to West Stite street. where the line will be reviewed by the outgoing and incoming Governors on their way to the grand stand at the main entrance to the Cupitol milding. Here the inaugural services will be concluded with the inaugural address and the administration of the oath of office to the Gov-ernor-elect by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

At 3 o'clook in the afternoon the Senate and House of Representatives will vote for United States Senator in their respective Halls. In the eyening a grand display of fireworks will take place in the Cap. itol park, after which Gov. Hove will hold a public reception at the Executive Mansion.

The above article was sent us all ready prepare I for the convenience of the press." Of course it is convenient to have acticles sent you, all ready cooked for insertion, and it is not on that score that we object. We do most earnestly protest though, that it is impolitic and wicked for our state officials to hold high of at least $10 000, for that will be about the size of it, when thousands of our people are absolutely suff rdignitaries must have their fun all the same.

The Penna. Legislature met at professions. Harrisburg on the 7th. The Reoutlicans have a majority in both their own way. The Cameron Ring Machine was in the best of order and ran admirable and without even the least friction. It is true some of the new, unphisticated, rural members were struck with won der at the way things are done by the "machine," but their wonder soon changed into the most docile obedience to the ring. Cameronism reigns supreme and ringsters, roosters and small politicians are happy. The Senate organized by electing Senator Herr, of Dauphin President, pro tem, Thos. B. Cochran, Clerk, E. W. HARTRANFT'S LOST MESSAUE.

Gov. Hartranft sent his last annual message to the two Houses of the Peansylvania Legislature, Wednesday the 8th inst He speaks more straight forward and direct than in any of his former messages and leaves speculative disquisitions severly alme,

The one question that the Governor mu t speak of, but would rather be excused, is the condition of the State Treasury. The ugly fact that by the close of the current financial year (Nov. 30th, 1879) there will be deficiency in the Treasury of considerably over two Millions, is a littie awkward to handle, but the Governor labors nobiy to show that day evening, Jan. 21st 1879. al fund, and tries to show generally where here a little and there a little can be saved in order to make both ends meet. All this is the sheerest carnival, at an expense to the state stuff which neither Gov. IL nor any body else believes.

We suggest that the "gallant Hartranft" send in a special message, ing for bread. No matter though asking the two Houses to lant the how the people saffer, these high expenses of Hoyts inauguration to say $500. If he would do this and the Legislature would heed the sug- a bargain. gestion they might with some show of reason ask people to believe their
