TILDEN SPEAKS.

There is a well known principle in human nature that men do not like those whom they have injured, In this way the boundless malice which the Radical press have manifested toward that great and good man, Samuel J. Tilden, must be accounted for. Knowing as they do that their whilom pet, Ruddy Hayes, does not occupy the Presidential chair by the will of the people, but by the wicked deeds of the Return Board scoundrels, they would fain drag Mr. Tilden down to the same level occupied by Mr. Hayes, by trying to make the world believe that Tilden tried to do what Hayes shingles. Call at the Journal Office or his friends for him actually did do, and see. centre, and controls the trade of an average | namely, purchase the electoral votes of South Carolina, Louisiana and take special delight in when they speak of Mr. Tilden. The Bellefonte Watchman of last week, for instance, blurts out its spleen in the following bungling and clumsy man-

"Last Friday Nephew Pelton, who is the nephew of his uncle, Samuel J. Tilden, was called upon the witness stand in regard to the cipher telegrams and although he had lost the "key" his nephewship candidly admitted the correctness of the dispatches as published in the Tribune. The testimoney of Smith M. Weed and Nephew Pelton conclusively shows that 'Tilden attempted to buy southern electors."

The truth of the matter is, that Tilden is fully vindicated before the world, and this is just what our Radical friends don't like. He will pass into history as a statesman of the first magnitude and of incorruptable integrity, while Hayes, as far as he will be remembered at all, will be known as the fraudulent President for all time. That's just the difference, and there is where the

To the people who, as I believe, elected me President of the United States; to the four millions and a quarter of citizens who gaze me their suffrages, I owed duty, service and every other honorable sacrifice, but not a surrender of one jot or tittle of my sense of right or persunal self respect. Whatever the disappointment to those who voted for me, whatever the public consequences of suffering the subversion of the elective system by which alone free government—self government—can be carried on, by whatever easuistry a different course might have been advocated or defended, I was resolved that if there was to be an auction of the chief magistracy of my country I would not be one of the bidders.

I declare before God and my country that it is my entire belief that the votes and certificates of Florida, South Carmina and Louisiana were bought; and that the presidency was controlled by their purchase.

 I scorned to attempt to secure my rights and title by such means as were my rights and title by such means as were required to acquire felonious possessions. Petton did not act rightly. He may be tried; he may be condemned. Public opinon may punish him. At the same time, even that fault is to be judged of according to the facts, according to times, according to what was being done, and what was done. His act was an inchoate offence. On the other side, the act that was done was in accomplished and consumated the United States to the man who was not elected, and the representatives and the champions of that condition of things are the men whose consciences are troubled with the inchate wrong-doings of Pelton.

A LETTER FROM PRESIDENT GOWEN

which I stopped and crushed out in the Knights of Labor-startling Revelations.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., February 14 .publish a letter of President Gowen, work warranted. of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, exposing the secrets of an organization known as the Knights of Labor, which has been in exista year. He says a general miners' strike was ordered by the society to take place February 16th, in case the men were not paid their wages by that time. But a postponement was ordered until the 20th, by which time all will be paid. He gives the names of a committee called M'Mulley's gang, appointed and organized for the purpose of burning coal breakers and other property in case of a strike, and gives other details of the organization. The publication of the letter will create a sensation only second to the exposure of the notorious Mollie Maguire society.;

The True position for the Demoeratic party to occupy is set forth in the following, part of an interview with Senator Hampton, of South Carolina:

"Let us put good, trusty men in principles, and show ourselves worsum and the substance of our platform, fitted to good, honorable, trusted and tried standard-bearers, it matters not whether they be from the East or the West. I have no patience with an Eastern Democracy and Western Democracy, a Northern Democracy and Southern Democracy. It is no Democracy at all that is not as wide as the whole country.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

The singing class has postponed their musical conventon until next winter. Oh pshaw! Saturday night a week ago some one stole a bee from Mr. S. A. Woods. Who did it?

Everybody should attend the public entertainment of the Penn Hall school, next Saturday evening. It will be a rich treat.

Saturday night somebody stole a bee from Mr. James Kennelly, and on Sunday morning the honey was tracked to a certain place. A warrant was procured and a search made but no honey was found. Hope yet. YONEY.

-----MARRIED.

On the 13th inst., at the residence of the and Miss Maggle, daughter of Jacob Gephart, of this place.

Our poor heart was made exceedingly glad over our share of this happy affair. Such a rich profusion of delicacies seldom falls to lot of the poor country editor but it is Lukenbach have won golden opinions for themselves as teachers and leaders of music. The attendance is very good and a large crowd is expected for the concert on Friday evening.

The lot of the poor country earlier but it is all the more appreciated when it does. The fair bride-God bless her—has our warmed thanks. She was mindful of our Savior's command to "remember the poor." Who else than the poor printers of the present day could He have meant, when he said—"For the poor always ve have with you."

Surely they are always poor as well as all. Surely they are always poor as well as always "at hand."

We feel sorry to lose Maggie from our midst. She is one of our most estimable young ladies; and if that New Berlin chap, whom we have not the pleasure of knowing, is only half worthy of her, then we would call him a tip top fellow. We only know generally that the Schochs are very substantial people and trust that this one map be fully worthy of so honorable freundschaft. The happy couple have our best wishes. best wishes.
