HOPEFUL.

The Forty-sixth congress will meet under very different auspices from those which attended the congress which has just closed. There will be a democratic majority in both branches. For the first time in eighteen years the legislative power of the government will be in possession of the democratic party. Instead of oeing an obstruction the senate will be harmony with the house on all important questions of legislation that concern the welfare of the country. For the first time since 1861 the democrats will be responsible for this legislation. With all the opposition that the house has encountered in the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth congress it has made immense reductions in the public expenditures. The indisputable official figures show that the reduction in the last three years has exceeded thirty million dollars. As the result of this policy of retrenchment, resumption of specie payments has been secured, and the refunding of the public debt at a low rate of interest has been made easy. This is only the oeginning of the end to which the country may now look with confidence. With the opening of the Forty-sixth congress a new era of prosperity will begin. By reducing expenditures within the just requirements of an economical and pure government the public burden will be lifted and wings will be given to the industrial energies of the people. Sectional disputes over the dead issues of the past will cease with the retirement into a minority in congress of the party that has so long maintained these disputes in reckless disregard of the public interests. The last remnants of invidious partisan legislation will be swept away with the repeal of the jurors' test oaths, the bayonet menace of the ballot-box, and the federal supervision of the elections. The country will be at last united in spirit and in truth. In spite of the noisy clamors of faction the future is bright with promise.—Patriot.

The following item in regard to a delinquent tax collector in Cambria county, taken from the Freeman, shows how such scamps are cared for in that section of the State: "Mr. Michael Quinn, former tax collector of Conemaugh borough, pleaded guilty at the last session of our county court to the charge of embezzling certain moneys collected by him in his official capacity. On Tuesday of last week at the special term of Court, he was called before Judge Dean and received his sentence, which is a fine of $2,500 and imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for a period of fourteen months."

There is a good reason to believe that many of the collectors in Centre county act just as Mr. Quinn did, and a little of the same medicine that was administered to him would no doubt be "for the public good" in Centre county. On the 1st day of Jan. last our outstanding taxes amounted to over $65,000. Now the people would very much like to know if this amount—or how much of it, is collected, and if not, why not. If it is collected—and the impression prevails that much of it is—then why are collectors allowed to direct it to their own private use for years and keep the county out of it. Let us have a little enforcement of the law, just enough to make some of our slow or delinquent collectors hop around a little.

Tilden's Reply to the Americus Club.

Special Dispatch to the Times.

READING, March 5.—The Americus Club to-day received the following letter from Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, in reply to one notifying him that he is the club's preference for the Presidency in 1880: "There is no spot in our whole country which would give me more delight by its kindly remembrance of me than the county of Berks. On the formation of parties at the beginning of the government the people of Berks almost with unanimity joined the great political association to promote the largest liberty of which Jefferson was the head, and for almost a century, through all the mutations of time and of men, the Democracy of Berks have been unchangeably devoted to their original ideas."

Democratic Congressmen and the Presidency.

Washington Correspondence N. Y. Herald.

Of the one hundred and twenty-seven members who expressed opinions, fifty-seven were decidedly opposed to the renomination of Tilden; he was the first choice of thirteen members, but would be acceptable to nine others. Thurman was the first choice of fifty and was acceptable to eleven other members. Hendricks was the first choice of twelve, but twenty-eight others would be perfectly satisfied with him. Ten were in favor of Bayard, and nineteen would acquiesce in his nomination. Forty-two members were not prepared to express opinions.

The Forty-Fifth Congress adjourned at 12 o'clock, on the 4th instant, without having made the necessary appropriations for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the government for the year ending June 30th, 1880. An extra session thus becomes necessary and Mr. Hayes has issued his proclamation assembling congress on the 18th inst.

But few general laws were passed by the 45th Congress. The bill reducing the tax on tobacco, the bill to prevent the introduction of infectious diseases, and that providing for the payment of arrears of pension to soldiers of the war of the rebellion, are about all the laws of a general character that were passed, except appropriation bills.

D. O. Barr, of Pittsburg, J. Blake Walter, of Clearfield, Ex-Congressman Powell, of Bradford, are mentioned as Democratic candidates for State Treasurer.

JUDGES SALARIES.

If there is one single good reason why the salaries of our Judges should be increased just at this time, the people, no doubt, would like to know it. At present they receive not only good but even high salaries—as times are—and why the people should be burdened with an additional thousand, or perhaps more for each of our Supreme, President and Additional Law Judges, is not just so pressingly apparent to the average man.

A bill is before the Legislature, in fact it has already passed the Senate in second reading providing for a large increase in the salaries of our Judges. By its provisions the Supreme Judges are each to have $10,000 and the salaries of the other Judges are to range downward from $8000 to $4000 each a year. Nor is to have less than $4000.

Then expenses of our judiciary are increasing more rapidly than is at all comfortable or tasteful to a tax-ridden people. Not only are the numbers of our Judges largely increased but their salaries also. Under the old Constitution we had some fifty Judges in the state, whose aggregate salaries amounted to about $145,000. We now pay fully twice that sum, and if the present bill passes it will be over $500,000 annually. Half a million for Judges salaries in Pennsylvania is a rather formidable sum. We hope this bill may be defeated, and if the press does its duty but half, it will be.

Shot for Insulting a Lady.

RICHMOND, March 3.—C. C. Curtis, a clerk in Wings, Ellet & Cramp's boot and shoe establishment, was shot four times, this morning, by George Poindexter, receiving injuries which will prove fatal. It is alleged that on Saturday Curtis used improper language to a lady customer in the store, which was reported to Poindexter, the lady's financee, and this morning Poindexter went to the store and proceeded to cowhide Curtis, in which operation he was interrupted by persons present. Curtis subsequently went to Poindexter's place of businsss to have a settlement, when, in the altercation which ensued, Curtis was shot.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 141 Power's Block, Rochester, New York. 5-4w.

Who would have thunk it, that the Republican would ever raise the stale and senseless cry of fraud, but it does. Because the legislative power is about to pass out of the hands of its party, it already yells at the top of its voice "fraud, base fraud." That's what we call being in time.
